Also to the Rev. W. Walsham How, one of the Editors of Church Hymns, for his kindness in undertaking the work of inserting the Expression Marks, a work which the Editor cannot but think he has carried out with great discretion and taste; to Lionel H. Lewin, Esq., for much valuable aid; and lastly to his friend J. W. Elliott, Esq., for the use of his tunes and for the very valuable assistance he has rendered by his good counsel, his sound judgment, and his untiring energy in the more laborious department of manual work.

The Editor also begs to express his hearty acknowledgments of the cordial goodwill shown towards him by composers to whom he has made suggestions as to alterations of harmony, &c. Such suggestions have always been made with great diffidence, and only after careful consideration, and they have invariably been met in the frankest and most friendly spirit.

Adaptations from popular works are, as a rule, much to be deprecated, as presenting original compositions in a garbled form only. But exceptions may occasionally be made with advantage, and the Editor accepts without any very grave apprehension, the responsibility of such an arrangement, for instance, as "Come unto Me" (Hymn 351), the original melody, which it closely follows, being so linked with the feeling of the words, that separation would seem almost unwarrantable.

In the majority of cases where the words are set to an unison tune, a harmonised version is given as well; but in some instances this has not been thought necessary, notably in the Children’s Hymns, where a bright, taking melody has been the first consideration—a melody that children can learn easily and willingly, and which requires only a simple Organ, or, for school use, Harmonium accompaniment.

The marking of the divisions of the lines in the music is an important question, upon which no settled rules have ever yet been laid down. In the present work the following plan has been adopted:—The Long Metres are distinguished by a single broad bar at the end of the first and third lines, and a double bar at the end of the second line and at the close; and, the great aim being to guide the eye as far as possible, a similar principle has been acted upon in other metres, wherever it seemed likely to facilitate that object.

While acknowledging how greatly his work has been lightened by the earnest labour of previous workers in the same field, the Editor nevertheless trusts that this book may prove one more step towards the advancement of good and worthy music in the service of God.

_Easter, 1874._

TALLIS'S CANON.

L.M.

THOMAS TALLIS, 1565.

"Awake up, my glory; I myself will awake early."—Ps. lvii. 8.

F 1 Awake, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run:
Shake off dull sloth, and early rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Redeem thy mis-spent moments past,
And live this day as if thy last;
Thy talent to improve take care;
For the great Day thyself prepare.

3 Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-tide clear;
For God's all-seeing eye surveys
Thy secret thoughts, thy works and ways.

F 4 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the Angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King. Amen.

F 1 All praise to Thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept:
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake!

2 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Disperse my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

3 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers with all their might
In Thy sole glory may unite.

F 4 Praise God from whom all blessings flow:
Praise Him, all creatures here below:
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost! Amen.
"In Thy Light shall we see light."—Ps. xxxvi. 9.

1 Come, my soul, thou must be waking;
    Now is breaking
    O'er the earth another day;
    Come; to Him, who made this splendour,
    See thou render
    All thy feeble strength can pay.

2 Gladly hail the light returning;
    Ready burning
    Be the incense of thy powers;
    For the night is safely ended;
    God hath tended
    With His care thy helpless hours.

3 Pray that He may prosper ever
    Each endeavour,
    When thine aim is good and true;
    But that He may ever thwart thee,
    And convert thee,
    When thou evil wouldst pursue.

4 Think that He thy ways beholdeth,
    He unfoldeth
    Every fault that lies within;

He the hidden shame glossed over
    Can discover,
    And discern each deed of sin.

5 Mayest thou on life's last morrow,
    Free from sorrow,
    Pass away in slumber sweet:
    Cres. And, released from death's dark sadness,
    Rise in gladness,
    That far brighter Sun to greet.

6 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
    Light refuse not,
    But His Spirit's voice obey;
    Thon with Him shalt dwell, beholding
    Light unfolding
    All things in unclouded day.

7 Glory, honour, exaltation,
    Adoration,
    Be to the Eternal One;
    To the Father, Son, and Spirit,
    Praise and merit,
    While unending ages run. Amen.
MORNING.

3 "Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."—Eph. v. 14.

F 1 As the sun doth daily rise,
    Brightening all the morning skies,
So to Thee with one accord
    Lift we up our hearts, O Lord!

2 Day by day provide us food,
    For from Thee come all things good:
Strength unto our souls afford
    From Thy living Bread, O Lord!

3 Quickened by the Spirit's grace,
    All Thy holy will to trace,
While we daily search Thy word,
    Wisdom true impart, O Lord!

4 When the sun withdraws his light,
    When we seek our rest at night,
Thou, by sleepless hosts adored,
    Hear the prayer of faith, O Lord!

P 5 When the hours are dark and drear,
    When the tempter lurketh near,
By Thy strengthening grace outpoured,
    Save the tempted ones, O Lord!

F 6 Praise we, with the heavenly host,
    Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
Thee would we with one accord
    Praise and magnify, O Lord! Amen.

LEIPZIG. 7.7.7.7.7. GERMAN.

Not too fast.

4 "The dayspring from on high hath visited us."—St. Luke i. 78.

F 1 Christ whose glory fills the skies,
    Christ, the true, the only Light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise,
    Triumph o'er the shades of night;
Day-spring from on high, be near;
    Day-star, in our hearts appear!

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn
    Unaccompanied by Thee;
Joyless is the day's return
    Till Thy mercy's beams we see:
Till they inward light impart,
    Glad our eyes and warm our heart.

3 Visit every soul of Thine,
    Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
Fill us, Radiancy divine,
    Scatter all our unbelief;
More and more Thyself display,
    Shining to the perfect day.

F 4 Glory, Father, be to Thee;
    Glory to the Blessed Son;
Glory to the Spirit be;
    Glory to the Three in One;
As it was, is now, shall be,
    Filling all eternity. Amen.
MORNING.

Dayspring of Eternity,  Brightness of the Light divine,  As the daylight fills the sky,  Let Thy beams upon us shine,  Scattering with their glorious might  All our night.

Dayspring of eternal skies,  Grant that on Thine Advent-morn,  From the dust our flesh may rise  To a nobler being born,  Strong in heaven its course to run  As the sun.

1. Dayspring of Eternity,  Brightness of the Light divine,  As the daylight fills the sky,  Let Thy beams upon us shine,  Scattering with their glorious might  All our night.

2. As on drooping herb and flower  Lies the soft refreshing dew,  Let Thy Spirit's freshening power  Dry and fainting hearts renew;  Showers of blessing over all  Softly fall.

3. Let Thy fire of love destroy  All our earthly taint and heaven;  Wake our souls to love and joy,  Kindling like the eastern heaven;  Let us truly rise ere yet  Life hath set.

4. Dayspring of eternal skies,  Grant that on Thine Advent-morn,  From the dust our flesh may rise  To a nobler being born,  Strong in heaven its course to run  As the sun.

5. Sorrowing here we seek Thy face;  Guide us with Thy cheering ray:  Lead us, glorious Sun of grace,  To the land of endless day,  Where the joy that bids us rise  Never dies. Amen.

Harston.  L.M.  T. Turton, Bp. of Ely, 1858.
MORNING.

"I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God."—Ps. lxxi. 16.

1 Forth in Thy Name, O Lord, we go,
    Our daily labour to pursue;
Thee, only Thee, resolved to know,
    In all we think, or speak, or do.

2 The task Thy wisdom hath assigned
    O let us cheerfully fulfil;
In all our works Thy presence find,
    And prove Thy good and perfect will.

3 Thee may we set at our right hand,
    Whose eyes our inmost substance see,
And labour on at Thy command,
    And offer all our works to Thee.

4 Give us to bear Thy easy yoke,
    And every moment watch and pray;
And still to things eternal look,
    And hasten to Thy glorious day.

5 For Thee delightfully employ
    Whate'er Thy bounteous grace hath given,
And run our course with even joy,
    And closely walk with Thee to Heaven. Amen.

7 "They rest not day and night, saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come."—Rev. iv. 8.

F 1 Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!
    Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty
    God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

2 Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore Thee, Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and Seraphim falling down before
    Thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be!

3 Holy, Holy, Holy! Though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory
    may not see,
cres. Only Thou art holy, there is none beside Thee,
    Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

4 Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!
    All Thy works shall praise Thy Name in earth and sky and sea.
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
    God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!
    Amen.

A-men.

"His compassions fail not; they are new every morning."—Lam. iii. 22, 23.

1 New every morning is the love
   Our waking and uprising prove;
   Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
   Restored to life, and power, and thought.

2 New mercies, each returning day,
   Hover around us while we pray;
   New perils past, new sins forgiven,
   New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

3 If on our daily course our mind
   Be set to hallow all we find,
   New treasures still, of countless price,
   God will provide for sacrifice.

4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
   As more of heaven in each we see;
   Some softening gleam of love and prayer
   Shall dawn on every cross and care.

5 The trivial round, the common task,
   Will furnish all we need to ask,
   Room to deny ourselves, a road
   To bring us daily nearer God.

6 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,
   Fit us for perfect rest above;
   And help us, this and every day,
   To live more nearly as we pray. Amen.
MORNING.

"The Lord is thy keeper."—Ps. cxxi. 5.

1 Now that the daylight | fills the sky,
Lift we our hearts | to God on high,
That He in all we | do or say
Would keep us free from | harm to-day.

2 May He restrain our | tongues, lest strife
Break forth to mar | the peace of life;
And guard with watchful | care our eyes
From earth's absorbing | vanities.

3 Oh, may our inmost | hearts be pure,
Our thoughts from foul- | ly kept secure,
The pride of fleshly | sense subdued
By temperate use of | drink and food.

4 So when the daylight | leaves the sky,
And night's dark hours | once more are nigh,
May we, unsoiled by | sinful stain,
Sing glory to our | God again.

F 5 All praise to God the | Father be;
All praise, Eter- | nal Son, to Thee,
Whom with the Spirit | we adore,
One God, both now and | evermore. Amen.

"In Thy light shall we see light."—Ps. xxvii. 9.

1 O Jesu, Lord of heavenly grace,
Thou Brightness of Thy Father's face,
Thou Fountain of eternal light,
Whose beams disperse the shades of night;

2 Come, holy Sun of heavenly love,
Shower down Thy radiance from above;
And to our inward hearts convey
The Holy Spirit's cloudless ray.

3 May faith, deep rooted in the soul,
Subdue our flesh, our minds control;
May guile depart, and discord cease,
And all within be joy and peace.

4 So gladly let us pass the day,
With meekness for its morning ray,
Our faith like noontide shining bright,
Our souls undimmed by shades of night.

F 5 Dawn's glory gilds the earth and skies:
Rise on us, Heavenly Glory, rise:
O Father in Thy Son made known,
Son, sharer of Thy Father's throne! Amen.
MORNING.

Farewell. 6.6.8.4. John Naylor, 1873.

11 "He will be our guide even unto death."—Ps. xlviii. 14.

1 The star of morn has risen;
   O Lord, to Thee we pray:
   O uncreated Light of Light,
   Guide Thou our way.

2 Sinless be tongue and hand,
   And innocent the mind,
   Let simple truth be on our lips,
   Our hearts be kind.

3 Let not the flesh prevail,
   But all be ruled by good;

The gift of temperance bestow
   In drink and food.

4 As the swift day rolls on,
   Still, Lord, our Guardian be,
   And keep the portals of our hearts
   From evil free.

5 Grant that our daily toil
   May to Thy glory tend;
   And as our hours begin with Thee,
   So may they end. Amen.

MID-DAY.

12

"He ruleth by His power for ever."—Ps. lxvi. 7.

1 O God, who canst not change nor fail,
Yet rul'st each change that passes by,
Whose brightness gilds the morning pale,
Whose fires light up the mid-day sky;

2 Quench Thou the fire of hate and strife,
That wasting fever of the heart;
From perils guard our feeble life,
And to our souls Thy peace impart.

3 Grant this, O Father, Only Son,
And Holy Spirit, God of grace,
To whom all glory, Three in One,
Be given in every time and place! Amen.

"Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray and cry aloud."—Ps. lv. 17.

1 Up to the throne of God is borne
The voice of praise at early morn,
And He accepts the punctual hymn
Sung as the light of day grows dim.

2 Nor will He turn His ear aside
From holy offerings at noontide;
Then here to Him our souls we raise
In songs of gratitude and praise.

3 Blest are the moments, doubly blest,
That, drawn from this one hour of rest,
Are with a ready heart bestowed
Upon the service of our God!

4 Look up to heaven! The unwearied sun
Already half his race hath run;
He cannot halt nor go astray,
But our immortal spirits may.

5 Lord! since his rising in the East
If we have faltered or transgressed,
Guide, from Thy love's abundant source,
What yet remains of this day's course.

6 Help with Thy grace, through life's short day,
Our upward and our downward way:
cres. And glorify for us the West,
dim. When we shall sink to final rest. Amen.
"The shadows of evening are stretched out."—Jer. vi. 4.

P. 1

As now the sun's declining rays
Towards the eve descend,
So life's brief day is sinking down
To its appointed end.

F. 3
All glory to the Father be,
All glory to the Son,
All glory, Holy Ghost, to Thee,
While endless ages run. Amen.

Arranged by the Editor.
AFTERNOON.

"The Lord was my stay."—2 Sam. xxii. 19.

1. O Strength and Stay upholding all creation,
   Who ever dost Thyself unmoved abide,
   Yet day by day the light in due gradation
   From hour to hour through all its changes guide;

2. Grant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
   An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
   The brightness of a holy deathbed blending
   With dawning glories of the Eternal Day. Amen.

ST. GABRIEL. 8.8.8.4. Frederick A. Gore Ouseley.

16 "Begotten again unto an inheritance that fadeth not away."—1 Pet. i. 3, 4.

1. The radiant morn hath passed away,
   And spent too soon her golden store;
   The shadows of departing day
   Creep on once more.

2. Our life is but a fading dawn;
   Its glorious noon how quickly past!
   Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone,
   Safe home at last.

3. Oh, by Thy soul-inspiring grace,
   Uplift our hearts to realms on high;
   Help us to look to that bright place
   Beyond the sky;

4. Where light and life and joy and peace
   In undivided empire reign,
   And thronging Angels never cease
   Their deathless strain;

5. Where saints are clothed in spotless white,
   And evening shadows never fall:
   Where Thou, Eternal Light of Light,
   Art Lord of all! Amen.
17 "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."—Ps. xci. 1.

1 Again, as evening's shadow falls,
We gather in these sacred walls;
And vesper hymn and vesper prayer
Rise mingling on the holy air.

2 May struggling hearts that seek release
Here find the rest of God's own peace;
And strengthened here by hymn and prayer,
Cast off their burden and their care.

3 O God, our Light, to Thee we bow;
Within all shadows standest Thou;
Give deeper calm than night can bring;
Give sweeter songs than lips can sing.

4 Life's tumult we must meet again,
We cannot in Thy courts remain;
But in the spirit's secret cell
May hymn and prayer for ever dwell. Amen.

EVENING.

18 "At even when the sun did set, they brought unto Him all that were diseased."—St. Mark i. 32.

1 At even, ere the sun was set,
   The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay:
\[\text{p} \quad \text{Oh, in what divers pains they met!}\]
\[\text{f} \quad \text{Oh, with what joy they went away!}\]
   Once more 'tis eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near:
   What if Thy form we cannot see?
   We know and feel that Thou art here.

P 2 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;
   For some are sick, and some are sad,
   And some have never loved Thee well,
   And some have lost the love they had;
   And some are pressed with worldly care;
   And some are tried with sinful doubt;
   And some such grievous passions tear
   That only Thou canst cast them out;

P 3 And some have found the world is vain,
   Yet from the world they break not free;
   And some have friends who give them pain,
   Yet have not sought a friend in Thee.
   And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
   For none are wholly free from sin;
   And they who fain would serve Thee best
   Are conscious most of wrong within.

P 4 O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man;
   Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried,
   Thy kind but searching glance can scan
   The very wounds that shame would hide;
   Thy touch has still its ancient power;
   No word from Thee can fruitless fall;
   Hear, in this solemn evening hour,
   And in Thy mercy heal us all. Amen.

"Thy Name is near."—Ps. lxxv. 1.

1 Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That thou with wonted love wouldst keep
Thy watch around us while we sleep.

2 Our souls from evil dreamings keep
Through all the unguarded hours of sleep;
Our ghostly foe do Thou restrain,
So may no sin our bodies stain.

3 Hear Thou our prayer, Almighty King!
Hear Thou our praises while we sing,
Adoring with the heavenly host
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost! Amen.

20 "The sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he arose."—Eccles. i. 5.

1 Father, by Thy love and power
Comes again the evening hour:
Light has vanished, labours cease,
Weary creatures rest in peace.
Thou, whose genial dews distil
On the lowliest weed that grows,
Father, guard our bed from ill,
Lull Thy creatures to repose.
We to Thee ourselves resign;
Let our latest thoughts be Thine.

2 Saviour, to Thy Father bear
This our feeble evening prayer:
Thou hast seen how oft to-day
We like sheep have gone astray;
Worldly thoughts, and schemes of pride,
Wishes to Thy Cross untrue,
Secret faults, and undescribed,
Meet Thy spirit-piercing view;
Blesséd Saviour, yet through Thee
Grant that these may pardoned be.

P 3 Holy Spirit, let Thy balm
Fall on us in evening's calm:
Yet awhile, before we sleep,
We with Thee will vigils keep.
Lead us on our sins to muse,
Give us truest penitence;
cres. Then the love of God infuse,
Breathing humble confidence;
Melt our spirits, mould our will,
Soften, strengthen, comfort still.

4 Blesséd Trinity, be near,
Through the hours of darkness drear;
Then, when shrinks the lonely heart,
Thou more clearly present art.
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Watch o'er our defenceless heads,
Let Thy Angels' guardian host
Keep all evil from our beds,
f Till the flood of morning rays
f Wake us to a song of praise. Amen.

TALLIS'S CANON.

L.M.

Thomas Tallis, 1565.

"Hide me under the shadow of Thy wings."—Ps. xvii. 8.

F 1 Glory to Thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings,
Beneath Thine own Almighty wings!

F 2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;

p Teach me to die, that so I may p Rise glorious at the awful day.

4 Oh, may my soul on Thee repose;
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close,— Sleep, that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

F 5 Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

"I shall be satisfied, when I awake with Thy likeness."—Ps. xvii. 15.

1 God, that madest earth and heaven,
   Darkness and light;
   Who the day for toil has given,
   For rest the night;
   May Thine Angel-guards defend us,
   Slumber sweet Thy mercy send us,
   Holy dreams and hopes attend us,
   This livelong night.

2 Guard us waking, guard us sleeping;
   And, when we die,
   May we in Thy mighty keeping
   All peaceful lie.
   When the last dread call shall wake us,
   Do not Thou, our God, forsake us,
   But to reign in glory take us,
   With Thee on high! Amen.

“At evening time it shall be light.”—Zech. xiv. 7.

1 Holy Father, cheer our way
   With Thy love's perpetual ray:
   Grant us every closing day
   Light at Evening-time.

2 Holy Saviour, calm our fears,
   When earth's brightness disappears:
   Grant us in our latter years
   Light at Evening-time.

3 Holy Spirit, be Thou nigh,
   When in mortal pains we lie:
   Grant us, as we come to die,
   Light at Evening-time.

4 Holy, blessed Trinity!
   Darkness is not dark with Thee,
   Those Thou keepest always see
   Light at Evening-time. Amen.

24  "Even the night shall be light about me."—Ps. cxxxix. 11.

1 Now the day is over,
Night is drawing nigh;
Shadows of the evening
Steal across the sky;

2 Jesu, grant the weary
Calm and sweet repose;
With Thy tenderest blessing
May our eyelids close.

3 Grant to little children
Visions bright of Thee;
Guard the sailors tossing
On the angry sea.

4 Comfort every sufferer
Watching late in pain;

5 Through the long night-watches
May Thine Angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Standing round my bed.

6 When the morning wakens,
Then may I arise
Pure, and fresh, and sinless
In Thy holy eyes.

F 7 Glory to the Father,
Glory to the Son,
And to Thee, blest Spirit,
Whilst all ages run. Amen.

St. Nicholas. 10.6.10.6. C. C. Scholefield.

Those who plan some evil
From their sins restrain.

Through the long night-watches
May Thine Angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Standing round my bed.

In Thy holy eyes.

Glory to the Father,
Glory to the Son,

"Being the brightness of His glory."—Heb. i. 3.

1 O BRIGHTNESS of the Eternal Father's Face,
Most holy, heavenly, blest,
Lord Jesu Christ, in whom His truth and grace
Are visibly expressed;

2 Now that the daylight fades, and one by one
The lamps of evening shine:

LANGTON. [First Tune.]        S.M.        Adapted by C. STREATFIELD.

We praise once more the Father and the Son
And Holy Ghost Divine.

F 3 Worthy art Thou at all times to receive
Praise from Thy saints, O Lord;
Be Thou, O Son of God, in whom we live,
Through all the world adored! Amen.

P 1 Saviour, abide with us!
The day is now far gone:
We would obtain a blessing thus
By coming to Thy throne.

2 We have not reached that land,
That happy land as yet,
Where holy Angels round Thee stand,
Whose sun can never set.

3 Our sun is sinking now;
Our day is almost o'er;

Shine on us evermore! Amen.

"The Lord will bless His people with peace."—Ps. xxix. 11.

P 1 Saviour, again to Thy dear Name we raise
   With one accord our parting hymn of praise:
   Cres. We stand to bless Thee ere our worship cease;
   Dim. Then, lowly kneeling, wait Thy word of peace.

2 Grant us Thy peace through this approaching night;
   Turn Thou for us its darkness into light;
   From harm and danger keep Thy children free;
   For dark and light are both alike to Thee.

3 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward way;
   With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day:
   Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
   That in this house have called upon Thy Name.

4 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,
   Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife:
   Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
   Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal Peace. Amen.

Salvator. 8.7.8.7. DOUBLE. Sir John Goss.

"God fainteth not, neither is weary."—Isa. xl. 28.

P 1 Saviour, breathe an evening blessing,
   Ere repose our spirits seal;
   Sin and want we come confessing;
   Thou canst save, and Thou canst heal.

2 Though destruction walk around us,
   Though the arrow past us fly,
   Angel-guards from Thee surround us;
   We are safe if Thou art nigh.

3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
   Darkness cannot hide from Thee;
   Thou art He who, never weary,
   Watchest where Thy people be.

4 Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
   And our couch become our tomb,
   May the heavenly morn awake us,
   Clad in bright and deathless bloom. Amen.
EVENING.

Sun of my Soul. [First Tune.] L.M. H. Percy Smith.

P 1 Sun of my soul! Thou Saviour dear,
    It is not night if Thou be near:
Oh! may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.

2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live:
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.

"The Lord God is a sun."—Ps. lxxiv. 11.

4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
    Have spurned, to-day, the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.

5 Watch by the sick: enrich the poor
    With blessings from Thy boundless store:
Be every mourner's sleep to-night
Like infants' slumbers, pure and light.

6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
    Ere through the world our way we take;
cres. Till in the ocean of Thy love
f We lose ourselves in heaven above. Amen.

"The Lord is my Light."—Ps. xxvii. 1.

1 Sweet Saviour! bless us ere we go;
Thy word into our minds instil,
And make our lukewarm hearts to glow
With lowly love and fervent will.

Through life's long day, p and death's
dark night,
O gentle Jesu, be our Light.

2 The day is done, its hours have run;
And Thou hast taken count of all—
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.

Through life's long day, p and death's
dark night,
O gentle Jesu, be our Light.

3 Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And simple hearts without alloy,
That only long to be like Thee.

Through life's long day, p and death's
dark night,
O gentle Jesu, be our Light.

4 All toil is blest, for Thou hast toiled,
And care is light, for Thou hast cared:
Let not our works by strife be soiled,
Or by deceit our hearts ensnared.

Through life's long day, p and death's
dark night,
O gentle Jesu, be our Light.

5 For all we love, the poor, the sad,
The sinful, unto Thee we call;
O let Thy mercy make us glad:
Thou art our Saviour, and our All.

Through life's long day, p and death's
dark night,
O gentle Jesu, be our Light.

6 Sweet Saviour! bless us: night is come,
Through night and darkness near us be;
Good Angels watch about our home,
And we are one day nearer Thee!

Through life's long day, p and death's
dark night,
O gentle Jesu, be our Light. Amen.
EVENING.

Thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.—Ps. iv. 9.

1 The day is past and over:
    All thanks, O Lord, to Thee!
    We pray Thee now, that sinless
    The hours of dark may be.
    O Jesu! keep us in Thy sight,
    And guard us through the coming night.

2 The joys of day are over:
    We lift our hearts to Thee;
    And ask Thee that offenceless
    The hours of dark may be.
    O Jesu! keep us in Thy sight,
    And guard us through the coming night.

3 The toils of day are over:
    We raise the hymn to Thee;
    And ask that free from peril
    The hours of dark may be.
    O Jesu! keep us in Thy sight,
    And guard us through the coming night.

4 Be Thou our soul's Preserver,
    O God, for Thou dost know
    How many are the perils
    Through which we have to go.
    O loving Jesu! hear our call,
    And guard and save us from them all. Amen.

A-men.
EVENING.

RADFORD. [First Tune.] 9.8.9.8. S. S. WESLEY.

THE day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
The darkness falls at Thy behest;
To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall hallow now our rest.

We thank Thee that Thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.

As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,

The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.

The sun, that bids us rest, is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

So be it, Lord; Thy throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;

But stand, and rule, and grow for ever,
Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway. Amen.
33

"And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the Lord."—Exod. xvi. 7.

1 The splendours of Thy glory, Lord,
Hath no man seen nor known;
And highest Angels veil their eyes
Before Thy shining throne.

2 Here we in darkness sit forlorn,
Death's shade upon us lies;
But night will wane, and o'er our heads
The eternal dayspring rise.

3 So bright a day for us prepared,
O Lord, Thou hast in store,
That this all-glorious sun shall fade
Its sevenfold light before.

4 But, ah! too long thou lingerest,
Thou long-expected day;
And ere we see thee we must cast
This mortal coil away.

5 But when our bonds are rent, O God,
Our souls to Thee shall soar,
And see Thy face, and praise Thee well,
And love Thee evermore.

6 Grant us Thy peace, blest Trinity,
Fair love and saintly might;
And for this dim and fleeting day
Give us immortal light. Amen.
"I will make them to lie down safely."—Hos. ii. 18.

1 Through the day Thy love has spared us;
   Now we lay us down to rest:
Through the silent watches guard us;
   Let no foe our peace molest:
Jesu, Thou our Guardian be;
   Sweet it is to trust in Thee.

2 Pilgrims here on earth, and strangers,
   Dwelling in the midst of foes,
Us and ours preserve from dangers,
   In Thine arms may we repose;
And, when life's brief day is past,
   Rest with Thee in heaven at last. Amen.

Also the following:—

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide (329).
All praise to Thee, in light arrayed,
Who light Thy dwelling-place hast made:
A boundless ocean of bright beams
From Thy, all glorious Godhead, streams.

The sun in its meridian height
Is very darkness in Thy sight:
My soul oh lighten and inflame
With thought and love of Thy great Name!

Shine on me, Lord: new life impart;
Fresh ardours kindle in my heart;

Also the following:—O God, Thou art my God alone (447).

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

"And God said, Let there be light: and there was light."—Gen. i. 3.

F 1 Morn of morns, the best and first!
When the light from darkness burst;
When the world's true light broke through
Death's stronghold, and rose anew!

2 Darkness heard, and fled away;
Death obeyed, and loosed his prey;
Oh! shall we, more deaf than all,
Still refuse our Master's call?

3 No: while earth in shadow lies,
Let the sons of light arise,
And outstrip the morning rays
With their thankful notes of praise.

4 Other homes in sleep lie stilled:
Let the House of God be filled;

"In the morning, rising up a great while before day, He went out ... and prayed."—St. Mark i. 35.

1 On this the day when days began,
When first the light through darkness broke,
The day when God, for us made Man,
Arose from death and burst its yoke;

2 With sloth cast off, we early rise,
As David rose by night to praise,
And ask from God's right hand supplies
Of pardoning and restoring grace.

3 On each who in this solemn hour
Of morning stillness comes to pray,

D

Father of lights, vouchsafe to shower
The fulness of Thy gifts to-day.

4 Cleanse Thou our heart from thoughts of sin;
Restrain our life from all offence;
Let no unhallowed fire within
Be kindled through the gates of sense.

5 That this may be, to Thee we cry:
Saviour, blot out our guilty past,
And grant us in Thy clemency
The gift of life with Thee at last. Amen.

"Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the Lord."—Ps. cxxxiv. 2.

1 Alleluia! Fairest morning!
Fairer than our words can say!
Down we lay the heavy burden
Of life's toil and care to-day;
While this morn of joy and love
Brings fresh vigour from above.

2 Sun-day, full of holy glory!
Sweetest rest-day of the soul!
Light upon a world of darkness
From thy blessed moments roll!
Holy, happy, heavenly day,
Thou canst charm our grief away.
3 In the gladness of His worship
   We will seek our joy to-day:
It is then we learn the fulness
   Of the grace for which we pray,
When the word of life is given,
   Like the Saviour's voice from heaven.

4 Let the day with Thee be ended,
    As with Thee it has begun;
   And Thy blessing, Lord, be granted,
    Till earth's days and weeks are done;
   That at last Thy servants may Keep eternal Sabbath-day. Amen.

"Praise God in His sanctuary."—Ps. cl. 1.

1 Servants of God, awake,
   To hail this sacred day,
And in glad songs of praise
   Your grateful homage pay;
Come bless the day that God hath blest,
   The type of heaven's eternal rest.

2 Upon this happy morn
   The Lord of life arose;
He burst the bands of death,
   And vanquished all our foes;
And now He pleads our cause above,
   And reaps the fruit of all His love.

3 All hail, triumphant Lord!
   Heaven with hosannas rings,
And earth in humbler strains
   Thy praise responsive sings;
Worthy the Lamb, that once was slain,
   Through endless years to live and reign! Amen.
(Morning.)

40

"He leadeth me beside the still waters."—Ps. xxiii. 2.

1 The dawn of God's new Sabbath
   Breaks o'er the earth again,
   As some sweet summer morning
   After a night of pain.
   It comes as cooling showers
   To cheer a thirsting land,
   As shades of clustered palm-trees
   'Mid weary wastes of sand.

2 Lord, we would bring our burden
   Of sinful thought and deed,
   In Thy pure presence kneeling
   From bondage to be freed;
   Our heart's most bitter sorrow
   For all our work undone,
   So many talents wasted,
   So few true conquests won.

3 Yet still, O Lord long-suffering,
   Still grant us in our need
   Here in Thy holy presence
   The saving Name to plead;
   And on Thy Day of blessings,
   Within Thy temple walls,
   To foretaste the pure worship
   Of Sion's golden halls:

4 Until in joy and gladness
   We reach that Home at last,
   When life's short week of sorrow
   And sin and strife is past;

   When angel-hands have gathered
   The first ripe fruit for Thee,
   O Father, Son, and Spirit,
   Most Holy Trinity! Amen.

"Ye are all the children of light."—1 Thess. v. 5.

1 This is the day the light was made,
   That glorious gift of heaven;
This is the day the Lord arose;
   The best of all the seven.

2 This is the day the darkness fled,
   And death to life gave way;
And evermore to light and life
   God calls His saints to-day.

3 Then wake, ye children of the light,
   And hearken to His voice,
With early songs of praise draw nigh,
   And in His courts rejoice.

4 Let carnel sloth and faithless fear
   From every heart be driven,
Spend we this day as they that hope
   To spend the rest in heaven.

5 So shall our souls, most holy God,
   Thy gracious influence prove,
Enlightened by Thy saving word,
   And quickened by Thy love.

6 Praise to the Father and the Son:

Blest Spirit, who our hearts dost fill,

"Praise Him, all His Angels."—Ps. cxlviii. 2.

1 Our day of praise is done;
   The evening shadows fall;
But pass not from us with the sun,
   True Light that lightenest all!

2 Around the Throne on high,
   Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
   Bring ceaseless hymns to Thee.

3 Too faint our anthems here;
   Too soon of praise we tire:
But oh, the strains how full and clear
   Of that eternal choir!

4 Yet, Lord, to Thy dear will
   If Thou attune the heart,
We in Thine Angels' music still
   May bear our lower part.

5 'Tis Thine each soul to calm
   Each wayward thought reclaim,
And make our life a daily psalm
   Of glory to Thy Name.

6 A little while, and then
   Shall come the glorious end;
And songs of Angels and of men,
   In perfect praise shall blend. Amen.

1 Hail! sacred day of earthly rest,
   From toil and trouble free;
Hail! day of light, that bringest light
   And joy to me.

P 2 A holy stillness, breathing calm
   On all the world around,
Uplifts my soul, O God, to Thee,
   Where rest is found.

P 3 No sound of jarring strife is heard,
   As weekly labours cease;
No voice, but those that sweetly sing
   Sweet songs of peace.

4 On all I think, or say, or do,
   A ray of light divine
Is shed, O God, this day, by Thee,
   For it is Thine.

F 5 I hear the organ loudly peal,
And soaring voices raise
   To Thee, their great Creator, hymns
Of deathless praise!

F 6 From choir to battlement and tower
   The solemn anthem rolls,
Ascending with the hidden fire
   Of ransomed souls.

P 7 All earthly things appear to fade,
   As, rising high and higher,
The yearning voices strive to join
   The heavenly choir.

8 Accept, O God, my hymn of praise,

Sweet foretaste of that endless day
   Of rest in heaven.  Amen.

3 In Thy blest kingdom we shall be

45 "This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it."—Ps. cxviii. 24.

1 O day of rest and gladness,
   Of day of joy and light,
   O balm of care and sadness,
   Most beautiful, most bright;
On thee the high and lowly,
   Through ages joined in tune,
   Sing, Holy, Holy, Holy,
   To the great God Triune.

2 On thee, at the Creation,
   The light first had its birth:
   On thee for our salvation,
   Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee, our Lord victorious
   The Spirit sent from heaven;
   And thus on thee most glorious,
   A triple light was given.

3 Thou art a port protected
   From storms that round us rise;
   A garden intersected
   With streams of Paradise;
Thou art a cooling fountain
   In life's dry dreary sand;
   From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
   We view our promised Land.

4 Thou art a holy ladder,
   Where Angels go and come;
   Each Sunday finds us gladder,
   Nearer to heaven, our home:
O day of sweet refection
   Thou art, a day of love;
   A day of resurrection
   From earth to things above.

5 To-day on weary nations
   The heavenly Manna falls;
   To holy convocations
   The silver trumpet calls;
   Where Gospel-light is glowing
   With pure and radiant beams;
   And living water flowing
   With soul-refreshing streams.

6 New graces ever gaining
   From this our day of rest,
   We reach the rest remaining
   To spirits of the blest.
To Holy Ghost be praises,
   To Father and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
   To Thee, blest Three in One.

Amen.

"The evening and the morning were the first day."—Gen. i. 5.

1 This day, at Thy creating word,
First o'er the earth the light was poured;
O Lord, this day upon us shine,
And fill our souls with light divine.

2 This day the Lord, for sinners slain,
In might victorious rose again:
O Jesu, may we raised be
From death of sin to life in Thee.

3 This day the Holy Spirit came
With fiery tongues of cloven flame:
O Spirit, fill our hearts this day
With grace to hear, and grace to pray.

4 O day of light, and life, and grace!
From earthly toils sweet resting-place!
Thy hallowed hours, best gift of Love,
Give we again to God above!

5 All praise to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee,
Whom with the Spirit we adore
For ever and for evermore. Amen.

"This day shall be unto you for a memorial."—Exod. xii. 14.
49  "God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us."—Ps. lxvii. 1.

1 Thou glorious Sun of Righteousness,
   On this day risen to set no more,
   Shine on us now to heal and bless
   With brighter beams than e'er before.

2 Shine on Thy work of grace within,
   On each celestial blossom there,
   Destroy each bitter root of sin,
   And make Thy garden fresh and fair.

3 Shine on the temples of Thy grace;
   In spotless robes Thy priests be clad;
   Unveil the brightness of Thy face,
   And make Thy chosen people glad.

4 Shine too on those for whom we mourn,
   Who know not yet Thy healing ray;
   Quicken their souls, and bid them turn
   To Thee, the Life, the Truth, the Way.

5 Shine till Thy glorious beams shall chase
   The blinding mist from every eye,
   Till every earthly dwelling-place
   Shall hail the Dayspring from on high.

cres. 6 Shine on, shine on, Eternal Sun!

mf Pour richer floods of life and light,

f Till that bright Sabbath be begun,

f That glorious day which knows no night! Amen.

50  "I will exalt Thee, I will praise Thy Name."—Isa. xxv. 1.

1 Sweet is the work, my God, my King,
   To praise Thy Name, give thanks and sing,
   To show Thy love by morning light,
   And talk of all Thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
   No mortal care shall seize my breast;
   Oh, may my heart in tune be found,
   Like David's harp of solemn sound!

3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
   And bless His works, and bless His word:
   Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
   How deep Thy counsels, how divine!

4 Soon may I see and hear and know
   All I desired or wished below, cres. And every power find sweet employ
   f In that eternal world of joy. Amen.

Let us each, Thy love possessing,

"The Lord be with you."—Ruth ii. 4.

1 The Lord be with us as we bend
   His blessing to receive;
His gift of Peace upon us send,
   Before His Courts we leave.

2 The Lord be with us as we walk
   Along our homeward road;
In silent thought or friendly talk
   Our hearts be still with God.

3 The Lord be with us till the night
   Shall close the day of rest;
Be He of every heart the Light,
   Of every home the Guest.

4 And when our nightly prayers we say,
   His watch He still shall keep,
Crown with His grace His own blest day,
   And guard His people's sleep. Amen.

"Do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus."—Col. iii. 17.

1 Behold us, Lord, a little space
   From daily tasks set free,
   And met within Thy Holy Place
   To rest awhile with Thee.
   Around us rolls the ceaseless tide
   Of business, toil, and care;
   And scarcely can we turn aside
   For one brief hour of prayer.

2 Yet these are not the only walls
   Wherein thou mayst be sought;
   On homeliest work Thy blessing falls,
   In truth and patience wrought.

Thine is the loom, the forge, the mart,
   The wealth of land and sea;
   The worlds of science and of art,
   Revealed and ruled by Thee.

3 Then let us prove our heavenly birth
   In all we do and know;
   And claim the kingdom of the earth
   For Thee, and not Thy foe.
   Work shall be prayer, if all be wrought
   As Thou wouldst have it done;
   And prayer, by Thee inspired and taught,
   Itself with work be one. Amen.

WEEK DAYS.

54

"Let my prayer be set forth before Thee as incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice." — Ps. cxli. 2.

1 O Lord, it is a blessed thing
   To Thee both morn and night to bring
   Our worship's lowly offering;

2 Before Thy glorious throne to stand,
   Albeit but a little band,
   Led by our holy Mother's hand.

3 And, from the strife of tongues away,
   Ere toil begins, to meet and pray,
   For blessings on the coming day;

4 And night by night for evermore
   Again with blended voice to pour
   Deep thanks for mercies gone before.

5 O Jesu, be our morning Light,
   That we may go forth to the fight
   With strength renewed and armour bright.

6 And when our daily work is o'er,
   And sins and weakness we deplore,
   Oh, then be Thy our Light once more!

7 Light of the world! with us abide,
   And to Thyself our footsteps guide,
   At morn, and noon, and eventide. Amen.

Father, we love Thy house of prayer. (360)

55

"Thou shalt guide me with Thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory." — Ps. lxxiii. 24.

1 Yesterday with worship blest
   Passed our day of hallowed rest:
   Lord, to-day we meet once more
   Grace and mercy to implore.

2 Not one day alone shall be Given, O God of love, to Thee;
   Work and rest alike are Thine;
   Brighten all with love divine.

3 Through the passing of the week,
   Father, we Thy presence seek:
   'Midst this world's deceitful maze
   Keep us, Lord, in all our ways.

4 Oh, what snares our path beset!
   Oh, what cares our spirits fret!
   Let no earthly thing, we pray,
   Draw our souls from Thee away.

5 Thou hast set our daily task;
   Grace and strength from Thee we ask:
   Thou our joys and griefs does send;
   To Thy will our spirits bend.

6 Still in duty's lowly round
   Be our patient footsteps found:
   With Thy counsel guide us here,
   Till in glory we appear. Amen.
56

"See then that ye walk circumspectly . . . redeeming the time."—Eph. v 15, 16.

1. Another day begun!
   Lord, grant us grace that we,
   Before the setting of the sun,
   Redeem the time for Thee.

2. Another day of toil!
   To Thee we yield our powers;
   Keep Thou our souls from guilty soil
   Through all the passing hours.

3. Another day of fear!
   For watchful is our foe;

And sin is strong, and death is near,
   And short our time below.

4. Another day of hope!
   For Thou art with us still;
   And Thine almighty strength can cope
   With all who seek our ill.

5. Another day of grace
   To help us on our way!
   One step towards the Resting-place—
   The eternal Sabbath-day. Amen.

WEEK DAYS.

(WEDNESDAY.)

57 "Where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there am I in the midst of them."—St. Matt. xviii. 20.

1 Thou, in whose Name the two or three
Are met to-day to meet with Thee,
Fulfil to us Thine own sure word,
And be Thou here Thyself, O Lord!

2 To-day our week, but now begun,
Already half its course hath run;
To Thee are known its toils and cares,
To Thee its trials and its snares.

3 Thou by whose grace alone we live,
Our oft-repeated sins forgive;
Be Thou our counsel, strength, and stay,
Through all the perils of our way.

4 Give thankful hearts Thy gifts to share;
Give steadfast wills Thy Cross to bear;
And when life's working days are past
Give rest with all Thy saints at last. Amen.

St. Ann. C.M. William Croft, [1708?].

(THURSDAY.)

58 "He was received up into heaven."—St. Mark xvi. 19.

1 Ascended Lord, accept our praise,
As, with adoring eye,
From this dim earth we lift our gaze
To Thy bright Home on high.

2 We may not stay our lingering feet
Upon the sacred hill,
Nor with blest dreams and visions sweet
Stand gazing upward still.

3 For Thou, Lord, shalt once more appear;
And we would seek Thy grace
To tread our lowly pathway here,
Until we see Thy Face.

4 And week by week we ask this day
Fresh gleams of heavenly light,
To cheer us on our toilsome way,
And brighten all our night.

5 Then praise to Thee, ascended Lord,
O Father, praise to Thee,
And Thou, O Spirit, be adored,
One God in Trinity. Amen.
59  "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross."—St. Matt. xvi. 24.

P 1 O Jesu, crucified for man,
    O Lamb, all glorious on Thy throne,
    Teach Thou our wondering souls to scan
    The mystery of Thy love unknown.

2 We pray Thee, grant us strength to take
    Our daily Cross, whate'er it be,
    And gladly for Thine own dear sake
    In paths of pain to follow Thee.

3 As on our daily way we go,
    Through light or shade, in calm or strife,
    And week by week this day we ask
    That holy memories of Thy Cross
    May sanctify each common task,
    And turn to gain each earthly loss.

4 Oh, may we bear Thy marks below
    In conquered sin and chastened life.
    And turn to gain each earthly loss.

5 Grant us, dear Lord, our Cross to bear
    Till at Thy feet we lay it down,
    In the tomb the Saviour lay.
    And through the Cross attain the Crown. Amen.

    Spake to-day the hallowing word;
    Resting from His work to-day,
    In the tomb the Saviour lay.

SPRING.

Arranged by the Editor.

For all Thy love and goodness, so bountiful and free, Thy Name, Lord, be adored!

On the wings of joyous praise our hearts soar up to Thee: Glory to the Lord! Alleluia. Amen.

The flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come.”—Cant. ii. 12.

1 For all Thy love and goodness, so bountiful and free,
Thy Name, Lord, be adored!
On the wings of joyous praise our hearts soar up to Thee:
Glory to the Lord:

2 The Springtime breaks all round about, waking from winter’s night:
Thy Name, Lord, be adored!
The sunshine, like God’s love, pours down in floods of golden light:
Glory to the Lord!

3 A voice of joy is in all the earth, a voice is in all the air:
Thy Name, Lord, be adored!
All nature singeth aloud to God; there is gladness everywhere:
Glory to the Lord!

4 The flowers are strewn in field and copse, on the hill and on the plain:
Thy Name, Lord, be adored!
The soft air stirs in the tender leaves that clothe the trees again:
Glory to the Lord!

5 The works of Thy hands are very fair; and for all Thy bounteous love Thy Name, Lord, be adored!
But what, if this world is so fair, is the Better Land above?
Glory to the Lord!

6 Oh, to awake from death’s short sleep, like the flowers from their wintry grave!
Thy Name, Lord, be adored!
And to rise all glorious in the day when Christ shall come to save!
Glory to the Lord!

7 Oh, to dwell in that happy land, where the heart cannot choose but sing!
Thy Name, Lord, be adored!
And where the life of the blessed ones is a beautiful endless Spring!
Glory to the Lord! Alleluia. Amen.
62  "Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun." — Eccles. xi. 7.

1 Summer suns are glowing Over land and sea, Happy light is flowing Bountiful and free. Everything rejoices In the mellow rays, f All earth's thousand voices f Swell the psalm of praise.

2 God's free mercy streameth Over all the world, And his banner gleameth Everywhere unfurled. f Broad and deep and glorious As the heaven above, Shines in might victorious His eternal Love.

3 Lord, upon our blindness Thy pure radiance pour; For Thy loving-kindness Make us love Thee more. p And when clouds are drifting Dark across our sky, cres. } Father, be Thou nigh.

4 We will never doubt Thee, Though Thou veil Thy light: Life is dark without Thee: Death with Thee is bright. Light of Light! shine o'er us On our pilgrim way, cres. } Go Thou still before us To the endless day. Amen.

63  "He gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons." — Acts xiv. 17.

1 The year is swiftly waning; The summer days are past; And life, brief life, is speeding; The end is nearing fast.

2 The ever-changing seasons In silence come and go; But Thou, Eternal Father, No time or change canst know.
AUTUMN.

3 Oh! pour Thy Grace upon us
   That we may worthier be,
   Each year that passes o'er us,
   To dwell in heaven with Thee.

4 Behold, the bending orchards
   With bounteous fruit are crowned;
   Lord, in our hearts more richly
   Let heavenly fruits abound.

5 Oh! by each mercy sent us,
   And by each grief and pain,
   By blessings like the sunshine,
   And sorrows like the rain,

6 Our barren hearts make fruitful
   With every goodly grace,
   That we Thy Name may hallow,
   Amen.

WINTER.

CLARENCE.

Arranged by the Editor.

1 Winter reigned o'er the land,
   Freezing with its icy breath;
   Dead and bare the tall trees stand;
   All is chill and drear as death.

Yet it seemeth but a day [here,
Since the summer flowers were
Since they stacked the balmy hay, Dim.
And our flesh in hope shall rest
Of a never-fading Spring. Amen.

2 Sunny days are past and gone:
   So the years go, speeding fast,
   Onward ever, each new one
   Swifter speeding than the last,

3 Life is waning; life is brief;
   Death, like winter, standeth nigh:
   Each one, like the falling leaf,
   Soon shall fade,—and fall,—and die.

5 But the sleeping earth shall wake,
   And the flowers shall burst in bloom,
   And all Nature rising break
   Glorious from its wintry tomb.

6 So, Lord, after slumber blest
   Comes a bright awakening,
   And our flesh in hope shall rest
   Of a never-fading Spring. Amen.

64 "And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds."—Job xxxvii. 21.
1 Creator of the starry height,
Thy people's everlasting light,
O Christ, Redeemer, bow Thine ear;
In mercy our petitions hear.

2 Thou, who, for grief that all mankind
In death their hopeless doom should find,
Didst come to save a guilty race
By healing gifts of heavenly grace;

3 Who didst our very flesh assume,
Abhorring not the Virgin's womb;
That so to God on high might rise
An all-atoning Sacrifice;

4 At whose great Name of glory now
All knees in lowly homage bow;
Whom things in heaven and earth adore,
Their mighty King for evermore:

5 To Thee, O Holy One! we pray,
Our Judge in that tremendous day;
Ward off, while yet we dwell below,
The weapons of our crafty foe.

6 To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Praise, honour, might, and glory be,
From age to age eternally.

CONGLETON.

1 Draw nigh to thy Jerusalem, O Lord,
Thy faithful people cry with one accord;
Ride on triumphantly! Behold, we lay
Our passions, lusts, and proud wills in Thy way!

2 Thy road is ready; and Thy paths, made straight,
With longing expectation seem to wait
The consecration of Thy beauteous Feet,
And silently Thy promised Advent greet.
3 Hosanna! Welcome to our hearts! For here
Thou hast a temple too, as Sion dear,
Yea, dear as Sion, and as full of sin;
Nothing but thieves and robbers dwell therein.
4 Enter and chase them forth, and cleanse the floor!
O'erthrow them all, that they may never more
Profane with traffic vile that holy place,
Where Thou hast chosen, Lord, to set Thy face.

And then, if our stiff tongues shall faithlessly
Be mute in praises of Thy Deity,
The very temple stones shall loud repeat
Hosanna! and Thy glorious footsteps greet.

Lux Eoi.

Let us haste with tears of sorrow,
One and all, to be forgiven.

So when next He shines in glory,
Wrapping all the earth in fear,
Not for chastening, but salvation,
Unto us shall He appear.

Honour, glory, might, dominion,
To the Father and the Son,
With the Everlasting Spirit,
While eternal ages run. Amen.

1 Hark, the glad sound! The Saviour comes,
    The Saviour promised long!
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.

2 He comes, the prisoners to release,
    In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before Him burst,
The iron fetters yield.

3 He comes, from thickest films of vice
    To clear the mental ray,
And on the eyeballs of the blind
To pour celestial day.

4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
    The bleeding soul to cure;
And with the treasures of His grace
To enrich the humble poor.

5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,

"Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee."—St. Matt. xxi. 5.

The Advent of our God!
Behold, the Lord is near!
Greet His approach, ye saints, again
With hymns of love and fear.

The everlasting Son
Scorns not the Virgin's womb;
That we from bondage may be freed
He bears a bondsman's doom.

Daughter of Zion, rise!
Behold thy lowly King!
And haste to meet Him, nor reject
The peace He deigns to bring.

As Judge He will return
On clouds with lightning riven,
And the One Body of His saints
In triumph bear to heaven.

Before that day appears,
Let sin's dark deeds be gone,
The old man all be put away,
The new man all put on.

Till He shall come again,
With all the heavenly host,
And God the Holy Ghost. Amen.

"Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord."—St. Matt. xxi. 9.

Zion, at thy shining gates,
Lo, the King of Glory waits!
Haste thy Monarch's pomp to greet,
Strew thy palms before His Feet.

Christ, for Thee their triple light
Faith and Hope and Love unite:
This the beacon we display
To proclaim Thine Advent-day.

Come, and give us peace within;
Loose us from the bands of sin;
Take away the galling weight
Laid on us by Satan's hate.

Give us grace Thy yoke to wear;
Give us strength Thy cross to bear;
Make us Thine in deed and word,
Thine in heart and life, O Lord.

Kill in us the carnal root,
That the Spirit may bear fruit;
Plant in us Thy lowly mind;
Keep us faithful, loving, kind.

So, when Thou shalt come again,
Judge of Angels and of men,
We with all Thy saints shall sing
Alleluias to our King. Amen.

PART I.
O Wisdom, who o’er earth below
Forth from the mouth of God didst flow,
The path of prudence teach, that we
May’dwell eternally with Thee.
Draw nigh and help us when we call,
And strongly, sweetly, order all.

PART II.
Ruler and Lord, draw nigh, draw nigh!
Who to Thy flock on Sinai
Didst give, of ancient times, Thy Law,
In cloud, and majesty, and awe.
Draw nigh, draw nigh, with us to dwell,
And save, O God, Thine Israel.

PART III.
O Rod of Jesse’s stem, arise,
And save us from our enemies;

And set us free from Satan’s chains,
And from the pit with all its pains.
Draw nigh, draw nigh, with us to dwell,
In haste to save Thine Israel.

PART IV.
Key of the house of David, come!
Re-open Thou our heavenly home,
Make safe the way that we must go,
And close the paths that lead below.
Draw nigh, draw nigh, with us to dwell,
And save us, Lord, from sin and hell.

PART V.
O Morning Star, arise, draw nigh,
To give us comfort from on high;
Drive Thou away the gloom of night,
And pierce the clouds, and bring us light;
Draw nigh, draw nigh, with us to dwell,
In mercy save Thine Israel.
PART VI.
O Thou on whom the Gentiles wait,
Who midst the nations shalt be great,
Thy Church's chief and corner-stone,
Who in Thyself hast made all one;
Draw nigh and save, for Thine own sake,
Mankind whom Thou of dust didst make!

CHRISTMAS.

"To-morrow the Lord shall do this thing."—Exod. ix. 5.

1 All my heart this night rejoices,
   As I hear, far and near,
   Sweetest angel voices;
   "Christ is born!" their choirs are singing,
   Till the air everywhere
   Now with joy is ringing.

2 For it dawns, the promised morrow
   Of His Birth, who the earth
   Rescues from her sorrow.
   God to wear our form descendeth;
   Of His grace to our race
   Here His Son He lendeth.

3 Hark! a voice from yonder manger
   Soft and sweet, doth entreat—
   Flee from woe and danger;
   Brethren, come; from all that grieves you
   You are freed; all you need
   Here your Saviour gives you.

4 Come, then, let us hasten yonder;
   Here let all, great and small,
   Kneel in awe and wonder.
   Love Him who with love is yearning;
   Hail the Star, that from far
   Bright with hope is burning. Amen.

Realms of Glory. 8.7.8.7.4.7.  John Naylor.

Angels, from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye who sang creation's story
Now proclaim Messiah's birth,
Come and worship;
Worship Christ, the new-born King!

Shepherds, in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing,
Yonder shines the heavenly Light,
Come and worship;
Worship Christ, the new-born King!

Saints, before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord, descending,
In His temple shall appear.
Come and worship;
Worship Christ, the new-born King!

Saints and Angels join in praising
Thee, the Father, Spirit, Son;
Evermore their voices raising
To the Eternal Three in One.
Come and worship;
Worship Christ, the new-born King! Amen.

"Unto you is born this day a Saviour."—St. Luke ii. 11.

F i  Christians, awake! Salute the happy morn,
Whereon the Saviour of the world was born;
Rise to adore the mystery of love,
Which hosts of Angels chanted from above;
Sing the glad tidings, first with them begun,
Of God made man, the blessèd Virgin’s Son.

58
CHRISTMAS.

2 The praises of redeeming love they sang,
  And heaven's whole orb with Alleluias rang;
  God's highest glory was their anthem still,
  Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will:
  This day hath God fulfilled His promised word,
  This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord!

M 3 Oh may we keep and ponder in our mind
  God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind;
  Trace we the Babe who hath retrieved our loss
  From His poor manger to His bitter Cross:
  Tread in His steps, assisted by His grace,
  Till, changed like Him, we see Him face to face.

4 Then may we hope, the angelic thrones among,
  To sing redeemed a glad triumphal song:
  He that was born upon this joyful day
  Around us all His glory shall display:
  Saved by His love, unceasing we shall sing
  Eternal praise to God our heavenly King. Amen.

ST. LEONARD.  C.M.  HENRY SMART.

78 "Christ Jesus .... took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men."—Phil. ii. 5, 7.

1 From East to West, from shore to shore,
   Let earth awake and sing
   The holy Child whom Mary bore,
   The Christ, the Lord, the King!

2 For lo! the world's Creator wears
   The fashion of a slave;
   Our human flesh the Godhead bears,
   His creature, man, to save.

3 He shrank not from the oxen's stall,
   Nor scorned the manger-bed:
   And He, whose bounty feedeth all,
   At Mary's breast was fed.

4 To shepherds poor the Lord Most High,
   Great Shepherd, was revealed;
   While Angel-choirs sang joyously
   Above the midnight field.

F 5 All glory be to God above;
   And on the earth be peace
   To all who long to taste His love,
   Till Time itself shall cease. Amen.

"He is our peace."—Eph. ii. 14.

1 God from on high hath heard!
Let sighs and sorrows cease;
The skies unfold, and lo!
Descends the gift of Peace!

2 Hark! on the midnight air
Celestial voices swell;
The hosts of Heaven proclaim
"God comes on earth to dwell!"

3 Haste with the shepherds; see
The mystery of Grace:
A manger-bed, a Child,
Is all the eye can trace.

4 Is this indeed the Christ?
Is this the Eternal Son?
Who, ere the worlds began,
Was with the Father One?

5 Yes, Faith can pierce the cloud
Which shrouds His glory now;
And hails Him Lord, and God,
To whom all creatures bow.

6 Faith sees the sapphire throne
Where Angels evermore
Adoring tremble still,
And trembling still adore.

7 O Child! Thy silence speaks,
And bids us not refuse
To bear what flesh would shun,
To spurn what flesh would choose.

8 Fill us with holy love,
Heal Thou our earthly pride;
Be born within our hearts,
And ever there abide. Amen.
Voices.

F 1 Hark! the herald Angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King,
Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!"
Joyful all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies!
Universal Nature say,
"Christ, the Lord, is born to-day!"

mf 2 Christ, by highest heaven adored;
Christ, the everlasting Lord!
Late in time behold Him come,
Offspring of a Virgin's womb!

---

p Veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
cres. Hail the Incarnate Deity!
f Pleased as Man with men to dwell,
Jesus our Immanuel!

3 Hail the heavenly Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and Life to all He brings,
Risen with healing in His wings.

p Mild He lays His glory by, cres. Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth. Amen.
"The Lord is high above all nations."—Ps. cxiii. 4.

1 High let us swell our tuneful notes,
And join the angelic throng,
For Angels no such love have known
To wake a cheerful song.

2 Good-will to sinful men is shown,
And peace on earth is given;
For, lo! the incarnate Saviour comes
With grace and truth from heaven.

3 Justice and grace, with sweet accord
His rising beams adorn:
Let heaven and earth in concert join,
To us a Child is born!

4 Glory to God in highest strains,
In highest worlds be paid;
His glory by our lips proclaimed,
And by our lives displayed.

5 When shall we reach those blissful realms
Where Christ exalted reigns;
And learn of the celestial choir
Their own immortal strains? Amen.

CHRISTMAS.

"I heard the voice of many Angels."—Rev. v. 11.

1 It came upon the midnight clear—
That glorious song of old,
From Angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold,

mf "Peace on the earth, good-will to men," mf From Heaven's all-gracious King.

pp The world in solemn stillness lay pp To hear the Angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world;

dim. Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on heavenly wing, cres. And ever o'er its Babel-sounds

The blessed Angels sing.

3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;

And man, at war with man, hears not
The words of peace they bring:

Oh! listen now, ye men of strife,

pp And hear the Angels sing!

4 O Prince of Peace, Thou knowest well
This weary world below;
Thou seest how men climb the way
With painful steps and slow.

Oh! still the jarring sounds of earth
That round the pathway ring,
And bid the toilers rest awhile

pp To hear the Angels sing! Amen.
"They shall call His Name Emmanuel."—St. Matt. i. 23.

f 1 Joy fills our inmost heart to-day:
The Royal Child is born:
And Angel hosts in glad array
His Advent keep this morn.
Rejoice, rejoice! The Incarnate Word
Has come on earth to dwell;
No sweeter sound than this is heard—
f Emmanuel!

M 3 For us the world must lose its charms
Before the manger shrine,
When, folded in Thy mother's arms,
We see Thee, Babe divine.
Rejoice, rejoice! The Incarnate Word
Has come on earth to dwell;
No sweeter sound than this is heard—
f Emmanuel!

M 2 Low at the cradle Throne we bend,
We wonder and adore;
And feel no bliss can ours transcend,
No joy was sweet before.
Rejoice, rejoice! The Incarnate Word
Has come on earth to dwell;
No sweeter sound than this is heard—
f Emmanuel!

F 4 Thou Light of uncreated Light,
Shine on us, Holy Child;
That we may keep Thy birthday bright,
With service undefiled.
Rejoice, rejoice! The Incarnate Word
Has come on earth to dwell;
No sweeter sound than this is heard—
f Emmanuel!

"Let us now go even unto Bethlehem."—St. Luke ii. 15.

1 Oh, come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
   Oh, come ye, Oh, come ye, to Bethlehem!
   Born upon earth behold the King of Angels!
   Oh, come let us adore Him,
   Oh, come let us adore Him,
   Oh, come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

2 He, God of God, and Light of Light begotten,
   Comes to the world as a maiden's Child:
   He, Very God, begotten not created:
   Oh, come let us adore Him,
   Oh, come let us adore Him,
   Oh, come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

3 Sing, Choir of Angels; raise your hymn of triumph;
   Sing, ye that stand around the throne on high
   Glory to God, all glory in the highest!
   Oh, come let us adore Him,
   Oh, come let us adore Him,
   Oh, come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

4 Thou who didst deign to be born for us this morning,
   Glory to Thee, O Jesu Lord!
   Word of the Eternal Father, now incarnate!
   Oh, come let us adore Him,
   Oh, come let us adore Him,
   Oh, come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord! Amen.

86 "And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the heavenly host."—St. Luke ii. 13.

1 While shepherds watched their flocks by night,
   All seated on the ground,
The Angel of the Lord came down,
   And glory shone around.

2 "Fear not," said he,—for mighty dread
   Had seized their troubled mind,—
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
   To you and all mankind.

3 "To you, in David's town this day,
   Is born, of David's line,
A Saviour, who is Christ the Lord,
   And this shall be the sign:

4 "The heavenly Babe you there shall find
   To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapt in swathing bands,
   And in a manger laid."

5 Thus spake the Seraph, and forthwith
   Appeared a shining throng
Of Angels praising God, who thus
   Addressed their joyful song:

6 "All glory be to God on high,
   And to the earth be peace:
Good-will henceforth, from heaven to men,
   Begin and never cease." Amen.

CIRCUMCISION.

1. KING, MESSIAH, long expected,
   Thou art come unto Thine own!
Promised Seed of the elected,
   Heir foretold of David's throne!
Long for Thee they watched and hearkened—
   King and Patriarch, Priest and Seer;
Faith waxed cold, and hope was darkened;
   When men looked not—(f) Thou wert here.

2. In the time and place appointed,
   When the ordered years had sped,
Came the Prince, the true Anointed,
   To His Throne, the manger-bed:
There the Infant-King, fulfilling
   All things for His people's sake,
Learned to-day obedience willing,
   Deigned the Covenant-seal to take.

3. Surely in that hour of wonder
   Faithful Abraham, in his rest,
Saw the shadows part asunder,
   Saw Thy dawning, and was blest!
Surely then the gracious vision
   Through Thy dawning, and was blest!
And in Jesu's Circumcision
   Ages saw their hope fulfilled!

4. Father of the new creation!
   Prophet of the latter time!
Leader of the ransomed nation
   To the better Canaan's clime!
Though, from Gentile stock arising,
   Alien branches once were we,
Thou hast said, in our baptizing
   We are circumcised in Thee.

5. So this day with new thanksgiving
   Shall Thy faithful seed draw near;
So, 'mid prayers for holier living,
   Praise shall deck our opening year;
Praise, because our feast-day sees us
   Built on Thee, the Corner Stone;
And the mighty name of JESUS
   Binds to-day the world in one. Amen.

"Awake up, my glory: awake, lute and harp."—Ps. lvii. 9. (P. B.)

F 1 Harp, awake! Tell out the story
     Of our love and joy and praise;
     Lute, awake! awake our glory!
     Join a thankful song to raise!

dim. Join us, brethren faithful-hearted,
     Lift the solemn voice again
     O'er another year departed
     Of our threescore years and ten!

p 2 Lo! a theme for deepest sadness,
    In ourselves with sin defiled;
    Lo! a theme for holiest gladness,
    In our Father reconciled!

    In the dust we bend before Thee,
    Lord of sinless hosts above;
    Yet in lowliest joy adore Thee,
    God of mercy, grace, and love!

3 Gracious Saviour! Thou hast lengthened
    And hast blest our mortal span,
    And in our weak hearts has strengthened
    What Thy grace alone began!

    Still when danger shall betide us,
    Be Thy warning whisper heard;
    Keep us at Thy feet, and guide us
    By Thy Spirit and Thy word!

4 Let Thy favour and Thy blessing
    Crown the year we now begin:
    Let us all, Thy strength possessing,
    Grow in grace, and vanquish sin.

    Storms are round us, hearts are quailing,

NEW YEAR'S EVE AND DAY.

91 "I will speak of the glorious honour of Thy Majesty, and of Thy wondrous works."—Ps. cxlv. 5.

1 House of our God, with hymns of gladness ring,
While all our lips and hearts His praises sing!
The opening year His mercies shall proclaim,
And all its days shall celebrate His Name.

2 Ye angel choirs on high, whose dwelling-place
Shines with the glory of His unveiled Face,
Through your immortal life, as love still grows,
Tell of His goodness, which no ending knows.

3 O Earth, enlightened by His rays divine,
Stored by His hand with corn and oil and wine,
Crowned with His goodness, let thy nations raise
From shore to shore the song of ceaseless praise.

4 O Church, His chosen dwelling and delight,
Graven on His hands, and precious in His sight,
Sing the deep marvels of that boundless grace,
Which sheds on thee the brightness of His face.

5 Burst into praise, my soul! and evermore
Through changing life thy changeless God adore;
He is thy trust, thy refuge, and thy fear;
Strong in His strength, begin the newborn year. Amen.

ABBEMY.

92 "We spend our years as a tale that is told."—Ps. xc. 9.

1 Now, gracious Lord, Thine arm reveal,
And make Thy glory known;
Now let us all Thy presence feel,
And soften hearts of stone.

2 Help us to venture near Thy throne,
And plead a Saviour's Name;
For all that we can call our own
Is vanity and shame.

3 From all the guilt of former sin
May mercy set us free;
And let the year we now begin,
Begin and end with Thee.

4 Send down Thy Spirit from above,
That saints may love Thee more,
And sinners now may learn to love,

1 The year is gone beyond recall;
'Tis gone—with all its hopes and fears,
With all its joys o'er those new born,
With all its troubled mourners' tears.

2 We thank Thee, Lord, for countless gifts:
Thy Church's lamp still lights our land:
Oh! grant us grace this trust to keep,
And in the ancient Faith to stand.

3 Still let Thy goodness, Lord, be shown;
The coming year in mercy bless;
Guard Thou our land from pestilence;
And give us peace and plenteousness.

4 Forgive this nation's many sins;
Destroy the strength that sin has gained;
And give us grace with sin to strive;
And give us crowns through strife attained.

We would henceforth from them be free;
Oh grant us peaceful years, good Lord,

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold;
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious God, may we Evermore be led to Thee.

As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek Thy mercy-seat.

As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to Thee, our heavenly King.

Holy Jesu! every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun, which goes not down;
There for ever may we sing
Alleluias to our King! Amen.
95 "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."—Rom. viii 14.

1 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
   Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid!
   Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
   Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid!

p 2 Cold on His cradle the dew-drops are shining,
   p Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall;
   Cres. Angels adore Him in slumber reclining,
   f Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all.

3 Say, shall we yield Him, in costly devotion,
   Odours of Edom, and offerings divine,
   Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
   Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
   Vainly with gifts would His favour secure;
   Richer by far is the heart’s adoration,
   Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.
EPIPHANY.

1 Hail! Thou source of every blessing,
   Sovereign Father of mankind!
Gentiles now, Thy truth possessing,
   To Thy courts admission find.

2 Gratefully we bow before Thee,
   In Thy Church obtain a place,
Now believe and now adore Thee,
   Praise Thy Name, and taste Thy grace.

3 Once far off, but now invited,
   We approach Thy sacred Throne;
In Thy covenant united,
   Reconciled, redeemed, made one.

4 Now revealed to Eastern sages
   See the Star of mercy shine,
Mystery hid in former ages,
   Mystery great of Love divine.

5 Hail! Thou manifested Saviour!
   Gentiles now their offerings bring,
In Thy temples seek Thy favour,
   Jesus Christ, our Lord and King!

6 May we, body, soul, and spirit,
   Live devoted to Thy praise,
   Glorious realms of bliss inherit,
   Grateful anthems ever raise! Amen.
“Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean.”—St. Matt. viii. 2.

1 O Lord of health and life, what tongue can tell
How at Thy word were loosed the bands of hell?
How Thy pure touch removed the leprous stain,
And the polluted flesh grew clean again.

2 Oh! wash our hearts; restore the contrite soul;
Stretch forth Thy healing hand and make us whole;
Oh! bend our stubborn knees to kneel to Thee;
Speak but the word, and we once more are free!

3 Yea, Lord, we claim the promise of Thy love,
Thy love, which can all guilt, all pain remove:
Nigh to our souls Thy great salvation bring;
Then sickness hath no pang, and death no sting.

4 We hail this pledge in all Thy deeds of grace;
As once disease and sorrow fled Thy Face,
So when that Face again unveiled we see,
Sickness and tears and death no more shall be.

5 Then grant us strength to pray, “Thy Kingdom come,”
When we shall know Thee in Thy Father’s home,
And at Thy great Epiphany adore

The Brightness of His glory,

The shadows flee before Thee,
The world's true Light art Thou.

2 Yet, Lord, we see but darkly:
O heavenly Light, arise,
Dispel these mists that shroud us,
And hide Thee from our eyes!
We long to track the footprints
That Thou Thyself hast trod;
We long to see the pathway
That leads to Thee our God.

3 O Jesu, shine around us
With radiance of Thy grace;
O Jesu, turn upon us
The brightness of Thy face.
We need no star to guide us,
As on our way we press,
If Thou Thy light vouchsafest,

1 Oh Sight for Angels to adore,
   Yet given to man to see!
In Jordan's ancient stream is wrought
   A wondrous mystery!
The pure and spotless Son of God,
   Disdaineth not to stand,
Bent meekly in the cleansing rite,
   Beneath His servant's hand.

2 And what is this so wonderful?
   Lo! as He standeth there,
A mystic Form of radiant light
   Is hovering in the air:
It resteth dove-like on His head;
   That, filled with sevenfold might,
The Son of David may go forth
   To fight His lonely fight.

3 And hark, what dread and awful Voice
   Comes wafted from on high!
What words the adoring listeners hear
   Re-echoing through the sky!
He standeth in a servant's form,
   The meek and lowly One;
Yet lo! the Father owneth Him
   His well-beloved Son.

4 Glory to Thee, O Lord, whose grace,
   To our baptizing given,
Hath washed our souls, and poured on us
   Thy Holy Ghost from heaven!
Glory to Thee, in whose dear Son
   Our sonship now we claim,
And as Thy new-born children call
   Upon our Father's Name! Amen.

"The Son of God was manifested."—St. John iii. 8.

1 Songs of thankfulness and praise,
   Jesus, Lord, to Thee we raise,
   Manifested by the star
   To the sages from afar;
   Branch of Royal David's stem,
   Anthems be to Thee addrest,
   God in Man made manifest!

2 Manifest at Jordan's stream,
   Prophet, Priest, and King supreme;
   And at Cana, Wedding-guest
   In Thy Godhead manifest;
   Manifest in power Divine
   Anthems be to Thee addrest,
   God in Man made manifest!

3 Manifest in making whole
   Palsied limbs and fainting soul;
   Manifest in valiant fight,
   Quelling all the devil's might;
   Manifest in gracious will,
   Ever bringing good from ill;
   God in Man made manifest!

4 Sun and moon shall darkened be,
   Stars shall fall, the heavens shall flee;
   Christ will then like lightning shine,
   All will see His glorious sign;
   All will then the trumpet hear;
   All will see the Judge appear;
   Thou by all wilt be confest,
   God in Man made manifest!

5 Grant us grace to see Thee, Lord,
   Present in Thy holy Word;
   May we imitate Thee now,
   And be pure, as pure art Thou
   That we like to Thee may be
   At Thy great Epiphany;
   And may praise Thee, ever blest,
   God in Man made Manifest! Amen.

"There shall come a Star out of Jacob."—Num. xxiv. 17.

1 Sons of men, behold from far,
   Hail the long-expected Star!
   Jacob's Star that gilds the night,
   Guides bewildered nature right.

2 Mild He shines on all beneath,
   Piercing through the shades of death;
   Scattering error's wide-spread night,
   Kindling darkness into light.

3 Nations all, far off and near,
   Haste to see your God appear;
   Haste, for Him your hearts prepare;
   Meet Him manifested there.

4 There behold the Day-spring rise,
   Pouring light upon your eyes;
   See Him chase the shades away,
   Shining to the perfect day.

5 Sing, ye morning stars, again!
   God descends on earth to reign;
   Deigns for man His life to employ;
   Shout, ye sons of God, for joy!

"A time to mourn."—Eccles. iii. 4.

102

F 1 Alleluia! Song of sweetness!
    Voice of joy that cannot die!
    Alleluia is the anthem
    Heard amongst the choirs on high;
    Singing in God's blissful mansion
    Day and night eternally.

F 2 Alleluia! Joyful Mother,
    True Jerusalem and free,
    Alleluia now triumphant
    All Thy children sing in Thee:
    But by Babylon's sad waters
    Mourning exiles still are we.

P 3 Alleluia cannot always
    Be our song while here below;
    Alleluia our transgressions
    Make us for awhile forego;
    For the solemn time is coming
    When our tears for sin must flow.

    Hear Thy people as they cry;
    Grant us all to keep Thy Easter
    In our home beyond the sky,
    There to Thee our Alleluia
    Singing everlastingly. Amen.

Also the following—

SING Alleluia forth in duteous praise (497).

(For Septuagesima.)

Let us with a gladsome mind (414).

The strain upraise of joy and praise (516).

There is a book, who runs may read (518).

We thank Thee, Lord, for this fair earth (543).

(For Sexagesima.)

Praise to the Holiest in the height (487).

(For Quinquagesima.)

Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost (374).

"Forasmuch as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind."—1 St. Pet. iv. 1.

P 1 Awhile in spirit, Lord, to Thee
    Into the desert would we flee;
    Awhile upon the barren steep
    Our fast with Thee in spirit keep:
    Awhile from Thy Temptation learn
    The daily snares of sin to spurn,
    And in our hearts to feel and own
    Man liveth not by bread alone.

P 2 Awhile in spirit, Lord, to Thee
    Into the desert would we flee;
    Awhile upon the barren steep
    Our fast with Thee in spirit keep:
    Awhile from Thy Temptation learn
    The daily snares of sin to spurn,
    And in our hearts to feel and own
    Man liveth not by bread alone.

P 3 And while at Thy command we pray,
    Give us our bread from day to day,

    May we with Thee, O Christ, be fed,
    Thou Word of God, Thou living Bread.

    4 Incarnate Lord, we come to Thee;
    Thou knowest our infirmity:
    Be Thou our Helper in the strife,
    Be Thou our true, our inward Life.

    5 Blest Three in One, and One in Three,
    Almighty God, we pray to Thee,
    That Thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless
    Our fast with fruits of righteousness. Amen.

MIDIAN. 6.5.6.5. D.  E. J. HOPKINS.

1 Christian! dost thou see them
   On the holy ground,
   How the troops of Midian
   Prowl and prowl around?
F Christian! up and smite them,
   Counting gain but loss;
   Smite them by the merit
   Of the holy Cross!

2 Christian! dost thou feel them,
   How they work within,
   Tempting, luring, urging,
   Goading unto sin?
F Christian! never fear them!
   Never be downcast!
   Win thee strength to smite them
   Through thy Lenten fast!

3 Christian! dost thou hear them,
   How they speak thee fair?
   "Always fast and vigil?
   Always watch and prayer!"
F Christian, answer boldly:—
   "While I breathe I pray:"
   Peace shall follow battle,
   Night shall end in day.

4 “Well I know thy trouble,
   O My servant true:
   Thou art very weary—
   I was weary too:
   But that toil shall make thee
   Some day all Mine own;
   And the end of sorrow
   Shall be near My Throne!” Amen.

"I will arise and go to my father."—St. Luke xv. 18.

P i Father, again in Jesus' Name we meet,
And bow in penitence beneath Thy feet:
Again to Thee our feeble voices raise,
To sue for mercy, at the throne of grace.

2 We are unworthy of Thy boundless love,
Too oft with careless feet from Thee we rove;
But now, encouraged by Thy voice, we come,
Returning sinners to a Father's home.

3 Oh, by His Name in whom all fulness dwells,
Oh, by His love which every love excels,
Oh, by His Blood so freely shed for sin,
Open blest Mercy's gate, and take us in! Amen.

106 "And Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, being forty days tempted of the devil."—St. Luke iv. 1, 2.

P i Forty days and forty nights
Thou wast fasting in the wild;
Forty days and forty nights
Tempted still, yet undefiled.

2 Sunbeams scorching all the day;
Chilly dew-drops nightly shed;
Prowling beasts about Thy way;
Stones Thy pillow; earth Thy bed.

3 Shall not we Thy sorrow share,
Learn Thy discipline of pain,
Strive, like Thee, through fast and prayer
Strength for after time to gain?

4 Then if Satan, vexing sore,
Flesh or spirit shall assail,
Thou, his vanquisher before,
Wilt not suffer us to fail.

5 So shall we have peace divine;
Holier gladness ours shall be;
Round us, too, shall Angels shine,
Such as ministered to Thee.

6 Keep, oh! keep us, Saviour dear,
Ever constant by Thy side;

2 Through fleshly lusts indulged, Man lost his first estate; Thou wouldst restore by leading us Our flesh to subjugate.

3 Be with Thy Church, O Lord; Our self-denials bless; Accept the tears Thy children shed O'er all their frowardness.

4 Forgive, most gracious Lord, The follies we deplore, Prevent us with Thy guiding hand, That we may sin no more.

109 "But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face."—St. Matt. vi. 17.

P 1 O MERCIFUL Creator, hear! To us in pity bow Thine ear: Accept the tearful prayer we raise In this our fast of forty days.

2 Each heart is manifest to Thee: Thou knowest our infirmity: Repentant now we seek Thy face; Impart to us Thy pardoning grace.

3 Our sins are manifold and sore, But spare Thou them who sin deplore: And for Thine own Name's sake make whole The fainting and the weary soul.

4 Grant us to mortify each sense, By means of outward abstinence; That so from every stain of sin, The soul may keep her fast within.

5 Blest Three in One and One in Three, Almighty God, we pray to Thee That Thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless Our fast with fruits of righteousness. Amen.
110 And therefore will the Lord wait, that He may be gracious unto you, and have mercy upon you.—Isa. xxx. 18.

1 Now are the days of humblest prayer,
When consciences to God lie bare,
And mercy most delights to spare.
Oh, hearken when we cry;
Chastise us with Thy fear;
Yet, Father, in the multitude
Of Thy compassions, hear!

2 Now is the season, wisely long,
Of sadder thought and graver song,
When ailing souls grow well and strong.
Oh, hearken when we cry, &c.

3 Oh, happy time of blessed tears,
Of surer hopes, of chastening fears,
Undoing all our evil years!
Oh, hearken when we cry, &c.

4 We who have loved the world must learn
Upon that world our backs to turn,
And with the love of God to burn.
Oh, hearken when we cry, &c.

5 All glory to Redeeming Grace,
Disdaining not our evil case,
But showing us our Saviour's face!
Oh, hearken when we cry, &c.

Amen.
111 "Our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until that He have mercy upon us."—Ps. cxxiii. 2.

Pr O Lord, turn not Thy face away
From them that lowly lie,
Lamenting sore their sinful life
With tears and bitter cry.

2 Thy mercy-gates are open wide
To them that mourn their sin;
Oh! shut them not against us, Lord,
But let us enter in.

3 We need not to confess our fault,
For surely Thou canst tell:
What we have done, and what we are,
Thou knowest very well.

4 Wherefore to beg and to entreat
With tears we come to Thee,
As children that have done amiss
Fall at their father's knee.

5 And need we, then, O Lord, repeat
The blessing which we crave,
When Thou dost know, before we speak,
The thing that we would have?

6 Mercy, O Lord, mercy we ask,
This is our only prayer;
For mercy, Lord, is all our suit;
Oh, in Thy mercy spare! Amen.
"My kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of My peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee."—Isa. liv. 10.

P 1 Whence shall my tears begin?
What first-fruits shall I bear
Of earnest sorrow for my sin?
Or how my woes declare?

Lord, JESU, heal my soul:—Thou, as a Father, mark'st our tears and pain,
And welcomest the prodigal again.

Whence shall my tears begin?
Of earnest sorrow for my sin?
Or how my woes declare?
And, of Thy tender mercy, grant Thou me
To find remission of iniquity Amen.

WE come to Thee, dear Saviour (539).
WEAKY of earth, and laden with my sin (544).

Thou, as a Father, mark'st our tears and pain,
And welcomest the prodigal again.

I lie before Thy door;
Oh turn me not away!
Nor in Thine anger give me o'er
To Satan for a prey!

But ere the end of life and term of grace,

Thou spotless Lamb Divine,
Who takest sins away!
Remove far off the load that mine
Upon my conscience lay:

And, of Thy tender mercy, grant Thou me
To find remission of iniquity Amen.

My sins have taken such a hold on me (439).

P 1 LORD Jesu, when we stand afar,
And gaze upon Thy holy Cross,
In love of Thee and scorn of self,
Oh, may we count the world as loss!

2 When we behold Thy bleeding wounds,
And the rough way that Thou hast trod,
Make us to hate the load of sin
That lay so heavy on our God.

3 O holy Lord, uplifted high,
With outstretched Arms, in mortal woe,
Embracing in Thy wondrous love
The sinful world that lies below;—

To gaze beyond the things we see;
And in the mystery of Thy Death
Draw us and all men unto Thee. Amen.

"Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh."—1 St. Pet. iv. 1.

P 1 O THOU, who through this holy week
Didst suffer for us all,
The sick to heal, the lost to seek,
To raise up them that fall;

2 We cannot tell the bitter woe
Thy Love was pleased to bear;
O Lamb of God, we only know
That all our hopes are there.

3 Thy Feet the path of suffering trod,
Thy Hands the victory won;

What shall we render to our God
For all that He hath done?

4 O grant us, Lord, with Thee to die,
With Thee to rise anew;
Grant us the things of earth to fly
The things of heaven pursue.

F 5 To God the blessèd Three in One
All praise and glory be!
Crown, Lord, Thy servants who have won,
Through Thee, the victory. Amen.

117  "As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of One shall many be made righteous."—Rom. v. 19.

1 Sing, my tongue, the Saviour's glory,
   Tell His triumph far and wide,
   Tell abroad the wondrous story
   Of His Body Crucified;
   How upon the Cross a victim,
   Vanquishing in death, He died.

2 Eating of the tree forbidden,
   Man had sunk in Satan's snare,
   When our pitying Creator
   Did this second tree prepare,
   Destined many ages later
   That first evil to repair.

3 So when now at length the fulness
   Of the time foretold drew nigh,
   Then the Son, the world's Creator,
   Left His Father's throne on high;
   From a Virgin's womb appearing,
   Clothed in our mortality.

4 Thus did Christ to perfect manhood
   In our mortal flesh attain,
   Freely then Himself surrendered
   To a death of bitter pain;
   He the Lamb, a willing Victim,
   On the Cross for us was slain.

5 Lo, with gall they stay His faintness!
   See the thorns upon His Brow!
   Nails His Hands and Feet are rending!
   See, His Side is open now;
   Whence to cleanse the whole creation,
   Streams of blood and water flow!

6 Blessing, honour everlasting,
   To the eternal One in Three!
   To the Father, Son and Spirit,
   Equal praises ever be!
   Glory through the earth and heaven
   To the Holy Trinity! Amen.

That so a fount of priceless worth
Might flow for sinners from His Side.

3 O Jesu, in Thy Cross we see
   Once more a Tree of Life for men!

4 Lo! from the curse the earth is free,

"For the transgression of my people was He stricken."—Isa. liii. 8.

1 Now returns the awful morning
When with curses, shouts, and scorning,
Salem raged against her King;
Gave Him up to bonds and scourging,
Followed Him with cruel urging
On His path of suffering.

2 He His Cross in patience bearing,
Meek His twisted thorn-crown wearing,
Friendless climbed that shameful hill;
Tasted not the drink benumbing,
Shrank not from the torture coming,
Suffered all to have their will.

3 God's own Son, of glory emptied,
Smitten, mocked, forsaken, tempted,
Died this day upon the Tree;
Dying, for His murderers pleaded:
Lord, by us that prayer is needed;
We have pierced and stricken Thee!

4 Not alone the hands that nailed Thee,
Nor the crowd whose cries assailed Thee,
Raised Thy Cross, and fixed Thee there:
Ours the sin which crucified Thee,
We betrayed Thee, we denied Thee,
We too need Thy pardoning prayer.

5 Son of Man, in memory keeping
All the pain, the shame, the weeping,
All the sorrows of Thy way;
By the love which thither drew Thee,
Now once more, for them that slew Thee
Lift Thy wounded Hands to-day! Amen.

"They crucified Him."—St. Matt. xxvii. 35.

Oh, come and mourn beside the Cross;
Oh, come ye to the Saviour's side;
Oh, come, together let us mourn:
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

Why are these hearts so cold and dead,
While soldiers scoff, and Jews deride?
Ah, see how patiently He hangs!
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

Seven times He spake—seven words of love;
And all three hours His silence cried
For mercy on the souls of men:
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

Saviour, Thyself Thou wouldst not save;
It was Thine own pure love that tied Thee faster than the senseless nails:
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

Oh, break, oh, break, hard heart of mine!
Thy weak self-love and guilty pride
Betrayed and slew thy God and King:
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified!

Oh, Love of God! Oh, sin of man!
On this dread day your strength was tried;
And Love at last hath conquered sin;
For Love Himself was crucified! Amen.

125 "Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where He was laid."—St. Mark xv. 47.

P 1 By Jesus' grave on either hand,
While night is brooding o'er the land,
The sad and silent mourners stand.

2 At last the weary life is o'er,
The agony and conflict sore,
Of Him who all our sufferings bore.

3 Deep in the rock's sepulchral shade,
The Lord, by whom the worlds were made,
The Saviour of mankind, is laid.

4 O hearts bereaved and sore distressed,
Here is for you a place of rest,—
Here leave your griefs on Jesus' breast.

5 So when the Dayspring from on high cres. Shall chase the night and fill the sky,
f Then shall the Lord again draw nigh. Amen.
HOLY WEEK.

"Joseph wrapped the Body in a clean linen cloth and laid it in his own new tomb."—St. Matt. xxvii. 59, 60.

1. All is o'er, the pain, the sorrow,
   Human taunts and fiendish spite;
   Death shall be despoiled to-morrow
   Of the prey he grasps to-night:
   Yet once more, to seal his doom,
   Christ must sleep within the tomb.

2. Dark and still the cell that holds Him,
   While in brief repose He lies;
   Deep the slumber that enfolds Him,
   Veiled awhile from mortal eyes;
   Slumber such as needs must be
   After hard-won victory.

3. Fierce and deadly was the anguish
   Which on yonder Cross He bore!
   How did Soul and Body languish
   Till the toil of death was o'er!
   But that toil, so fierce and dread,
   Bruised and crushed the serpent's head!

4. All night long with plaintive voicing
   Chant His requiem soft and low:
   Loftier strains of loud rejoicing
   From to-morrow's harps shall flow:
   "Death and hell at length are slain!
   Christ hath triumphed! Christ doth reign!"
   Amen.

Also the following:

Go to dark Gethsemane (370).
Sabbath of the saints of old (60).
(Morning.)

"He is risen, as He said."—St. Matt. xxviii. 6.

1 Alleluia! Alleluia! Hearts to heaven and voices raise;
Sing to God a hymn of gladness, sing to God a hymn of praise!
He who on the Cross a victim for the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of Glory, now is risen from the dead!

2 Now the iron bars are broken, Christ from death to life is born,
Glorious life, and life immortal, on this holy Easter morn.
Christ has triumphed, and we conquer by His mighty enterprise,
We with Him to life eternal by His Resurrection rise.

3 Christ is risen, Christ the first-fruits of the holy harvest-field,
Which will all its full abundance at His second coming yield;
Then the golden ears of harvest will their heads before Him wave,
Ripened by His glorious sunshine, from the furrows of the grave.

4 Christ is risen, we are risen! Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain, and dew, and gleams of glory from the brightness of Thy Face,
So that we, with hearts in heaven, here on earth may fruitful be,
And by Angel-hands be gathered, and be ever, Lord, with Thee.

5 Alleluia! Alleluia! Glory be to God on high!
To the Father, and the Saviour, who has gained the victory!
Glory to the Holy Spirit, fount of Love and Sanctity!
Alleluia! Alleluia! to the Triune Majesty! Amen.

(Morning.)

128  "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast."—1 Cor. v. 7, 8.

1 At the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King,
Who hath washed us in the tide
Flowing from His pierced Side.
Praise we Him, whose love divine
Gives His guests His Blood for wine,
Gives His Body for the feast:
Christ the Victim, Christ the Priest!

2 Where the Paschal Blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.
Praise we Christ, whose Blood was shed,
Paschal Victim, Paschal Bread;
With sincerity and love
Eat we Manna from above.

3 Mighty Victim from the sky,
Hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie,
Thou hast conquered in the fight;
Thou hast brought us life and light:
Now no more can death appal,
Now no more the grave enthrall;
Thou hast opened Paradise,
And in Thee Thy saints shall rise.

4 Easter triumph, Easter joy—
Sin alone can this destroy;
From sin's power do Thou set free
Souls new-born, O Lord, in Thee.
Hymns of glory and of praise,
Father, unto Thee we raise;
Risen Lord, all praise to Thee,
With the Spirit, ever be! Amen.
EASTER.

129 "Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him."—Rom. vi. 9.

1 CHRIST JESUS lay in Death's strong bands,
    For our offences given;
    But now at God's right hand He stands,
    And brings us life from heaven:
    Wherefore let us joyful be
    And sing to God right thankfully
    Loud songs of Alleluia!
    Alleluia!

2 It was a strange and dreadful strife,
    When Life and Death contended;
    The victory remained with Life,
    The reign of Death was ended;
    Stript of power, no more he reigns;
    An empty shape alone remains;
    His sting is lost for ever!
    Alleluia!
EASTER.

3 So let us keep the festival
   Whereto the Lord invites us;
   Christ is Himself the joy of all,
   The Sun that warms and lights us:
   By His grace He doth impart
   Eternal sunshine to the heart;
   The night of sin is ended!
   Alleluia!

4 Then let us feast this Easter day
   On the true Bread of heaven;
   The word of grace hath purged away
   The old and wicked leaven;
   Christ alone our souls will feed;
   He is our Meat and Drink indeed;
   Faith lives upon no other!
   Alleluia! Amen.

"Thou wilt not leave My soul in hell."—Psalm xvi. 10.

1 Now dawning glows the Day of days;
   All heaven resounds with songs of praise!
   From earth loud shouts of triumph rise,
   And hell beneath with groans replies.

2 For He, the mighty King of day,
   Hath crushed proud Death's unlawful sway,
   And, marching through his dark domain,
   Broken the weary prisoners' chain.

3 Fierce soldiers o'er His tomb kept guard;
   A mighty stone the entrance barred;
   But, bursting from His prison, He rose
   Triumphant o'er His baffled foes.

4 Loosed are the pains of Hell this hour;
   Death over life hath lost his power;
   "The Lord is risen," the Angel said,
   "Why seek the living 'mid the dead?"

5 Thou gracious King and Lord of day,
   Dwell Thou within our hearts, we pray;
   So from Thine own shall grateful praise
   Rise to Thy throne through all our days. Amen.

"I have the keys of hell and death."—Rev. i. 18.

1 "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say;
   Hell to-day is vanquished; Heaven is won to-day!
   Lo! the Dead is living, God for evermore!
   Him, their true Creator, all His works adore!
   "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

2 Earth with joy confesses, clothing her for Spring,
   All good gifts returned with her returning King:
   Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
   Speak His sorrows ended, hail His triumph now.
   Hell to-day is vanquished; Heaven is won to-day!

3 Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
   Hours and passing moments praise Thee in their flight;
   Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
   Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee.
   "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

4 Maker and Redeemer, Life and Health of all,
   Thou from Heaven beholding human nature's fall,
   Of the Father's Godhead true and only Son,
   Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.
   Hell to-day is vanquished; Heaven is won to-day!

5 Thou, of Life the Author, death didst undergo,
   Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
   Come, then, True and Faithful, now fulfil Thy word;
   'Tis Thine own Third Morning! Rise, O buried Lord!
   "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

6 Loose the souls long imprisoned, bound with Satan's chain;
   All that now is fallen raise to life again;
   Show Thy Face in brightness, bid the nations see;
   Bring again our daylight: day returns with Thee!
   Hell to-day is vanquished! Heaven is won to-day! Amen.

“Now is Christ risen from the dead.”—1 Cor. xv. 20.

F 1 Christ is risen! Christ is risen! He hath burst His bonds in twain! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Earth and Heaven, prolong the strain! He who suffered pain and loss, In His love to us,

Dying on the bitter Cross,
Lives victorious!
Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
He hath burst His bonds in twain!
Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
Earth and Heaven, prolong the strain!
EASTER.

2 Lo, the chains of death are broken!
   Earth below, and Heaven above:
   Joy anew in every token
   Of Thy triumph, Lord of love!
   He o'er earth and heaven shall reign
   At His Father's side,
   Till He cometh once again,
   Bridegroom, to His Bride.
Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
   He hath burst His bonds in twain!
Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
   Earth and Heaven, prolong the strain!

3 Angel legions, downward thronging,
   Hail the Lord of earth and skies!
   Ye who watched with holy longing
   Till your Sun again should rise:
   He is risen! Earth, rejoice!
   Sing, ye starry train!
   All things living, find a voice!
   Jesus lives again!
Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
   He hath burst His bonds in twain!
Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
   Over earth and heaven to reign! Amen.

133 "Jesus Christ, the first-begotten of the dead, and the Prince of the kings of the earth."—Rev. i. 5.

  1 Christ the Lord is risen again;
     Christ hath broken every chain;
     Hark, angelic voices cry,
     Singing evermore on high,
     Alleluia!
     He who slumbered in the grave,
     Is exalted now to save;
     Now through Christendom it rings
     That the Lamb is King of kings.
     Alleluia!

  2 He who gave for us His life,
     Who for us endured the strife,
     Is our Paschal Lamb to-day;
     We too sing for joy, and say
     Alleluia!
     He who bore all pain and loss
     Comfortless upon the Cross,
     Lives in glory now on high,
     Pleads for us and hears our cry;
     Alleluia!
     5

     Now He bids His Church record
     How the lost may be restored,
     How the penitent forgiven,
     How we too may enter heaven.
     Alleluia!
     6

     Thou our Paschal Lamb indeed,
     Christ, Thy ransomed people feed;
     Take our sins and guilt away,
     That we all may sing for aye,
     Alleluia!
     Amen.

134 "If we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also in the likeness of His resurrection."—Rom. vi. 5.

1 "Christ the Lord is risen to-day,"
Sons of men, and Angels, say;
Raise your songs of triumph high!
Sing, ye heavens; and earth, reply!

2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won:
Lo! our Sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo! He sets in blood no more.

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
Christ has burst the gates of hell!
Death in vain forbids His rise;
Christ has opened Paradise!

4 Lives again our glorious King!
Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
Once He died our souls to save:
Where thy victory, O Grave?

5 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head!
Made like Him, like Him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

6 Hail the Lord of earth and heaven!
Praise to Thee by both be given:
Thee we greet triumphant now:
Hail! the Resurrection Thou! Amen.
"He hath broken the gates of brass."—Ps. cvii. 16.

1 Come, ye faithful, raise the strain
   Of triumphant gladness!
2 'Tis the Spring of souls to-day:
   Christ hath burst His prison,
   From the frost and gloom of death
   Light and life have risen.
   All the winter of our sins,
   Long and dark, is flying
   From His light to whom we give Thanks and praise undying.

Now the Queen of seasons, bright
   With the day of splendour,
   With the royal feast of feasts,
   Comes its joy to render;
   Comes to glad Jerusalem,
   Who with true affection
   Welcomes in unwearied strains
Easter Hymn.

"The Lord is risen indeed."—St. Luke xxiv. 34.

1. Jesus Christ is risen to-day, Alleluia!
   Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
   Who did once, upon the cross Alleluia!
   Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

   Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
   Unto Christ our heavenly King; Alleluia!
   Who endured the Cross and grave, Alleluia!
   Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!

   But the pains which He endured, Alleluia!
   Our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
   Cres. Now above the sky He's King, Alleluia!
   Where the angels ever sing Alleluia! Amen.

"Jesus met them, saying, All hail."—St. Matt. xxviii. 9.

1 The Day of Resurrection!
   Earth, tell it out abroad!
The Passover of gladness,
   The Passover of God!
From death to life eternal,
   From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over
   With hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
   That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
   Of Resurrection-light;
And listening to His accents,
   May hear, so calm and plain,
His own "All-hail;"—and hearing,
   May raise the victor strain.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
   Let earth her song begin!
Let the round world keep triumph,
   And all that is therein:
Invisible and visible,
   Their notes let all things blend;
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
   Our joy that hath no end! Amen.

To Thee in whom we live,
Our countless sins, for Jesu's sake,
Forgive, O Lord, forgive.

2 We have unthankful been

Thine indignation we deserve;
But spare, O Father, spare.

4 From plague and pestilence,

8 Love in our households breathe;

141 "Let us now fear the Lord our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter in its season."—Jer. v. 24.

1  LORD, in Thy Name Thy servants plead,
And Thou hast sworn to hear;
Thine is the harvest, Thine the seed,
The Spring and falling year.

2  Our hope, when Autumn winds blew wild,
We trusted, Lord, with Thee:
And still, now Spring has on us smiled,
We wait on Thy decree.

3  The former and the latter rain,
The Summer sun and air,
The green ear, and the golden grain,
All Thine, are ours by prayer.

4  Thine too by right, and ours by grace,
The wondrous growth unseen,
The hopes that soothe, the fears that brace,
The love that shines serene.

5  Grant us Thy blessings so to use
Here, in the world below,
That Thee in Thy new heaven and earth
We never may forego.

6  To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God Whom we adore,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

142 "While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease."—Gen. viii. 22.

1 O Throned, O Crowned with all renown,
Since Thou the earth hast trod,
Thou reignest, and by Thee come down
Henceforth the gifts of God.
By Thee the suns of space, that burn
Unspent, their watches hold;
The hosts that turn, and still return,
Are swayed, and poised, and rolled.

2 The powers of earth, for all her ills,
An endless treasure yield;
The precious things of ancient hills,
Forest, and fruitful field.
Thine is the health, and Thine the wealth
That in our halls abound;
And Thine the beauty and the joy
With which the years are crowned.

3 And as, when ebbed the Flood, our sires
Kneeled on the mountain sod;
While o'er the new world's altar fires
Shone out the Bow of God;
And sweetly fell the peaceful spell,
Word that shall aye avail;
"Summer and winter shall not cease,
Seed-time nor harvest fail;"

4 Thus in their change let frost and heat
And winds and dews be given:
All fostering power, all influence sweet
Breathe from the bounteous heaven.
Attemper fair with gentle air
The sunshine and the rain,
That kindly earth, with timely birth,
May yield her fruits again;

Nor precious wood, nor hewn stone,

And if so fair beyond compare

Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Reascends His native heaven.

2 There the glorious triumph waits;
   Lift your heads, eternal gates!
Christ has vanquished death and sin;
   fff Take the King of glory in!

3 Lo, the heaven its Lord receives!
   Yet He loves the earth He leaves.
Though returning to His throne,
   Still He calls mankind His own.

4 See He lifts His hands above!
   p See He shows the prints of love!
cres. Hark! His gracious Lips bestow
   Blessings on His Church below.

P 5 "Master," may we ever say,
   "Taken from our head to-day,

   Ever gazing up to Thee."

P 6 Lord, though parted from our sight

   cres. Looking when our Lord shall come,
   Longing for our heavenly home.

8 There we shall with Thee remain,
   Partners of Thine endless reign;
   There Thy Face unclouded see,
   fff Find our heaven of heavens in Thee. Amen.
144  "He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight."—Acts i. 9.

1 He is gone—a cloud of light
   Has received Him from our sight;
   High in heaven, where eye of men
   Follows not, nor Angel's ken;
   Through the veils of time and space,
   Passed into the Holiest place;
   All the toil, the sorrow done,
   All the battle fought and won.

2 He is gone—towards their goal
   World and Church must onward roll:
   Far behind we leave the past;
   Forward are our glances cast:
   Still His words before us range
   Through the ages, as they change:
   Wheresoe'er the truth shall lead,
   He will give whate'er we need.

3 He is gone—but we once more
   Shall behold Him as before;
   In the heaven of heavens the same,
   As on earth He went and came.
   In the many mansions there,
   Place for us He will prepare:
   In that world unseen, unknown,
   He and we may yet be one.

4 He is gone—but not in vain,
   Wait until He comes again:
   He is risen, He is not here,
   Far above this earthly sphere;
   Evermore in heart and mind
   There our peace in Him we find:
   To our own Eternal Friend,
   Thitherward let us ascend. Amen.
145 "Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in."—Ps. xxiv. 7.

F1 Lift up your heads, eternal gates;
Ye everlasting doors, give way:
The King, the King of glory comes,
Ascending to His throne to-day!

Who is the King of glory?
Who is the King of glory?
It is the Lord of might,
The Victor in the fight,
Triumphant o'er the powers of night!

2 Lift up your heads, eternal gates;
Ye gates of pearl, and streets of gold;
The King, the King of glory comes;
Before His chariot-wheels unfold!

Who is the King of glory?
Who is the King of glory?
The Lord of Hosts is He,
The God of Majesty,
He is the King eternally!

3 Now with the Father, God most high,
And with the Spirit, ever one,
The Angels own the Christ, the King,
And bow before His shining throne.

He is the King of glory!
He is the King of glory!
Him let all earth adore;
To Him our praises pour,
For ever and for evermore! Amen.

"I go to prepare a place for you."—St. John xiv. 2.

1 O CHRIST, who hast prepared a place
For us around Thy throne of grace,
We pray Thee, lift our hearts above,
And draw them with the cords of love.

2 Source of all good, Thou, gracious Lord,
Art our exceeding great reward:
How transient is our present pain!
How boundless our eternal gain!

3 With open face and joyful heart,
We then shall see Thee as Thou art;
Our love shall never cease to glow,
Our praise shall never cease to flow.

4 Thy never-failing grace to prove,
A surety of Thine endless love,
Send down Thy Holy Ghost to be
The raiser of our souls to Thee.

5 O future Judge, Eternal Lord,
Thy Name be hallowed and adored;
To God the Father, King of Heaven,
And Holy Ghost, like praise be given. Amen.

St. Asaph. 8.7.8.7. D. William S. Bambridge.
“Behold, One like the Son of Man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him.”—Dan. vii. 13.

1 See the Conqueror mounts in triumph; see the King in royal state,
Riding on the clouds His chariot to His heavenly palace gate!
Hark! the choirs of angel voices joyful Alleluias sing,
And the portals high are lifted to receive their Heavenly King.

2 Who is this that comes in glory, with the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies, He has gained the victory!
He who on the Cross did suffer, He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan, He by death has spoiled His foes.

3 While He raised His Hands in blessing, He was parted from His friends;
While their eager eyes behold Him, He upon the clouds ascends.
He who walked with God, and pleased Him, preaching truth and doom to come, cres. He, our Enoch, is translated to His everlasting Home.

4 Now our heavenly Aaron enters with His Blood within the veil;
Joshua now is come to Canaan, and the kings before Him quail;
Now He plants the tribes of Israel in their promised resting-place:
Now our great Elijah offers double portion of His grace.

5 Thou hast raised our human nature on the clouds to God’s right hand;
There we sit in heavenly places, there with Thee in glory stand:
Jesus reigns, adored by Angels; Man with God is on the Throne;
Mighty Lord, in Thine Ascension we by faith behold our own. Amen.
"God is gone up with a merry noise, and the Lord with the sound of the trump."—Ps. xlvi. 5.

1 The Lord ascendeth up on high,
   Loud anthems round Him swelling;
The Lord hath triumphed gloriously,
   In power and might excelling:
Hell and the grave are captive led;
   Lo! He returns, our glorious Head,
   To His eternal dwelling!

2 The heavens with joy receive their Lord;
   Oh, day of exultation!
   By saints, by Angel-hosts, adored
   For His so great salvation!
   O earth, adore thy glorious King;
   His Rising, His Ascension sing
   With grateful adoration!

3 By saints in earth and saints in heaven,
   With songs for ever blended,
   All praise to Christ our King be given,
   Who hath to heaven ascended;
   To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   The God of Heaven's resplendent host
   In bright array extended! Amen.

Also the following:

ALLELUIA! Sing to Jesus (332).
CHRIST, above all glory seated (343).
HAIL, Thou once despised Jesus (378).
REJOICE, the Lord is King (488).
THOU art gone up on high (525).
WHERE high the heavenly temple stands (552).

1 Joy! because the circling year
Brings our day of blessings here;
Day when first the Light divine
On the Church began to shine!
Like to quivering tongues of flame
Unto each the Spirit came;
Tongues, that earth might hear their call;
Fire, that Love might burn in all.

2 So the wondrous works of God
Wondrously were spread abroad;
Every tribe's familiar tone
Made the glorious marvel known;
Hardened scoffers vainly jeered;
Listening strangers heard and feared;
Knew the prophet's word fulfilled:
Owned the work which God had willed.

3 Still Thy Spirit's fulness, Lord,
On Thy waiting Church be poured!
Once Thou on Thy saints didst shower
Mighty signs and words of power;
Humbler things we ask Thee now,
Gifts from heaven to men below;
Grant our burdened hearts release,
Grant Thine own abiding peace. Amen.

"I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."—St. Matt. xxviii. 20.

1 O heavenly Fount of light and love, Adoring praise to Thee we pay; Pour down, blest Spirit, from above Fresh streams of grace this day. f Alleluia!

2 Thou, o'er the everlasting Son Hovering with wings of living light, Anointedst Israel's Champion To fight the awful fight. f Alleluia!
WHITSUNTIDE.

3 At Pentecost Thou camest down, 6 'Tis Thine, O Comforter, Thy Church
As sound of rushing wind went by, With light of heavenly truth to fill,
With tongues of heavenly fire to crown That she the ancient paths may search,
That glorious company. f Alleluia! And guide us in them still. f Alleluia!

4 Thou on each new-born child of grace 7 'Tis Thine the lowly souls to lead
Dost now in hidden power descend, In lowly ways, through feast and fast,
To strengthen for life's weary race, With praise and prayer, by hymn and creed,
To comfort and defend. f Alleluia! To heaven's bright gates at last. f Alleluia!

5 Thou in each meek and lowly heart, 8 Thee, Spirit blest, All-Holy One,
With streams of living waters bright, In songs of triumph we adore,
Sweet Fount of strength and gladness art, For, with the Father and the Son,

Oh, shed Thine influence—from above; Be God's surpassing glory sung:
And still from age to age convey Let all the listening earth be taught
The wonders of this sacred day. The acts our great Redeemer wrought.

Half darkness and half flame:

2 But when He came the second time,
He came in power and love;
Softer than gale at morning prime Hovered His holy Dove.

TRINITY SUNDAY.

All glory to the Father be,
   Who made the earth and sky and sea,
   Created man their earthly king;
   Then gave His Son for man to die;
   Thee, Father, God, we glorify!

2 All glory to the Son, who came
   Clothed in our flesh and mortal frame;
   Who bare our sins, vouchsafed to give
   Himself to die that we might live;
   All-perfect God and Man in One,
   Be praise to Thee, Incarnate Son!
3 All glory to the Holy Ghost,

   From heaven to earth in mercy came,
   Descending as in tongues of flame,
   The promised Comforter and Guide,
   Through whom our souls are sanctified.

4 Three Persons, but One God! whose grace

   With joyful hearts and lips to Thee,
   We sing this mighty mystery;
   Thy Holy Name we magnify,

"Hallowed be Thy Name."—St. Matt. vi. 9.

1 Sound aloud Jehovah's praises,
Tell abroad the awful Name;
Heaven the ceaseless anthem raises,
Let the earth her God proclaim:
God, the Hope of every nation,
God, the source of consolation,
Holy, Blessed Trinity!

2 This the Name from ancient ages
Hidden in its dazzling light;
This the Name that kings and sages
Prayed and strove to know aright,
Through God's wondrous Incarnation
Now revealed the world's Salvation,
Ever Blessed Trinity!

3 Into this great Name and holy
We all tribes and tongues baptize;
Thus the Highest owns the lowly,
Homeward, heavenward, bids them rise,
Gathers them from every nation,
Bids them join in adoration
Of the Blessed Trinity!

4 In this Name the heart rejoices,
Pouring forth its secret prayer:
In this Name we lift our voices,
And our common faith declare;
Offering humble supplication,
Thanks, and praise, and veneration
To the Blessed Trinity! Amen.

VI.—THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL.

Praise for the glorious vision the persecutor saw.
Thee, Lord, for His Conversion we glorify to-day:
So lighten all our darkness with Thy true Spirit’s ray.

VII.—ST. MATTHEW.

Lord, Thine abiding Presence directs the wondrous choice;
For one in place of Judas the faithful now rejoice.
Thy Church from false apostles for evermore defend,
And, by Thy parting promise, be with her to the end.

VIII.—ST. MARK.

Whose labours and whose Gospel enrich our triumph.
May we in all our weakness find strength from Thee supplied,
And all, as fruitful branches, in Thee, the Vine, abide.

IX.—ST. PHILIP AND ST. JAMES.

All praise for Thine Apostle, blest guide to Greek and Jew,

And grant the grace to know Thee, the Way, the Truth, the Life;
To wrestle with temptations till victors in the strife.

X.—ST. BARNABAS.

Forsaking earthly treasures, sought riches from above.
As earth now teems with increase, let gifts of grace descend,
That Thy true consolations may through the world extend.

XI.—ST. JOHN BAPTIST.

Of prophets last and greatest, he saw Thy dawning ray,
Make us the rather blessed, who see Thy glorious day.

XII.—ST. PETER.

Thrice falling, yet repentant, thrice charged to feed Thy fold.
Lord, make Thy pastors faithful, to guard their flocks
And grant them dauntless courage with humble earnest will.

XIII.—ST. JAMES.

For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, who, slain by Herod’s sword,
Drank of Thy cup of suffering, fulfilling thus Thy word.
Curb we all vain impatience to read Thy veiled decree;
And count it joy to suffer, (crest) if so brought nearer Thee.

 XIV.—ST. BARTHOLOMEW.

All praise for Thine Apostle, the faithful, pure, and true,
Whom, underneath the fig-tree, Thine Eye all-seeing knew.
Like him may we be guileless, true Israelites indeed;
That Thine abiding Presence our longing souls may feed.

XV.—ST. MATTHEW.

Praise, Lord, for him whose Gospel Thy royal right declared,
Who, worldly gains forsaking, Thy path of suffering shared.
From all unrighteous mammon, oh! give us hearts set free,
That we, whate’er our calling, may rise and follow Thee.

XVI.—ST. LUKE.

For that beloved physician all praise, whose Gospel shows
The Healer of the nations, the Sharer of our woes.
Thy wine and oil, O Saviour, on bruised hearts deign to pour,
And with Thy Spirit’s anointing anoint us evermore.

XVII.—ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE.

Praise, Lord, for Thine Apostles, who sealed their faith to-day:
One love, one zeal impelled them to tread the sacred way.
May we with zeal as earnest the faith of Christ maintain,
And, bound in love as brethren, at length Thy kingdom gain.

XVIII.—ALL SAINTS.

For grace which did in mercy for all their sins atone;
For love which hath ingathered the blessed, one by one;
We praise Thy Name, O Saviour, and pray that we with them
May shine as precious jewels in Thy bright diadem.

GENERAL ENDING.

Apostles, Prophets, Martyrs, and all the sacred throng,
Who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song;
For these, passed on before us, Saviour, we Thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps, would serve Thee more and more.

Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit, eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransomed nation fall down before the throne,
And honour, power, and glory ascribe to God alone.

2 All glory for Thy chosen band, To whom the charge was given, From land to land publish peace, And point the way to Heaven.

159  "Ye shall drink indeed of My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with."—St. Matt. xx. 23.

1 The strain of joy and gladness
To Christ our King raise high,
Who left for us His glory
Upon the Cross to die;
Then, all our sins atoned for,
Rose Victor o'er the grave,
Henceforth alive for ever,
At God's right hand to save!

2 The Martyrs' noble army,
Who in His strength o'ercame,
Followed their Master's footsteps,
And took His path of shame,—
That path which leads through sorrow
To where all sorrows cease,
Through blood, and fire, and torture,
To rest, and joy, and peace.

3 We praise God for Saint Andrew
On this his festal day,
And hear his dying accents
In deepest rapture say,
"O precious Cross! I hail thee,
I cling to thee with love;"
"For thou wilt bear me safely"
"To my bright home above."

4 Jesu, Thou Strength of Martyrs,
Enabled by Thy grace,
Oh! may we, like Saint Andrew,
With joy our cross embrace;
And by all kindly actions,
And gentle words of love,
Lead others here to know Thee,
And see Thy Face above.

5 And as we daily struggle,
By mighty foes oppressed,
Unite us in communion
With all Thy Church at rest,
With Angels and Apostles,
The white-robed Martyr band,
The Virgins crowned with lilies,
The Saints from every land.

6 Here faintly rise our praises
To join their strain of mirth;
For one the song in heaven,
And one the song on earth.
All glory to the Father,
The Spirit and the Son;
Sing "Holy, Holy, Holy"
To the great Three in One! Amen.

3 There of the Kingdom learnt The measure and the time, Of Elders, Thrones, and white-robed Hosts, The mystery sublime:

4 There the new City, bathed In her dear Bridegroom's light, The seats of bliss, his spirit saw, The Land that hath no night.

1 Word Supreme, before creation,
    Born of God eternally,
Who didst will for our salvation
    To be born on earth, and die;
Well Thy saints have kept their station,
    Watching till Thine hour drew nigh.

2 Now 'tis come, and Faith espies Thee:
    Like an eaglet in the morn,
One in steadfast worship eyes Thee,
    Thy beloved, Thy latest born:
In Thy glory he descries Thee
    Reigning from the tree of scorn.

3 He upon Thy Bosom lying
    Thy true tokens learnt to know;
And Thy dearest pledge in dying,
    Lord, Thou didst on him bestow;
Shew'dst him how, all grace supplying,
    Blood and water from Thee flow.

4 He first, hoping and believing,

Latest he, the warfare leaving,
    Landed on the eternal shore;
And his witness we receiving
    Own Thee Lord for evermore.

5 Lo! Heav'n's doors lift up, revealing
    How Thy judgments earthward move;
Scrolls unfolded, trumpets pealing,
    Wine-cups from the wrath above;
Yet o'er all a soft Voice stealing—
    "Little children, trust and love!"

6 Thee, the Almighty King eternal,

4 They unconscious witness gave

   Grant, good Lord, that we may be

166 “Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise.”—St. Matt. xxi. 16.

1 Glory to Thee, O Lord,
Who, from this world of sin,
By cruel Herod’s ruthless sword
Those precious ones didst win!

2 All praise to Thee, O Lord!
For now, all grief unknown,
They wait in peace a free reward,
The martyr’s heavenly crown.

3 Baptized in their own blood,
Earth’s untried perils o’er,
They passed unconsciously the flood,
And safely gained the shore.

4 Glory to Thee for all
The ransomed infant band,
Who since that hour have heard Thy call,
And reached the quiet land!

5 Oh, that our hearts within,
Like theirs, were pure and bright!
Oh, that as free from stain of sin
We shrank not from Thy sight!

6 Lord, help us every hour
Thy cleansing grace to claim;
In life to glorify Thy power,
In death to praise Thy name! Amen.

CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL.

167 "He which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed."—Gal. i. 23.

1 We sing the glorious conquest
Before Damascus' gate,
When Saul, the Church's spoiler,
Came breathing threats and hate:
The ravening wolf rushed forward
Full early to the prey;
But lo! the Shepherd met him,
And bound him fast to-day!

2 Oh, Glory most excelling
That smote across his path!
Oh, Light that pierced and blinded
The zealot in his wrath!
Oh, Voice that spake within him
The calm reproving word!
Oh, Love that sought and held him
The bondman of his Lord!

3 O Wisdom, ordering all things
In order strong and sweet,
What nobler spoil was ever
Cast at the Victor's feet?
What wiser master-builder
E'er wrought at Thine employ,
Than he, till now so furious
Thy building to destroy?

4 Lord, teach Thy Church the lesson,
Still in her darkest hour
Of weakness and of danger
To trust Thy hidden power.
Thy grace by ways mysterious
The wrath of man can bind,
And in Thy boldest foeman
Thy chosen Saint can find! Amen.
THE PURIFICATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN.

"And when the days of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought Him to Jerusalem, to present Him to the Lord."—St. Luke ii. 22.

1 In His temple now behold Him,
    See the long-awaited Lord!
    Ancient prophets had foretold Him;
    God hath now fulfilled His word.
    Now to praise Him His redeemed,
    Shall break forth with one accord,

2 In the arms of her who bore Him,
    Virgin pure, behold Him lie,
    While His aged saints adore Him,
    Ere in perfect faith they die:
    Alleluia! Alleluia!
    Lo, the incarnate God most high!

3 Jesu, by Thy presentation,
    Thou, who didst for us endure,
    Make us see Thy great salvation,
    Seal us with Thy promise sure;
    And present us in Thy glory
    To Thy Father cleansed and pure.

4 Prince and Author of salvation,
    Be Thy boundless love our theme!
    Jesu, praise to Thee be given
    By the world Thou didst redeem,
    With the Father and the Spirit,
    Lord of majesty supreme! Amen.

See in the flesh revealed!
The world's Redeemer comes to-day
His own redemption's price to pay!

2 Lo! Simeon's saintly arms

And on his words so strange
She mused with silent awe.

4 p O Saviour, in Thy courts

But Thou didst once for us
Impure, unclean, oh, may we be

170 "The lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles."—Acts i. 26.

1 Christ is gone up; yet ere He passed
   From earth in heaven to reign,
   He formed one Holy Church to last
   Till He should come again.

2 His Twelve Apostles first He made
   His Ministers of grace;
   And they their hands on others laid,
   To fill in turn their place.

3 And, first the Church's grace to own,
   First called by human hands,
   Matthias wins the traitor's throne,
   As 'mid the Twelve he stands.

4 So, age by age, and year by year,
   Christ's grace is handed on;
   And still the Holy Church is here,

"In this was manifested the love of God toward us."—I St. John iv. 9.

1 Great Gabriel sped on wings of light,
   With wondrous tidings laden;
   He came from heav'n's unclouded height
   To greet a lowly maiden.

2 For God upon her low estate
   Had looked with Royal favour;
   And all earth's kindreds celebrate
   The mighty Gift He gave her!

3 Oh, awful bliss! that from her womb
   Should spring the Uncreated,
   The Great and Holy One, for whom
   The world so long had waited!

4 A day thrice blest for man is this,
   Thou longed-for of all nations!
   And men shall sing Thy Mother's bliss
   Throughout all generations!

5 O Son divine! we fain would trace
   Thy Mother's steps so lowly,
   Her joys and woes, her saintly grace,
   Her life so calm and holy.

6 But lo! as all too near we press,

   No tongue may sing its loveliness,
   No eye its peace beholdeth!

7 And as we read with kindling eye

"Whose leaf shall not fade."—Ezek. xlvii. 12.

174

All is bright and cheerful round us;
All above is soft and blue;
Spring at last hath come and found us,
Spring and all its pleasures too:
Every flower is full of gladness;
Dew is bright and buds are gay;
Earth, with all its sin and sadness,
Seems a happy place to-day.

If the flowers, that fade so quickly,
If a day, that ends in night,
If the sky, that clouds so thickly
Often cover from our sight,—
If they all have so much beauty,
What must be God's Land of Rest,
Where His sons, that do their duty,
After many toils are blest?

There are leaves that never wither,
There are flowers that ne'er decay;
Nothing evil goeth thither,
Nothing good is kept away.
They that came from tribulation,
Washed their robes and made them white,
Out of every tongue and nation,
They have rest and peace and light.

They through grief and pain and scorning
Gave Thee, Lord, their willing names,
Like the saints we praise this morning,
Like Saint Philip and Saint James.
Oh, that we might, ceasing never,
Follow them, as they did Thee,
Till we magnify for ever
God the Blessed Trinity! Amen.

1 O Son of God, our Captain of salvation,
   Thyself by suffering schooled to human grief,
We bless Thee for Thy sons of consolation,
   Who follow in the steps of Thee their Chief:—

2 Those whom Thy Spirit's dread vocation severs
   To lead the vanguard of Thy conquering host;
Whose toilsome years are spent in brave endeavours
   To bear Thy saving Name from coast to coast:—

3 Those whose bright faith makes feeble hearts grow stronger,
   And sends fresh warriors to the great campaign,
Bids the lone convert feel estranged no longer,
   And wins the sundered to be one again:—

4 And all true helpers, patient, kind, and skilful,
   Who shed Thy light across our darkened earth,
Counsel the doubting, and restrain the wilful,
   Soothe the sick bed, and share the children's mirth.

5 Such was Thy Levite, strong in self-oblation
   To cast his all at Thine Apostles' feet;
He whose new name, through every Christian nation,

"The Lord knoweth them that are His."—2 Tim. ii. 19.

1 King of Saints, to whom the number
   Of Thy starry host is known,
Many a name by man forgotten
   Lives for ever round Thy Throne;
Lights which earth-born mists have darkened,
   There are shining full and clear—
Princes in the court of heaven,—
   Nameless, unremembered, here.

2 In the roll of Thine Apostles
   One there stands, Bartholomew,
He for whom to-day we offer
   Year by year our praises due;
How he toiled for Thee and suffered
   None on earth can now record;
All his saintly life is hidden
   In the knowledge of his Lord.

3 Was it he, beneath the fig-tree
   Seen of Thee, and guileless found;
He who saw the Good he longed for Rise from Nazareth's barren ground;
He who met his risen Master
   On the shore of Galilee;
He to whom the word was spoken,
   "Greater things thou yet shalt see"?

4 None can tell us; all is written
   In the Lamb's great book of Life—
All the faith, and prayer, and patience,
   All the toiling and the strife:
There are told Thy hidden treasures:—

"Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well."—St. John xi. 12.

1 The Saints of God! Their conflict past,
And life's long battle won at last,
No more they need the shield or sword.
They cast them down before their Lord:—
cres. O happy Saints! for ever blest,
dim. In that calm haven of your rest!

2 The Saints of God! Their wanderings done,
No more their weary course they run,
No more they faint, no more they fail,
No foes oppress, no fears appal:—
cres. O happy Saints! for ever blest,
dim. In that dear home how sweet your rest!

3 The Saints of God! Life's voyage o'er,
Safe landed on that blissful shore,
No stormy tempests now they dread,

"Ye shall sit upon twelve thrones."—St. Matt. xix. 28.

1 Let all on earth their voices raise,
Re-echoing heaven's triumphant praise,
To Him who gave the Apostles grace
To run on earth their glorious race.

2 Thou at whose word they bore the light
Of Gospel truth o'er heathen night,
To us that heavenly light impart,
To glad our eyes and cheer our heart.

3 Thou at whose will to them was given
To bind and loose in earth and heaven,
"The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb."—Rev. xxii. 14.

1. The eternal gifts of Christ the King, And love of Christ in perfect glow,
   The Apostles' glory, let us sing; That lays the prince of this world low.
   To Him, with hearts of gladness, raise The voice of thankful love and praise.

2. For they the Church's princes are, 4. So praise is to the Father brought,
   Triumphant leaders in the war; The work of God the Son fulfilled,
   In heavenly courts a warrior band, The will of God the Spirit wrought,
   True lights to lighten every land. The courts of heaven with gladness thrilled.

3. Their's was the steadfast faith of Saints, 5. To God, the Father and the Son
   The hope that never yields nor faints, And Holy Spirit, One and Three,
   Wearmouth, or Old 81st, Was praise before the worlds begun,

194 "Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world."—Ps. xix. 4.

1 The leaders of the Church of Christ, twelve stars of holy light,
    First in their Master's kingdom, first proclaimers of His might,
    Despised on earth, yet high in heaven, the Church her chiefs shall tell,
    When sitting on their thrones they judge the tribes of Israel.

2 They poured the rays of Truth divine on darkness and decay,
    Glad tidings sped, the idols fell, foul spirits shrank away;
    The chains fell from the slaves of sin, the tear was dried from grief,
    To those within the vale of death their message brought relief.

3 It was not by the sword and spear, nor power of human might,
    Nor speech of human wisdom, that they triumphed in the fight:
    But by the Cross of Jesus, and by virtue of His Name,
    They dared the foe, and won the crown, despising death and shame.

4 Oh, glorious task, to tread the path which they triumphant trod!
    Oh, perfect freedom, that in Christ true service pays to God!
    Oh, beautiful as morning's song the voice which speaks release!
    Oh, beautiful upon the hills the messengers of peace!

5 Still, therefore, Twelve of Jesus, doth the Church delight to sing,
    How ye the world led captive to the footstool of its King;
    Still she your message onward bears, till all shall own their Lord,
    Her warfare all accomplished, and Himself her great reward! Amen.

195 "And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live."—Ezek. xlvii. 9.

1 From hidden source arising,
    A mighty river ran,
    Through Eden's pleasant garden,
    Where God created man.

2 Thence, parted into branches,
    In four great streams it rolled,
    To water fields and vineyards,
    To wash down sands of gold.

3 And so, from highest heaven,
    The Lord, the Holy Dove,
    In fourfold manner sends us
    The tale of Jesus' love;

4 The tale whose words are golden,
    The tale whose flood divine
    Makes glad the Lord's own garden
    With plenteous corn and wine.

5 Four are the sacred voices,
    The story is but one;
    In fourfold wise they praise Him,
    The Sole-Begotten Son.

6 For this Thy fourfold Gospel,
    All thanks, O Lord, to Thee,
    In it Thyself revealing,
    Eternal Trinity! Amen.

“I am glorified in them.”—St. John xvii. 10.

F 1 For all the Saints who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesu, be for ever blest. Alleluia!

2 Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light. Alleluia!

* 3 For the Apostles' glorious company,—
Who, bearing forth the Cross o'er land and sea,
Shook all the mighty world,—we sing to Thee, Alleluia!

* 4 For the Evangelists,—by whose pure word,
Like fourfold stream, the garden of the Lord
Is fair and fruitful,—be Thy Name adored. Alleluia!

* 5 For Martyrs,—who with rapture-kindled eye
Saw the bright crown descending from the sky,
And, dying, grasped it,—Thee we glorify. Alleluia!

6 Oh! may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia!

7 Oh, blest communion! Fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle; they in glory shine!
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine. Alleluia!

p 8 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong! Alleluia!

f 9 The golden evening brightens in the west:
Soon, soon, to faithful warriors cometh rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest. Alleluia!

F 10 But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The Saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of Glory passes on His way! Alleluia!

FF 11 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost—Alleluia! Amen.

2 For all Thy saints, O Lord,

   Who counted Thee their great reward,
   And strove in Thee to die.
3 They all, in life and death,
   With Thee, their Lord, in view.
   Learnt from Thy Holy Spirit's breath
   To suffer and to do.
4 For this Thy Name we bless,

1 Glad light illumes this day;
   For now his race is run,
   And Christ's blest saint with joy
   His heavenly robe has won.
2 The honours of the world,
   And wealth he cast away,
   He left its desert paths,
   And trod the royal way.
3 O joyous day! For now
   This champion of the Lord,
   Through death's short agony,
   Has gained his sure reward.
4 O happy brother! Thou
   Hast found, in glory bright,
   The eternal Father's Son,
   Who led thee on to light.
5 Thou in this vale of tears
   Didst for His presence sigh;
   He with His fulness now
   Thy soul doth satisfy.
6 Lord, draw us to Thysclf,
   And keep us still Thine own,
   That we, with saints at rest,
   May rise to share Thy Throne. Amen.

"A great multitude, which no man could number, stood before the throne."—Rev. vii. 9.

1 Hark, the sound of holy voices, chanting at the crystal sea,
   Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Lord, to Thee.
   Multitudes which none can number, like the stars, in glory stand,
   Clothed in white apparel, holding palms of victory in their hand.

2 Patriarch, and holy Prophet, who prepared the way of Christ,
   King, Apostle, Saint, Confessor, Martyr, and Evangelist,
   Saints, maidens, matrons, widows who have watched to prayer,
   Joined in holy concert, singing to the Lord of all, are there.

3 They have come from tribulation, and have washed their robes in Blood,
   Washed them in the Blood of Jesus; tried they were, and firm they stood;
   Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented, sawn asunder, slain with sword,
   They have conquered Death and Satan, by the might of Christ the Lord.

4 Marching with Thy Cross their banner, they have triumphed, following
   Thee the Captain of Salvation, Thee their Saviour and their King;
   Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered; gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
   And by death to life immortal they were born, and glorified.

5 Now they reign in heavenly glory, now they walk in golden light;
   Now they drink, as from a river, holy bliss and infinite;
   Love and Peace they taste for ever, and all truth and knowledge see
   In the beatific vision of the Blessed Trinity.

6 God of God, the One-begotten, Light of Light, Emmanuel,
   In whose Body joined together all the saints for ever dwell,
   Pour upon us of Thy fulness, that we may for evermore
   God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost adore. Amen.
"They loved not their lives unto the death."—Rev. xii. 11.

1 Let our choir new anthems raise:
Wake the morn with gladness:
God Himself to joy and praise
Turns the martyr's sadness:
This the day that won their crown,
Opened heaven's bright portal,
As they laid the mortal down,
And put on the immortal.

2 Never flinched they from the flame,
From the torture, never;
Vain the foeman's sharpest aim,
Satan's best endeavour:
For by faith they saw the Land
Decked in all its glory,
Where triumphant now they stand
With the victor's story.

3 Faith they had that knew not shame,
Love that could not languish,
And eternal hope o'ercame
That one moment's anguish.
Up and follow, Christian men!
Press through toil and sorrow!
Spurn the night of fear, and then—
Oh, the glorious morrow? Amen.

   In midst of mortal pain,
   He prayed for them that did the wrong:—
   Who follows in his train?

F 3 A glorious band, the chosen few,
   On whom the Spirit came;
   Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
   And mocked the cross and flame.

P They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
   The lion's gory mane;
   They bowed their necks the death to feel:—
   Who follows in their train?

   The matron and the maid,
   Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,

"O taste and see that the Lord is good."—Ps. xxxiv. 8.

1 Draw nigh and take the Body of the Lord,
And drink the holy Blood for you outpoured.

2 Saved by that Body and that holy Blood,
With souls refreshed, we render thanks to God.

3 Salvation's Giver, Christ, the Only Son,
By His dear Cross and Blood the victory won.

4 Offered was He for greatest and for least,
Himself the Victim and Himself the Priest.

5 Victims were offered by the law of old,
Which in a type this heavenly mystery told.

6 He, Ransomer from death, and Light from shade,
Now gives His holy grace His saints to aid.

7 Approach ye then with faithful hearts sincere,
And taste the pledges of salvation here.

8 He, that His saints in this world rules and shields,
To all believers life eternal yields;

9 With heavenly Bread makes them that hunger whole,
Gives living Waters to the thirsting soul.

Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God." — Rom. xii. 1.

1 Great and glorious Father, humbly we adore Thee,
   Poor and weak and helpless sinners in Thine eyes;
   Yet, in meek obedience, low we fall before Thee,
   Trusting, pleading only Jesus' Sacrifice.

2 Bowed beneath Thy footstool, yet with boldness pleading
   This the only plea on which our hope relies,
   Unto Thee, O Father, all Thy mercy needing,
   Make we this Memorial of Christ's Sacrifice.

Part II.

1 O Holy Jesu, Prince of Peace!
Thy peace be with us gathering round Thy board,
Where the dread presence of an unseen Lord
Waits to be gracious, charged with full release
   To every heavy-laden soul
   Which here remembers Thee.

2 Once more, as in that upper room,
Thou who didst love Thine own unto the end,
Thou whose dear voice to every sorrowing friend
Spoke the great promise through the deepening gloom,
   Thou bidst us, Master of the Feast,
   To-day remember Thee.

3 And e'en as in our hands we take
This broken bread, this precious cup of love,
Thy dying testament, which from above
Thou deignest ever new and fresh to make,

   We do remember Thee.

4 Ours is the bond of love divine,
Which knits us each to all and all to each,
That love whose ever-lengthening cords can reach
From the white choir around Thy heavenly shrine
   To those who come in faith to-day
   Here to remember Thee.

5 Thy banquet over, as we go,
Strong in the strength of this celestial meat,
To tread the path of life with firmer feet,
To work the works which Thou hast bid us do,
   Abide with us, O Lord, that still
   We may remember Thee! Amen.

3 Preserve us, Lord, from death!

   A token was for good.

4 With many a bitter herb
   Of wishes dear subdued,
   'Tis meet that, dressed in pilgrim garb,
   We take Thee for our food.

5 Away those types are cast,
   And now Thyself we see;
   Yet let each sign that cheered the past
   Still lift our hearts to Thee. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION.

1. Thou standest at the altar,
   Thou offerest every prayer;
   In faith's unclouded vision
   We see Thee ever there.

2. Out of Thy Hand the incense
   Ascends before the Throne,
   Where Thou art interceding,
   Lord Jesu, for Thine own.

3. And through Thy Blood accepted
   With Thee we keep the feast;
   Thou art Thyself the Victim,
   Thou art Thyself the Priest.

4. We come, O only Saviour,
   On Thee, the Lamb, to feed;
   Thy Flesh is Bread from Heaven,
   Thy Blood is Drink indeed. Amen.

"Every man that hath this hope in Him, purifieth himself even as He is pure."—1 St. John iii. 3.

1 We pray Thee, heavenly Father,
   To hear us in Thy love,
And pour upon Thy children
   The unction from above;
That so in love abiding,
   From all defilement free,
We may in pureness offer
   Our Eucharist to Thee,

2 Be Thou our Guide and Helper,
   O Jesu Christ, we pray;
So may we well approach Thee,
   If Thou wilt be the Way.
Thou, very Truth, hast promised
   To help us in our strife,
Food of the weary pilgrim,
   Eternal Source of Life.

3 And Thou, Creator, Spirit,
   Look on us, we are Thine;
Renew in us Thy graces,
   Upon our darkness shine;
That with Thy benediction
   Upon our souls outpoured,
We may receive in gladness
   The Body of the Lord.

4 O Trinity of Persons!
   O Unity most high!
On Thee alone relying,
   Thy servants would draw nigh.
Unworthy in our weakness,
   On Thee our hope is stayed,
And blest by Thy forgiveness,
   We will not be afraid. Amen.

"Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men."—Rev. xxi. 3.

1 Jesu, Lord and Saviour! God of might and power! Thou Thyself art dwelling In Thy saints this hour.

2 Nature cannot hold Thee, Heaven is all too strait For Thine endless glory And Thy royal state.

3 Out beyond the shining Of the farthest star, Thou art ever stretching Infinitely far.

4 Yet the hearts of children Hold what worlds cannot, And the God of wonders Loves the lowly spot.

5 Jesu, Lord and Saviour! Be Thou in us now; Fill us with Thy goodness, Till our hearts o'erflow.

6 Multiply our graces, Chiefly love and fear, And, dear Lord! the chiefest, Grace to persevere. Amen.

220 "In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."—St. Matt. xxviii. 19.

1 Father of heaven, who hast created all, And rulest all, we pray, Look on this child, who at Thy gracious call Now enters on life's way! Oh, make it Thine, Thy blessing give, That to Thy glory it may live, Father of heaven!

2 O Son of God, atoning Lord, behold, We bring this child to Thee; Take it, O loving Shepherd, to Thy fold, For ever Thine to be: Defend it through this earthly strife, And lead it in the path of life, O Son of God!

3 O Holy Ghost, who brooded o'er the wave, Descend upon this child; Give it undying life, its spirit lave With waters undefiled; And make it evermore to be An heir of bliss, a shrine for Thee, O Holy Ghost!

4 O Triune God, lo, at Thy Word 'tis done; We speak, but Thine the might; This child hath scarce yet seen our earthly sun Yet pour on it Thy light Of faith, and hope, and joyful love, Thou Sun of all below, above, O Triune God! Amen.

"He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost."—St. Matt. iii. 11.

1 Glad sight! The Holy Church
   Spreads forth her wings of love,
To welcome to her breast a child
   Begotten from above;

2 Begotten unto hope
   By God the Spirit's grace—
A little helpless lamb brought in
   From out the wilderness.

3 E'en now around the font,
   Unseen by mortal eye,
Bright ministering Angels watch
   The wondrous mystery.

4 There to receive their charge
   In readiness they stand,
And long to guide its feeble steps
   To their own happy land.

5 And all the host of heaven
   Rejoice before the Lord,
To see a child of fallen man
   A child of God restored.

6 Praise Him who made; praise Him
   Who did redeem our race;
Praise Him who us doth sanctify
   With pure baptismal grace! Amen.

"As long as he liveth, he shall be lent to the Lord."—1 Sam. i. 28.

1 God of that glorious gift of grace,
   By which Thy people seek Thy face,
When in Thy presence we appear,
   Vouchsafe us faith to venture near!

2 Confiding in Thy truth alone,
   Here, on the steps of Jesus' throne
We lay the treasure Thou hast given
   To be received and reared for heaven.
HOLY BAPTISM.

3 Lent to us for a season, we
   Lend him for ever, Lord, to Thee;
   Assured that, if to Thee he live,
   We gain in what we seem to give.

4 Large and abundant blessings shed,
   Warm as these prayers, upon his head!

   And on his soul the dews of grace,
   Fresh as these drops upon his face!

5 Make him and keep him Thine own child,
   Meek follower of the undefiled;
   Possessor here of grace and love,
   Inheritor of heaven above! Amen.

(See also "Melita," No. 321.)

1 Lord Jesu Christ, our Lord most dear,
   As Thou wast once an Infant here,
   So give this child of Thine, we pray,
   Thy grace and blessing day by day.
   O Holy Jesu, Lord Divine,
   We pray Thee guard this child of Thine.

2 As in Thy heavenly Kingdom, Lord,
   All things obey Thy sacred word,
   Do Thou Thy mighty succour give,
   And shield this child by morn and eve.
   O Holy Jesu, Lord Divine,
   We pray Thee guard this child of Thine.

3 Their watch let Angels round it keep Where'er it be, awake, asleep;
   Thy holy Cross now let it bear,
   Cres. That it Thy Crown with Saints may wear.
   O Holy Jesu, Lord Divine,
   We pray Thee guard this child of Thine. Amen.
O'er the shoreless waste of waters
In the world's primaeval night,
Moved the quickening Spirit, waking
All things into life and light.

So, Lord, in Thy new creation
Light in Thine own Light we see,
By the water and the Spirit
Born again to life in Thee.

When from Thine avenging deluge
Thou Thy chosen ones wouldst save,
Lo! the Ark of Thine appointing
Rode in safety on the wave.

So, Lord, on the world's broad ocean,
Tossed with tempests fierce and dark,
Thine elect have found a refuge,
And Thy Church is now their Ark.

Through the Red Sea's cloven waters
Israel's children gained the shore,
Free to seek the land of promise,
Egypt's bond-slaves now no more.

So upon their journey starting,
Thou Thy children, Lord, dost free;
Into glorious liberty!

Buried with their buried Saviour,
Raised with Him to life again,
Oh, that, dead to sin, Thy children
May to Christ-like life attain!

Father, guide them by Thy Spirit,
Lead them on from strength to strength,
Till, all toils and conflicts ended,
They are safe with Thee at length. Amen.

"We walk by faith, not by sight."—2 Cor. v. 7.

1 No sign we ask from heaven above,
   Nor rushing wind, nor hovering dove;
   Our loving work content to do
   With things of earth alone in view:
   f But we believe, O Lord, that Thou
   f With power divine art with us now.

2 No mortal ear, O Lord, hath heard
   Thy quickening call, Thy cleansing word;
   No eye but Thine can clearly see
   What bindeth now this child to Thee;
   f But we believe, O Lord, that Thou
   f An heir of heaven art blessing now.

3 We cannot keep the mystic sign
   Upon his brow, to mark him Thine;
   We cannot reach the rooted sin
   Whose deadly growth may soon begin:
   f But we believe, O Lord, that Thou
   f Wilt be his Saviour then as now.

4 O Father, who dost all things give,
   O Saviour, by whose grace we live,
   O Holy Spirit, who dost deign
   In souls redeemed to live and reign,
   f O ever blessed Three in One,
   f All praise we give to Thee alone! Amen.

Firm at thy post remain;

1 Stand, soldier of the Cross,
   Thy high allegiance claim,
And vow to hold the world but loss
   For thy Redeemer's Name.

2 Arise, and be baptized,
   And wash thy sins away;
Thy league with God be solemnized,
   Thy faith avouched to-day.

3 Thine is our Country now,
   Our Lord and Master thine,
Receive imprinted on thy brow,
   His Passion's awful sign.

4 No more thine own, but Christ's;
   With all the saints of old,
   Apostles, seers, evangelists,
   And martyr throngs enrolled:

5 In God's whole armour strong,
   Front hell's embattled powers:
   The warfare may be sharp and long,
   The victory must be ours.

Look on these Thy scholars now;
Come, like Thee, to learn His will.

3 Word by word, and line by line,
Infant lips their faith confess;

Creed, and Law, and Prayer Divine—
Mystery of godliness!

4 Greater far than yet they know
Are the words they speak in turn;
Angels long to look into
Things which Christian children learn.

In Thy wisdom may we grow;
Learning daily more and more,
Till Thy perfect Truth we know. Amen.

Thy spotless Boyhood's quiet years,
Whose Feet the hills of Nazareth trod,
Who art true Man and perfect God.

2 To Thee we look, in Thee confide,
    Our help is in Thine own dear Name;
For who on Jesus e'er relied
And found not Jesus still the same?
Thus far Thy love our souls hath brought,
Oh, establish well what Thou hast wrought!

3 From Thee was our baptismal grace;
The holy seed by Thee was sown;
And now before our Father's face

We make the three great vows our own,
And ask, in Thine appointed way,
Confirm us in Thy grace to-day.

4 We need Thee more than tongue can speak,
    'Mid foes that well might cast us down;
But thousands, once as young and weak,
Have fought the fight, and won the crown.
We ask the help that bore them through;
We trust the Faithful and the True.

5 So bless us with the Gift complete
    By hands of Thy chief pastors given,
That awful Presence kind and sweet
Which comes in sevenfold might from heaven.

1 O Christ, the King of human life,

On these Thy servants, man and wife,
Thy blessing evermore.

2 On ties of home, in life, in death,
Thy seal divine was set:
Those thirty years at Nazareth
Thou, Lord, rememberest yet!

3 And by those holy years, we pray,
To these Thine own be nigh:
Their common life from day to day
Direct and sanctify.

4 At Cana's marriage first didst Thou
Thy glory manifest;
Oh, come to be among us now
A wonder-working Guest!

5 Poor weakly elements are ours,
But wealth and might are Thine:
Rule earthly life by heavenly powers,
The water change to wine!

6 And in Thy faith, and in Thy fear,

True and faithful to Thy word, Thou hast glorified Thy Son: Jesus Christ our dying Lord Has for us the victory won.

2 Lo! the prisoner is released; Lightened of his fleshly load, Where the weary are at rest And are gathered unto God.

Lo! the pain of life is past, And his warfare now is o'er, (Death and hell now is o'er, Grief and sufferings are no more.)

3 Happy are the faithful dead, Blessed who in Jesus die; They from all their toils are freed, In God's keeping safely lie:

These the Spirit hath declared Blest, unutterably blest, Jesus is their great reward, Jesus is their endless rest.

4 Absent from our loving Lord We shall not continue long; Join we then with one accord In the new, the joyful song;

Blessing, honour, thanks, and praise, Triune God, we pay to Thee, Who in Thine abundant grace Givest us the victory! Amen.

5 Many a heart no longer here, Ah, was all too inly dear! Yet, O Love, 'tis Thou dost call, Thou wilt be our All in all. Amen.

The Lord hath need of him.”—St. Mark xi. 3.

1 Christ will gather in His own To the place where He is gone, Where their heart and treasure lie, Where our life is hid on high.

2 Day by day the Voice saith, “Come, Enter thine eternal home”: Asking not if we can spare This dear soul it summons there.

3 Had He asked us, well we know We should cry, Oh, spare this blow! Yea, with streaming tears should pray Lord, we love him, let him stay.

4 But the Lord doth nought amiss, And since He hath ordered this, We have nought to do but still Rest in silence on His will.

5 Many a heart no longer here, Ah, was all too inly dear! Yet, O Love, 'tis Thou dost call, Thou wilt be our All in all. Amen.

245  "He is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto Him."—St. Luke xx. 38.

1 God of the living, in whose eyes
   Unveiled Thy whole creation lies;
   All souls are Thine; we must not say
   That those are dead who pass away;
   From this our world of flesh set free,
   cres. We know them living unto Thee.

2 Released from earthly toil and strife,
   With Thee is hidden still their life;
   Thine are their thoughts, their works, their powers,
   All Thine, and yet most truly ours;
   For well we know, where'er they be,
   cres. Our dead are living unto Thee.

3 Not spilt like water on the ground,
   Not wrapped in dreamless sleep profound,
   Not wandering in unknown despair
   Beyond Thy voice, Thine arm, Thy care;
   Not left to lie like fallen tree;
   cres. Not dead, but living unto Thee.

4 Thy word is true, Thy will is just;
   To Thee we leave them, Lord, in trust;
   And bless Thee for the love which gave
   Thy Son to fill a human grave,
   That none might fear that world to see,
   cres. Where all are living unto Thee.

5 O Breather into man of breath,
   O Holder of the keys of death,
   O Giver of the life within,
   Save us from death, the death of sin;
   cres. That body, soul, and spirit be
   For ever living unto Thee! Amen.
246 "He that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."—St. John xi. 25.

1 Lord, when beside the grave we mourn,
   And sorrows round us gather,
   The living God, our Father!

2 Thy children blest, in Christ that die,
   What power from Thee can sever?
   All peaceful in Thine arms they lie;
   To Thee they live for ever.

3 Thy saving might, Eternal Son,
   The grave's dark fears hath banished;
   Through Thy dear Cross, Thy victory won,
   The sting from death hath vanished.

4 O Jesu, by those tears of Thine
   For human sorrow flowing,
   Uphold us with Thine arm divine,
   Thy comfort still bestowing.

5 Lift up, O Lord, each mourner's heart,
   Our feeble faith sustaining;
   For Thou our risen Saviour art,
   In heaven for ever reigning.

6 For all who fall asleep in Thee
   Our thankful praise we render;
   In death, O Lord, our refuge be,
   Our Life, and our Defender! Amen.

"The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them."—Wisd. iii. 1.

1 P Now the labourer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

2 There the tears of earth are dried;
There its hidden things are clear;
There the work of life is tried
By a juster Judge than here.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

3 There the Angels bear on high
Many a strayed and wounded lamb,
Peacefully at last to lie
In the breast of Abraham.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

4 There the sinful souls that turn
To the Cross their dying eyes,
All the love of Christ shall learn
At His feet in Paradise.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

5 There no more the powers of hell
Can prevail to mar their peace;
Christ the Lord shall guard them well,
He who died for their release.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

6 "Earth to earth, and dust to dust;"
Calmly now the words we say;
Left behind, we wait in trust,
cres. For the Resurrection day.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping. Amen.

"I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me."—2 Sam. xii. 23.

1 Let no tears to-day be shed,
    Holy is this narrow bed.
    Alleluia! But the pity of the Lord
    Gives His child a full reward;   Alleluia!

2 Death eternal life bestows,
    Open heaven's portal throws.
    Alleluia! Grants the prize without the course,
    Crowns, without the battle's force.   Alleluia!

3 And no peril waits at last
    Him who now away hath past.
    Alleluia! God, who loveth innocence,
    Hastes to take His darling hence.   Alleluia!

4 Not salvation hardly won,
    Not the meed for race well run:
    Alleluia! Christ, when this sad life is done,
    Join us to Thy little one;     Alleluia!

9 And in Thine own tender love,
    Bring us to the ranks above.   Alleluia! Amen.

"He hath blessed thy children within thee."—Ps. cxlvii. 13.

1 Tender Shepherd, Thou hast stilled
    Now Thy little lamb's brief weeping:
        Thou dost now with joy receive it;
    Ah, how peaceful, pale, and mild,
    In its narrow bed 'tis sleeping!
    And no sigh of anguish sore
        Clothed in robes of spotless white,
    Heaves that little bosom more.

2 In this world of care and pain,
    Lord, Thou wouldst no longer leave it;
        Now it dwells with Thee in light.
    To the sunny heavenly plain
    Where it lives may soon be living,
    That its heavenly food are giving;
        And the lovely pastures see
    Then the gain of death we prove,
    Though Thou take what most we love.   Amen.

A FEW more years shall roll (328).
Brief life is here our portion (341).
Day of wrath! Oh, Day of mourning (355).
God hath two families of love (371).
Jesus lives! thy terrors now (405).

1 Guide Thou, O God, the guardian hands
Which rule Thy ransomed sheep,
And may they faithful shepherds choose,
Their Master's flock to keep.

2 We pray Thee, Jesu, who didst first
The chosen Twelve ordain,
In order due and holy life
The Church they ruled sustain.

3 We pray Thee, Jesu, with Thy gifts
Our pastors still to bless,
With doctrine uncorrupt and pure,
With zeal and righteousness.

4 We pray, Thee, Jesu, that their lips
May still be clothed with power,
Their hearts with love and strength upheld,
Sufficient for the hour.

5 O Holy Ghost, Anointer, come;
Both priest and people fill;
Till all the nations of the earth

One living undivided Church
Through endless years shall raise. Amen.

   That as they seek Thy flock to guide,

   Grant them, enduring to the end,
   The crown of life at last to win. Amen.

"Thy blessing is upon Thy people."—Ps. iii. 8.

1 O Thou who makest souls to shine
   With light from brighter worlds above,
   And droppest glistening dew divine
   On all who seek a Saviour's love.

2 Do Thou Thy benediction give
   On all who teach, on all who learn,
   That all Thy Church may holier live,
   And every lamp more brightly burn.

3 Give those that teach pure hearts and wise,
   Faith, hope, and love, all warmed by prayer;
   Themselves first training for the skies,
   They best will raise their people there.

4 Give those that learn the willing ear,
   The spirit meek, the guileless mind;
   Such gifts will make the lowliest here
   Far better than a kingdom find.

5 Oh! bless the shepherd; bless the sheep;
   That guide and guided both be one;
   One in the faithful watch they keep
   Until this hurrying life be done.

   These heirs of immortality;
   And let them in Thine image rise;
   And then transplant to Paradise.

2 Unspotted from the world and pure,

1 Lord of life, prophetic Spirit,
   In sweet measure evermore
   To the holy children dealing
   Each his gift from Thy rich store,
   Bless Thy family, adoring
   As in Israel's schools of yore.

2 God and Father of all spirits,
   Whose dread call young Joshua knew,
   Forty days in darkness waiting
   With Thy servant good and true,
   Thence to wage Thy war descending;
   Own us, Lord, Thy champions too.

3 One Thy light, the temple filling,
   Holy, Holy, Holy Three!
   Meanest men and brightest Angels
   Wait alike the word from Thee;
   Highest musings, lowliest worship,
   Must their preparation be.

4 Here we stand; Redeemer, send us!
   But because Thy work is fire,
   And our lips, unclean and earthly,
   Breathe no breath of high desire;
   Send Thy Seraph from Thine altar
   Veiled, but in his bright attire.

5 Cause him, Lord, to fly full swiftly
   With the mystic coal in hand,
   Sin-consuming, soul-transforming,
   (Faith and love will understand,)
   Touch our lips, Thou awful Mercy,
   With Thine own keen, healing brand!

6 Thou didst come that fire to kindle;
   Fain would we Thy torches prove,
   Far and wide Thy beacons lighting
   With the undying spark of love;
   Only feed our flame, we pray Thee,
   With Thy breathings from above. Amen.

P 1 God of our life, to Thee we call;
    Afflicted at Thy feet we fall;
    When the great water-floods prevail,
    Leave not our trembling hearts to fail.

2 Amidst the roaring of the sea

3 Friend of the friendless and the faint,
    Where should we lodge our deep complaint?
    Where, but with Thee, whose open door

4 Did ever mourner plead with Thee,
    And Thou refuse the mourner's plea?
    Doth not the word still fixed remain
    That none shall seek Thy face in vain?

5 Then hear, O Lord, our humble cry,
    And bend on us Thy pitying eye:
    To Thee their prayer Thy people make;

In sorrow to Thy Throne;
Yet not bewildered, blind and dumb,
Before some power unknown.

2 The scourge is in our Father's hand;
The plague comes forth from Thee;
Oh, give us hearts to understand,
And faith Thy ways to see!

3 Forgive the foul neglect that brought
Thy chastening to our door;
The homes uncared-for, souls untaught,
The unregarded poor;

4 The slothful ease, the greed of gain,
The wasted years, forgive;
Purge out our sins by needful pain,
Then turn, and bid us live.

5 So shall the lives for which we plead
Be spared to praise Thee still;
And we, from fear and danger freed,
Be strong to do Thy will. Amen.

5 God the all-pitiful! Is it not crying—
Blood of the guiltless like water outpoured?

2 Remember, Lord, Thy works of old,

1 O Lord of Hosts, the earth is Thine;
   The nations bow beneath Thy sway;
   Thy wisdom, love, and power divine
   All things in heaven and earth obey.

2 The dearth, the pestilence, the sword,
   These Thy most righteous judgments are;
   Yet mark not our deserving, Lord,
   But lift from us the scourge of war.

3 The loftiness of man bow down;
   The haughtiness of man make low:
   Let all the world Thy greatness own;
   And Peace return to dwell below.

4 O'er passions fierce and hatred sore
   Shed down Thy healing Love again;
   Bid angel choirs sing out once more
   "Peace upon earth, good will to men."

5 O Father, teach us brother's love;
   O Saviour, make us one in Thee;

Amen.
265 "While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest ... shall not cease."—Gen. viii. 22.

1 God, Creator, and Preserver!
2 If in former times of gladness,
3 Shall we not in trustful patience
   God, who feedeth man and beast;
   In the fulness of our bread,
   Cast our care upon Thee now?
   God, whose tender mercy careth
   Harvest gifts to Thee we offered,
   Shall we not in meek obedience
   For the weakest and the least;
   Harvest songs to Thee we said;
   To Thy righteous judgments bow?

4 Though the earth withhold her increase,
   Though the heaven restrain its dew,
   Yet we know that Thou art true.
   Though his hand the reaper fill not,
   Not in vain the mighty promise,
   From beneath the Bow of Peace,
   Told us, while the earth remaineth,
   Seed-time, harvest, shall not cease.

5 But our sins have stayed Thy blessing,
   Our rebellions drawn Thy sword;
   Pity now Thy mourning people;
   From beneath the Bow of Peace,
   Told us, while the earth remaineth,
   Seed-time, harvest, shall not cease.
   Think upon Thy Covenant, Lord.

6 So the sunshine of Thy bounty
   Once again shall dry our tears;
   And Thy gracious hand restore us
   From beneath the Bow of Peace,
   Told us, while the earth remaineth,
   Seed-time, harvest, shall not cease.

1 Thou that sendest sun and rain,
Ruling over land and sea,
May we pe'er of Thee complain,
Ne'er, whate'er our lot may be.

2 Whether sun or rain in turn

May we still this lesson learn—
Ne'er to murmur or complain.

3 Fewer flocks or fewer herds,
Scanty though our store may be,
Still we seem to hear the words,
"Trust, ye faithful, trust in Me."

4 All we have we know is Thine,
Thine to give and take away;
Feed us then with food Divine,
Feed us this and every day.

5 Thus, as changeful seasons bring Wealth or want, whiche'er it be,
Uncomplaining still we'll sing,
Simply trusting all to Thee. Amen.

267 "Although ... the fields shall yield no meat ... yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation."—Hab. iii. 17, 18.

1 What our Father does is well:
Bless'd truth His children tell!
Though He send for plenty, want,
Though the harvest-store be scant,
Yet we rest upon His love,
Seeking better things above.

2 What our Father does is well:
Shall the wilful heart rebel?
If a blessing He withhold
In the field, or in the fold,
Is it not Himself to be
All our Store eternally?

3 What our Father does is well:
Though He sadden hill and dell,
Upward yet our praises rise
For the strength His Word supplies;
He has called us sons of God,
Can we murmur at His rod?

4 What our Father does is well:
May the thought within us dwell;
Though nor milk nor honey flow
In our barren Canaan now,
God can save us in our need,
God can bless us, God can feed.

5 Therefore unto Him we raise
Hymns of glory, songs of praise;
To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Honour, might, and glory be,
Now, and through eternity. Amen.

2 Lo, the world, from Thee rebelling,
   Round Thy Church in pride is swelling:
With Thy Word their madness quelling,
   Lord and Saviour, help us!

3 On Thine own command relying,
   We our onward task are plying;
   Unto Thee for safety sighing,
   Lord and Saviour, help us!

4 By Thy Birth, Thy Cross, Thy Passion,
   By Thy tears of deep compassion,
   By Thy mighty intercession,
   Lord and Saviour, help us! Amen.

TIMES OF TROUBLE.
(For the Church.)

269 "Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Thy name."—Ps. lxxix. 9.

1 Lord of our life, and God of our salvation,
   Star of our night, and Hope of every nation,
Hear and receive Thy Church's supplication,
   Lord God Almighty.

2 Lord, Thou canst help when earthly armour faileth,
   Lord, Thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth, cres. Lord, o'er Thy Rock nor death nor hell prevaileth, dim. Grant us Thy peace, Lord.

POTSDAM. L.M. JOHANN SCHOP, [1640?].

3 Peace in our hearts, our evil thoughts assuaging,
   Peace in Thy Church, where brothers are engaging,
   Peace when the world its busy war is waging,
   Calm Thy foes raging.

4 Grant us Thy help till foes are backward driven,
   Grant them Thy truth, that they may be forgiven,
   Grant peace on earth, and, after we have striven,

(For the Church.)

270 "Return, we beseech Thee, O God of Hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine."—Ps. lxxx. 14.

1 O Thou, whom heavenly hosts obey,
   How long shall Thy fierce anger burn?
   How long Thy suffering people pray,
   And to their prayers have no return?

2 Thou brought'st a vine from Egypt's land,
   And, casting out the heathen race,
   Didst plant it with Thine own right hand,
   And firmly fix it in their place.

3 To Thee, O God of Hosts, we pray;
   Thy wonted goodness, Lord, renew;
   From heaven, Thy throne, this vine survey,
   And her sad state with pity view.

4 Behold the vineyard made by Thee,
   Which Thy right hand did guard so long;
   And keep that branch from danger free,
   Which for Thyself Thou mad'st so strong.

5 Do Thou convert us, Lord; do Thou
   The lustre of Thy face display;
   cres. And all the ills we suffer now;
   mf Like scattered clouds, shall pass away. Amen.

271 "They cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distresses."—Ps. cvii. 6.

1 God the Lord has heard our prayer;
   God has lightened all our care;
   To His glorious throne on high
   Rose His children's mournful cry.
   Alleluia! praises sing
   To our Father and our King!

2 Helpless, Lord, Thy face we sought,
   Thou hast our deliverance wrought;
   God, who gave us faith to pray,
   Give us thankful hearts to-day.
   Alleluia! Lord, to Thee
   Sing we, though unworthily.

3 Now the night of grief is gone,
   Cres. Now with joy breaks forth the morn;
   Trust in God, if ye would prove
   All the riches of His love.
   Alleluia! praise the Lord!
   Trust His love and plead His word!

4 Praise to God, who heard our cry;
   Praise to Christ, who pleads on high;
   Praise the Spirit blest, who gave Strength our Father's help to crave!
   Alleluia, glory be
   To the eternal Trinity! Amen.

F 1 Great God of Hosts, our ears have heard, Our fathers oft have told, What wonders Thou hast done for them, Thy glorious deeds of old.

3 Great God of Hosts, their God, and ours! The only King of kings!

That same right arm which fought for them To us the victory brings.

"So the Lord was entreated for the land." — 2 Sam. xxiv. 25.

1 O God, whose Angel stayed his hand
Where David knelt by Ornan's floor,
That through Thine Israel's mourning land
The voice of health might sound once more;

2 We thank Thee for Thy pitying care,
Who in Thy chastenings still art Love;
With whom the Son of David's prayer
Prevails, upon the Mount above.

3 Thy wisdom did not spare the rod,
Sore smiting, as to Thee seemed best;
But oh! our Father and our God,
Thou lovest whom Thou chastenest!

4 And One there stood, when none could save,
Between the living and the dead,
The incense of His prayer to wave,
And plead the Blood Himself had shed.

5 The living praise Thee, Lord, to-day:
Our dear ones on the eternal shore
We leave to Thee; and only pray
That we may fear and love Thee more.

"He will gather His wheat into the garner."—St. Matt. iii. 12.

1 Come, ye thankful people, come, (m)
Raise the song of Harvest-Home!
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin:
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied:
Come to God's own temple, come,
Raise the song of Harvest-Home!

2 All the world is God's own field,
Fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
Lord of harvest, grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come, (p)
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
Give His Angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast;
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

4 Even so, Lord, quickly come,
To Thy final Harvest-Home!
Gather Thou Thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There, for ever purified,
In Thy presence to abide:
Come, with all Thine Angels, come,
Raise the glorious Harvest-Home! Amen.
"Neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase."—1 Cor. iii. 7.

1 Holy is the seed-time, when the buried grain cres. Sinks to sleep in darkness, but to wake again.
   Holy is the spring-time, when the living corn cres. Bursting from its prison riseth like the morn.

2 Holy is the harvest, when each ripened ear,
   Bending to the sickle, crowns the golden year.
   Store them in our garners; winnow them with care;
   f Give to God the glory in our praise and prayer.

3 Holy seed our Master soweth in His field;
   Be the harvest holy which our hearts shall yield;
   p Be our bodies holy, resting in the clay,
   cres. Till the Resurrection summons them away.

4 Glory to the Father, who beheld our need;
   Glory to the Saviour, who hath sown the seed;
   Glory to the Spirit, giving the increase;
   Glory, as it has been, is, and ne’er shall cease!

Amen.

278  "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit."—St. John xii. 24.

1 Lord of the frost-bound Winter,
   Lord of the happy Spring,
   Who sendest golden Summer,
   And Autumn's ripening;
2 Lord of the waving harvest
   That smiles on hill and plain,
   Bringing the living wheat-plant
   From out the dead dry grain;
3 A holier Seed Thou sowedst—
   That Seed Thy blessed Son,
   In the dark earth alone.
4 But not alone uprose He;
   He was the first good fruit;
   A thousand times ten thousand
   Live in that living Root.

F 5 A thousand times ten thousand,
   Here in Thy harvest-field,
   Good in His glorious goodness,
   In Him their fulness yield.
F 6 And they again upspringing,
   E'en from the cold dark tomb,
   Shall wear His golden beauty,
   At Thy great Harvest-Home.
7 Oh! keep us, Lord, for ever;
   Thy living Spirit give;
   With Christ from sin to perish,
   In Christ for aye to live.
F 8 All praise to God the Father,
   All praise to God the Son,
   All praise to God the Spirit,
   Eternal Three in One! Amen.

St. Philip. 8.8.8.8; 8.8.

279  "The Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee."—Ps. cxvi. 7.

F 1 Lord of the Harvest! Thee we hail;
   Thine ancient promise doth not fail;
   The varying seasons haste their round;
   With goodness all our years are crowned;
   Our thanks we pay,
   This holy day;
   Oh, let our hearts in tune be found!
2 When Spring doth wake the song of mirth,
   When Summer warms the fruitful earth,
   When Winter sweeps the naked plain,
   Or Autumn yields its ripened grain,—
   Still do we sing
   To Thee, our King;
   Through all their changes Thou dost reign.
3 But chiefly when Thy liberal hand
   Scatters new plenty o'er the land,
   When sounds of music fill the air,
   As homeward all their treasures bear;
   We too will raise
   Our hymn of praise,
   For we Thy common bounties share.
4 Lord of the Harvest! all is Thine;
   The rains that fall, the suns that shine,
   The seed once hidden in the ground,
   The skill that makes our fruits abound;
   New, every year,
   Thy gifts appear;
   New praises from our lips shall sound. Amen.
280 "Because the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice."—Deut. xvi. 15.

1 Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let Thy praise our tongues employ:
All to Thee, our God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow.

2 All the blessings of the fields,
All the stores the garden yields,
Flocks that whiten all the plain,
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain:
Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

3 Clouds that drop refreshing dews,
Suns that genial warmth diffuse,
All the plenty Summer pours,
Autumn's rich o'erflowing stores:
Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

4 As Thy prospering hand hath blest,
May we give Thee of our best;
And by deeds of kindly love
For Thy mercies grateful prove;
Singing thus through all our days,
Praise to God, immortal praise. Amen.

GOLDEN SHEAVES.  8.7.8.7. D.  ARTHUR SULLIVAN.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all His people.”—Ps. cxvi. 14.

1 To Thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise,
   In hymns of adoration;
To Thee bring sacrifice of praise,
   With shouts of exultation.
Bright robes of gold the fields adorn,
   The hills with joy are ringing;
The valleys stand so thick with corn,
   That even they are singing.

2 And now, on this our festal day,
   Thy bounteous hand confessing,
Upon Thine Altar, Lord, we lay
   The first-fruits of Thy blessing:
By Thee the souls of men are fed
   With gifts of grace supernal;
Thou who dost give us daily bread,
   Give us the Bread Eternal.

3 We bear the burden of the day,
   And often toil seems dreary,
   But labour ends with sunset ray,
   And rest is for the weary;
May we, the Angel-reaping o'er,
   Stand at the last accepted,
   Christ’s golden sheaves for evermore
   To garners bright elected!

4 Oh! blessed is that land of God,
   Where saints abide for ever;
   Where golden fields spread fair and broad,
   Where flows the crystal river.
The strains of all its holy throng
   With ours to-day are blending;
   Thrice blessed is that harvest song
   Which never hath an ending! Amen.
282 "The eyes of all wait upon Thee, and Thou givest them their meat in due season."—Ps. cxlv. 15.

1 We plough the fields, and scatter
   The good seed on the land,
   But it is fed and watered
   By God's almighty hand;
   He sends the snow in winter,
   The warmth to swell the grain,
   The breezes, and the sunshine,
   And soft refreshing rain.
   All good gifts around us
   Are sent from heaven above,
   Then thank the Lord, oh! thank the Lord,
   For all His love.

2 He only is the Maker
   Of all things near and far;
   He paints the wayside flower,
   He lights the evening star;
   The winds and waves obey Him,
   By Him the birds are fed;
   Much more to us, His children,
   He gives our daily bread.
   All good gifts around us
   Are sent from heaven above,
   Then thank the Lord, oh! thank the Lord,
   For all His love.
HARVEST.

3 We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food.
Accept the gifts we offer
For all Thy love imparts,
And, what Thou most desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.

Also the following:—Let us with a gladsome mind (414).

OFFERTORY.

ST. STEPHEN.

1 Fountain of good, to own Thy love
Our thankful hearts incline;
What can we render, Lord, to Thee,
When all the worlds are Thine?

2 But Thou hast needy brethren here,
Partakers of Thy grace,
Whose humble names Thou wilt confess
Before Thy Father's face.

3 In their sad accents of distress
Thy pleading voice is heard;
In them Thou mayst be clothed and fed,
And visited and cheered.

4 Then help us, Lord, Thy yoke to wear,
Delight to do Thy will,
Each other's burdens gladly bear,
And love's sweet law fulfil.

5 To Thee our all devoted be,
In whom we move and live;
Freely we have received of Thee—
As freely may we give.

6 Teach us, O Lord, with reverent love
Thee in Thy poor to see,
And while we minister to them,
To do it as to Thee.

7 Only do Thou our alms accept,
And with Thy blessing speed;
Bless us in giving,—greatly bless
Our gifts to them that need.

8 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

HOLY OFFERINGS.

Andante legato.

P.M.

RICHARD REDHEAD.

Part I.

1 Holy offer'ings, rich and rare,
   Offerings of praise and prayer,
   Purer life and purpose high,
   Clasped hands, uplifted eye,
   Lowly acts of adoration
   To the God of our salvation—
   On His altar laid we leave them:
   f Christ, present them! p God, receive them!

Part II.

P 2 Promises in sorrow made,
   Left, alas! too long unpaid;
   Fervent wishes, earnest thought,
   Never into action wrought—
   Long withheld, we now restore them,
   On Thy holy altar pour them:
   f Christ, present them! p God, receive them!

P 3 Vows and longings, hopes and fears,
   Broken-hearted sighs and tears,
   Dreams of what we yet might be
   Could we cling more close to Thee,
   Which, despite of faults and failings,
   Help Thy grace in its prevailings—
   On Thine altar laid we leave them:
   f Christ, present them! p God, receive them!

Part III.

P 4 Pleasant food and garb of pride,
   Put for conscience' sake aside;
   Lawful luxury foregone
   To relieve some little one
   Loved of Christ, by Him befriended,
   And for His dear love attended—
   On Thine altar laid we leave them:
   f Christ, present them! p God, receive them!

P 5 Sinful thoughts and wilful ways,
   Love of self and human praise,
   Pride of life and lust of eye,
   Worldly pomp and vanity—
   Faults that let and will not leave us,
   Though their staying sorely grieve us,
   Help, oh, help us to outlive them;
   p Christ, atone for! pp God, forgive them!

284  "The Lord remember all thy offer'ings."—Ps. xx. 3.
OFFERTORY.

P 6 Loveless life and joyless mood,
Chill of cold ingratitude,
When the world doth Christ betray,
Following too far away,
Sins which in the daily trial
Lead too often to denial,
Help, oh, help us to outlive them:
Christ, atone for! $p p$ God, forgive them!

PART IV.

7 Brighter joys and tenderer tears,
Fonder faith, more faithful fears,
Lowlier penitence for sin,
More of Christ our souls within;
Love which, when its life was newer,
Burnt within us deeper, truer—
Lost too long, while we deplore them,
Jesus, plead for! God, restore them!

8 Beamings of the gentle Face,
Overflowing gifts of grace,
More of that deep consciousness
Of a changeless will to bless,
Which bestows the best assurance
Of Eternal Love's endurance—
Lost too often, we deplore them;
Jesus, plead for! God, restore them!

PART V.

9 Homage of each humble heart
Ere we from Thy house depart;
$cres.$ Worship fervent, deep and high,
$f$ Adoration, ecstacy;
All that childlike love can render
Of devotion true and tender—
On Thine altar laid we leave them:
$f$ Christ, present them! $p$ God, receive them!

F 10 To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Though our mortal weakness raise
Off'mings of imperfect praise,
$dim.$ Yet with hearts bowed down most lowly,
$cres.$ Crying, Holy! Holy! Holy!
On Thine altar laid we leave them;
$f$ Christ, present them! $p$ God, receive them!

Amen.

1 O Lord of heaven and earth and sea,$dim.$ Thou didst not spare Thine only Son,
To Thee all praise and glory be;
$p$ But gav'st Him for a world undone,
How shall we show our love to Thee,$cres.$ And freely with that Blessed One
Thou givest all.

2 The golden sunshine, vernal air,
Sweet flowers and fruits, Thy love declare:
Where harvests ripen, Thou art there,
$f$ Giver of all!

3 For peaceful homes and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe Thee thankfulness and praise,
$f$ Giver of all!

4 Thou didst not spare Thine only Son,
To Thee all praise and glory be;
$p$ But gav'st Him for a world undone,
How shall we show our love to Thee,$cres.$ And freely with that Blessed One
Thou givest all.

5 Thou giv'st the Holy Spirit's dower,
Spirit of life, and love, and power,
And dost his sevenfold graces shower,
Upon us all.

6 For souls redeemed, for sins forgiven,$p$ To Thee, from whom we all derive
For means of grace, and hopes of heaven,
Father, what can to Thee be given,
Who givest all?

R 2

7 We lose what on ourselves we spend:
We have as treasure without end
Whatever, Lord, to Thee we lend,
Who givest all!

8 Whatever, Lord, we lend to Thee,
Repaid a thousandfold will be;
Then gladly will we give to Thee,
$f$ Giver of all!

In the original scoring, various musical notations and symbols are used to indicate the dynamic and expression of the music. These include: $p$ for piano, $f$ for forte, $cres.$ for crescendo, and $dim.$ for diminuendo. The music is scored for a choir, with the text of the Offertory and Almsgiving hymns interspersed with musical phrases designed to reflect the text's sentiments. The hymns are written in a traditional hymn form, with verses detailing the praises and offerings to God. The final line of Amen signals the conclusion of the musical piece. The musical score is depicted with musical notation, including clefs, notes, and other musical symbols that convey the musical composition. The hymns are in English, and the musical notation is typical of the late 19th or early 20th century, with a focus on clear and expressive singing. The hymns are intended for religious use, often during church services, and are designed to encourage worship and praise to God.

286 "What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me?"—Ps. cxvi. 12.

P 1 Thy life was given for me! Thy Blood, O Lord, was shed That I might ransomed be, And quickened from the dead. Thy life was given for me:— What have I given for Thee?

2 Long years were spent for me In weariness and woe, That through eternity Thy glory I might know. Long years were spent for me:— Have I spent one for Thee?

3 Thy Father's Home of light, Thy rainbow-circled Throne, Were left for earthy night, For wanderings sad and lone. Yea, all was left for me:— Have I left aught for Thee?

4 Thou, Lord, hast borne for me More than my tongue can tell Of bitterest agony, To rescue me from hell. Thou suff'rest all for me:— What have I borne for Thee?

m 5 And Thou hast brought to me Down from Thy Home above Salvation full and free, Thy pardon and Thy love. Great gifts Thou broughtest me:— What have I brought to Thee?

289 "All nations whom Thou hast made shall come and worship before Thee, O Lord; and shall glorify Thy Name."—Ps. lxxxvi. 9.

1 Arise, O Lord, and shine
In all Thy saving might,
And prosper each design
To spread Thy glorious light;
Let healing streams of mercy flow,
That all the earth Thy truth may know.

2 Bring distant nations near,
To sing Thy glorious praise;
Let every people hear,
And learn Thy holy ways.

Reign, mighty God! assert Thy cause!
And govern by Thy righteous laws!

Put forth Thy glorious power
That Gentiles all may see,
And earth present her store
In converts born to Thee:

God, our own God, His Church shall bless;
And earth be filled with righteousness!

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, ever blest,
Eternal Three in One,
All worship be addressed!

Join all on earth, rejoice and sing;
All glory give to God our King! Amen.

"Come over . . . and help us."—Acts xvi. 9.

1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
   From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
   Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
   From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
   Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
   Blow soft o'er Java's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
   And only man is vile;
In vain with lavish kindness
   The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
   Bows down to wood and stone;

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
   With wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
   The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! oh, salvation!
   The joyful sound proclaim.
Till each remotest nation
   Has learned Messiah's Name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
   And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
   It spreads from pole to pole;

   Till o'er our ransomed nature
   The Lamb for sinners slain,
   Redeemer, King, Creator,
   In bliss returns to reign. Amen.

291 "And the armies which were in heaven followed Him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean."—Rev. xix. 14.

1 Lift up your heads, ye gates of brass!
   Ye bars of iron, yield!
And let the King of glory pass;
   The Cross is in the field!

2 That banner, brighter than the star
   That leads the train of night,
Shines on the march, and guides from far
   His servants to the fight.

3 A holy war those servants wage;
   In that mysterious strife
The powers of heaven and hell engage
   For more than death or life.

4 Then fear not, faint not, halt not now,
   In Jesu's name be strong!
To Him shall every creature bow,
   And sing the triumph-song:

5 Uplifted are the gates of brass,
   The bars of iron yield;
Behold the King of glory pass!
   The Cross hath won the field! Amen.

292 "Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest."—St. John iv. 35.

F 1 Lord, her watch Thy Church is keeping:
   When shall earth Thy rule obey?
   When shall end the night of weeping?
   When shall break the promised day?
   See the whitening harvest languish,
   Waiting still the labourers' toil;
   Was it vain—Thy Son's deep anguish?
   Shall the strong retain the spoil?

2 Tidings, sent to every creature,
   Millions yet have never heard:
   Can they hear without a preacher?
   Lord Almighty, give the word!

   Give the word!—in every nation
   Let the gospel trumpet sound,
   Witnessing a world's salvation,
   To the earth's remotest bound.

   Then the end! Thy Church completed,
   All Thy chosen gathered in,
   With their King in glory seated,
   Satan bound, and banished sin;
   Gone for ever parting, weeping,
   Hunger, sorrow, death, and pain:
   Lo! her watch Thy Church is keeping;
   Come, Lord Jesus, come to reign! Amen.

Of Thy Cross the wondrous story,

Human tears for Thee are flowing,

2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
   The nights and days Thy power confess;
   But the best volume Thou didst write
   Reveals Thy justice and Thy grace.

3 Sun, moon, and stars convey Thy praise
   Round the whole earth, and never stand;

   In hours of sickness, grief, and pain,
   No sufferer turns to Thee in vain.

2 The halt, the maimed, the sick, the blind,
   Sought not in vain Thy tendance kind;

   And hour of woe be heavenly gain,
   Each stroke of Thy chastising rod
   Bring back the wanderer nearer God.

   Oh! heal the bruised heart within:
   Oh! save our souls all sick with sin:
   Give life and health in bounteous store,
   That we may praise Thee evermore. Amen.

   Was strong to heal and save;

   O'er darkness and the grave.
   To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
   The palsied and the lame,
   The leper with his tainted life,
   The sick with fevered frame.

2 And lo! Thy touch brought life and health,
   Gave speech and strength and sight;
   And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
   Owned Thee, the Lord of Light.
   And now, O Lord, be near to bless,

299 "And Jesus, when He came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them."—St. Mark vi. 34.

1 "Come to a desert place apart
   And rest a little while;"—
   So spake the Lord, when limbs and heart
   Were faint and sick through toil.

2 High communings with God He sought;
   But where He sought them found
   The restless crowd together brought,
   And labour's weary round.

3 Then not a thought to self was given,
   Nor breathed He word of blame;
   He fed their souls with bread from heaven,
   And stayed their sinking frame.

4 Nor turned He, when His task was done,
   To sleep fatigue away;
   When on the desert sank the sun,
   The Saviour watched to pray.

5 O perfect Pattern from above!
   So strengthen us that ne'er
   Prayer keep us back from works of love,
   Nor works of love from prayer!  Amen.
300  "If any man serve Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there shall also My servant be."—St. John xii. 26.

1 How blessèd from the bonds of sin
   And earthly fetters free,
In singleness of heart and aim,
   Thy servants, Lord, to be!
The hardest toil to undertake
   With joy at Thy command,
The meanest office to receive
   With meekness at Thy hand:

2 With willing heart and longing eyes
   To watch before Thy gate,
Ready to run the weary race,
   To bear the heavy weight:
No voice of thunder to expect,
   But follow calm and still,
For love can easily divine
   The One Belovèd's will.

3 Thus may we serve Thee, Gracious Lord!
   Thus ever Thine alone,
Our souls and bodies given to Thee,
   The purchase Thou hast won.
Through evil or through good report
   Still keeping by Thy side,
By life or death, in this poor flesh
   Let Christ be magnified!

4 How happily the working days
   In this dear service fly!
How rapidly the closing hour,
   The time of rest, draws nigh!
When all the faithful gather home,
   A joyful company!
And ever where the Master is
   Shall His blest servants be! Amen.
301  "He that reapeth gathereth fruit unto life eternal."—St. John iv. 36.

1 LORD of the living harvest
    That whitens o'er the plain,
Where Angels soon shall gather
    Their sheaves of golden grain;
Accept these hands to labour,
    These hearts to trust and love,
And deign with them to hasten
    Thy kingdom from above,

2 As labourers in Thy vineyard
    Still faithful may we be,
Content to bear the burden
    Of weary days for Thee;
We ask no other wages,
    When Thou shalt call us home,
But to have shared the travail
    Which makes Thy kingdom come.

3 Come down, Thou Holy Spirit,
    And fill our souls with light,
Clothe us in spotless raiment,
    In vesture clean and white;
Within Thy sacred temple
    Be with us, where we stand,
And sanctify Thy people

1 UPON the holy Mount they stood
   That wondrous awful night:
   They saw, and knew that it was good
   To see that vision bright.

F 2 No Man of sorrows stands there now;
   But, keen as lightning-flame,
   The streams of heavenly radiance flow
   From that transfigured Frame.

P 3 Beneath that Mount another scene
   They saw, when morning smiled:
   A father, torn with anguish keen,
   Sought mercy for his child.

4 No more the blaze of glistening light
   Enwraps the Form divine,
   But tender love and healing might
   Around Him softly shine.

5 He came from hours of rapture high
   To care for human woe:
   So Angels from God's presence fly
   To succour men below.

6 O Jesu, be our life like Thine;—
   Blest labour, doubly blest
   By communings with things divine
   Upon the mountain's crest.

7 Lord, we would pass from hours of prayer,
   That lift our souls above,
   To go where want and sorrow are
   With lowly deeds of love.

8 Let no self-will within us lurk,
   Nor faithless sloth be there;
   But prayer give life to all our work,
   And work crown all our prayer. Amen.

1 O DAUGHTERS blest of Galilee,
   With Jesus chose ye well to be,

F 2 Oh joy, to see that Master dear!
   Oh joy, to live with Him so near!
   Dim. Oh joy, that gentle voice to hear!

F 3 Oh more than joy, to that dear Lord,
   In purest, deepest love adored,
   All lowly service to afford!

F 4 Yea, happy was your lot to bring,
   In loyal homage to your King
   Each free and gracious offering.

P 5 With wondering ear, as He drew nigh,
   Ye heard Him tell how He must die
   On that dread Cross of Calvary.

PP 6 And there, beneath the shrouded skies,
   Standing far off, with awe-struck eyes
   Ye watched the mighty Sacrifice.

P 7 Ye brought sweet spices to the tomb;
   Cres. And joy broke o'er your night of gloom,
   F And withered hopes burst forth in bloom.

F 8 For, lo! upon your startled ear
   Thrilled forth the heavenly message clear;
   "Your Lord is risen: He is not here."

F 9 O Jesu, throned above the height,
   Adoring troops of Angels bright
   Wait on thy bidding day and night.

P 10 Thy sacred form we cannot see,
   Yet, Lord, these hands may render Thee
   Each lowly act of charity.

P 11 For while 'mid want and woe we move,
   And tend Thy poor in gentle love,
   We minister to Thee above.

P 12 O gracious Jesu, we confess
   Our poor cold love, our nothingness:

CHURCH BUILDING.
(Foundation of a Church.)

306 "I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation."—Isa. xxviii. 16.

1 In the Name which earth and heaven
   Ever worship, praise, and fear,—
   Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,—
   Shall a house be builded here:
   Here with prayer its deep foundations,
   In the faith of Christ, we lay,
   Trusting by His help to crown it
   With the top-stone in its day.

2 Here as in their due succession
   Stone on stone the workmen place,
   Thus, we pray, unseen but surely,
   Jesu, build us up in grace;
   Till, within these walls completed,
   We complete in Thee are found;
   And to Thee, the one Foundation,
   Strong and living stones, are bound.

3 Fair shall be Thine earthly temple:
   Here the careless passer-by
   Shall bethink him, in its beauty,
   Of the holier House on high;
   Here shall find a still retreat;
   Sinful souls shall bring their burden
   Here to the Absolver's feet.

4 Yet with truer nobler beauty,
   Lord, we pray, this house adorn,
   Where Thy Bride, Thy Church redeemed,
   Robes her for her marriage morn;
   Rich with garments of salvation,
   Spouse of Christ, arrayed and waiting
   Till she may behold His Face.

5 Here in due and solemn order
   May her ceaseless prayer arise;
   Here may strains of holy gladness
   Lift her heart above the skies;
   Here the word of life be spoken;
   Here the child of God be sealed;
   Here the Bread of heaven be broken,
   "Till He come" Himself revealed.

F 6 Praise to Thee, O Master-BUILDER,
   Maker of the earth and skies;
   Praise to Thee, in whom Thy temple
   Fitly framed together lies;
   Praise to Thee, Eternal Spirit,
   Binding all that lives in one:
   Till our earthly praise be ended,
   And the eternal song begun! Amen.

EDGBASTON. 6.5.6.5. D. REV. T. R. MATTHEWS.

307 "I have set my affection to the house of my God."—1 Chron. xxix. 3.

1 Christ is the Foundation of the house we raise;
   Be its walls salvation, and its gateways praise!
   May the hearts be holy that shall worship here!

2 On the Rock of Ages resting broad and deep,
   When life's tempest rages, here let passion sleep;
   Here may prayers and praises never cease to rise,
   Till through Christ they raise us nearer to the skies.

3 Here the vow be sealed by Thy Spirit, Lord;
   Here the sick be healed, and the lost restored;
   Here the broken-hearted Thy forgiveness prove;
   Here the friends long-parted be restored to love.

4 Here may faith ascending find fruition fair,
   Here may spirits bending breathe the breath of prayer;
   Here may holy gladness fill the waiting heart,
   Until sin and sadness evermore depart.

5 Here may every token of Thy presence be,
   Here may chains be broken, prisoners here set free;
   Here may light illumine every soul of Thine,
   Lifting up the human into the Divine.

F 6 Here may God the Father, God the Saviour Son,
   God the Holy Spirit, be adored as One;
   Till the whole creation at Thy footstool fall,
   And in adoration own Thee Lord of all! Amen.

"Take heed now; for the Lord hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it."—1 Chron. xxviii. 10.

1 Lord, whose Temple once did glisten
   With a monarch's rich supplies,
   To our humbler praises listen,
   Bless our willing sacrifice!
   Be our freewill offering, given
   To the Father and the Son,
   Sweeter in the sight of heaven
   Than the scents of Lebanon!

2 Clouds and darkness veiled Thy dwelling
   In Thy chosen home of old,
   Though the hymn of praise was swelling
   'Mid the pomp of Ophir's gold:
   Here Thy love our hearts shall brighten:
   Hence, ye earthborn clouds, away!
   Here Thy Spirit shall enlighten,
   Cres. Shining to the perfect day.
CHURCH BUILDING.

3 Hither on each holy morning
Guide us on our churchway path;
Here, O Lord, in life's first dawning
Sprinkle every child of wrath:
Here around Thy Table bending,
Feed us with the Living Bread;
Here, to wait their Lord's descending,
Hallowed earth receive the dead!

ST. ANN.  C.M.  Ascribed to Dr. William Croft, 1708.

4 When our Israel's sore transgression
Stops the windows of the sky;
When we sink beneath oppression,
When we see our thousands die;
cres.  Father, when we here adore Thee,
In Thy house our prayers receive;
mf  When we spread our hands before Thee,
mf  Here behold us, and forgive!  Amen.

309  "Hear Thou in heaven Thy dwelling-place: and when Thou hearest, forgive."—1 Kings viii. 30.

1 O God, who lovest to abide
In Sion's chosen gate,
More than the thousand tents beside,
Where Israel's faithful wait;

2 Accept our works, and hear our vows,
Unworthy though we be;
And look in mercy on the house
We dedicate to Thee.

3 Here answer Thou, as Thou art wont,
Thy people when they pray;
Here in the waters of Thy font
Let sin be washed away.

4 Here set Thy Confirmation's seal
For ghostly strength and good;
Here give Thy people, as they kneel,
Their Saviour's Flesh and Blood.

5 If after sin they seek Thy face,
And by Thy precepts live,
Hear Thou in heaven Thy dwelling-place,
And when Thou hear'st, forgive I

6 If there be famine in the land,
Or pestilence, or foe,
Stretch out from heaven Thy strong right hand,
When here Thy flock fall low.

7 Bless those, O Lord, and hear their cry,
That raised Thy temple here,
That in Thy house beyond the sky
With joy they may appear.

8 Wisdom and power to God alone!
Praise to the Father be,
And to the precious Corner-stone,
And, Holy Ghost, to Thee!  Amen.

310  "The Lord is in His holy Temple: let all the earth keep silence before Him."—IIab. ii. 20.

1  When the Architect Almighty had created heaven and earth,
   Temple of the glorious Godhead, Angels shouted at their birth;
   Morning stars in holy concert sang a joyful jubilee,
   And the whole creation chanted, "Alleluia, Lord, to Thee!"

2  In a moving Tabernacle Thou of old didst deign to dwell,
   In the darkness and the stillness of the holy oracle;
   In the cloud Thy power was shrouded, in the fire Thy glory shone,
   In the consecrated Temple of the princely Solomon.

3  In that holy place Isaiah did Thy throne of glory see,
   And he heard the voice of Seraphs singing hymns of praise to Thee;
   "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts eternally,"
   Sing they in the heavenly Temple to the Blessed Trinity.

4  God in human flesh appearing, shrining Man in Deity,
   In the Temple was presented; and the Temple's Lord was He:
   In the Temple holy Jesus as a Child and Teacher sat;
   And the Feast of Dedication "God-with-us" did celebrate.

5  O'er the font's baptismal waters may the Holy Spirit move,
   Quick'ning through the holy laver with regenerating love;
   Lord, be ever at the altar, feeding there with heavenly food,
   Pardoning, refreshing, cleansing, with Thy Body and Thy Blood.

6  May Thy ministers be faithful, sowing here the seed divine,
   Seed of Evangelic doctrine, Apostolic discipline;
   May Thy people bear abundant fruits of faith and love to Thee,
   And in heaven by Angel-reapers may they safely garnered be.

7  Here to-day an earthly temple to Thy Name we dedicate,
   And we pray Thee, by Thy Spirit, us, O Lord, to consecrate;
   Consecrate us to be temples of the Blessed Three in One,
   Founded on Apostles, Prophets, Jesus Christ the Corner-stone.
CHURCH BUILDING.

8 So when earthly temples shall be all dissolved in the dust,
We may at the Resurrection rise in glory with the just,
When the heavenly city, shining and adorned as a bride
For her husband, with Thy presence shall, O Lord, be glorified;

9 When that holy city, gleaming with its jewels, pearls and gold,
Shall descend, and in its portals all the risen saints enfold;
May we in its light eternal sing with all the heavenly host,
Glory be to God the Father, to the Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

311 “We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago.”—Ezra v. 11.

F I Lift the strain of high thanksgiving!
Tread with songs the hallowed way!
Praise our fathers’ God for mercies
New to us their sons to-day:
Here they built for Him a dwelling,
Served Him here in ages past,
Fixed it for His sure possession,
Holy ground, while time shall last.

M 2 When the years had wrought their changes,
He, our own unchanging God,
Thought on this His habitation,
Looked on His decayed abode;
Heard our prayers, and helped our counsels,
Blessed the silver and the gold,

cres. Till once more His house is standing f Firm and stately as of old.

3 Ent’ring then Thy gates with praises,
Lord, be ours Thine Israel’s prayer;—
“Rise into Thy place of resting,
Show Thy promised Presence there!”

Let the gracious word be spoken
Here, as once on Sion’s height,
“This shall be My rest for ever,
This My dwelling of delight.”

4 Fill this latter house with glory
Greater than the former knew;
Clothe with righteousness its Priesthood,
Guide its Choir to reverence true;
Let Thy Holy One’s anointing
Here its sevenfold blessing shed;
Spread for us the heavenly Banquet,
Satisfy Thy poor with Bread.

FF 5 Praise to Thee, Almighty Father!
Praise to Thee, Eternal Son!
Praise to Thee, all-quickening Spirit!
Ever-blessèd Three in One!

mf Threenfold Power and Grace and Wisdom;
dim. Moulding out of sinful clay cres. Living stones for that true Temple
f Which shall never know decay! Amen.

"Do all that is in thine heart, for the Lord is with thee."—2 Sam. vii. 3.

1 Jesu! where'er Thy people meet,
    There they behold Thy mercy-seat;
    Where'er they seek Thee, Thou art found,
    And every place is hallowed ground.

2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
    Inhabitest the humble mind;
    Such ever bring Thee where they come,
    And, going, take Thee to their home.

3 Yet everywhere Thou guid'st Thine own
    To raise for Thee an earthly throne;
    And where Thy name Thou dost record,
    There Thou wilt come and bless them, Lord!

4 Great Shepherd of Thy chosen few,
    Thy former mercies here renew;
    And here to wayward hearts proclaim
    The sweetness of Thy saving Name!

5 Here may we prove the might of prayer
    To strengthen faith and sweeten care, tres. To teach our faint desires to rise,
    And bring all heaven before our eyes!

6 Behold, obedient to Thy word,
    We stretch the curtain and the cord;
    Come, with Thy glory fill the place;
    Let all around be light and grace! Amen.
(Opening of a Mission Room.)

313  "Where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there om I in the midst of them."—St. Matt. xviii. 20.

1 Great Shepherd of Thy people, hear!
   Thy presence now display:
   As Thou hast given a place for prayer,
   So give us hearts to pray.

2 Within these walls let holy peace,
   And love and concord dwell:
   Here give the troubled conscience case,
   The wounded spirit heal.

3 May we in faith receive Thy word,
   In faith present our prayers;
   And in the presence of our Lord
   Unbosom all our cares.

4 The hearing ear, the seeing eye,
   The contrite heart bestow;
   And shine upon us from on high,
   That we in grace may grow. Amen.

314 "Glory and honour are in His presence; strength and gladness are in His place."—1 Chron. xvi. 27.

1 Holy, Holy, Holy, to Thee our vows we pay,
With Eucharist and canticle, on this our festal day:
Glad city of the King most high, lift up, lift up thy gates!
Holy, Holy, Holy, to Thee our vows we pay,
With Eucharist and canticle, on this our festal day!

2 Thyself the Master Builder, oh! build us up in Thee,
A temple pure and beautiful, where Thou wilt deign to be,
Precious, elect, compacted, Thyself the Corner-stone,
And full of love and graces sweet which Thou dost give alone.
For Thee, O Lord Almighty, high praise in Sion waits,
Glad city of the King most high, lift up, lift up thy gates!

3 O Comforter most bles'sd, Thou source of Life and Light,
The Bride to-day is glorious in raiment fair and white;
Bring back the sheep that wander, raise up the souls that fall,
Give joy for tears to penitents, and robes of praise to all!
Holy, Holy, Holy, to Thee our vows we pay,
With Eucharist and canticle, on this our festal day!

4 Vouchsafe us, Lord, hereafter, to see Thee face to face,
In peaceful glad Jerusalem, thrice holy happy place;
When Sacrament and Temple shall never more be known,
When Thou art Temple, Sacrifice, and Priest upon the throne!
For Thee, O Lord Almighty, high praise in Sion waits,
Glad city of the King most high, lift up, lift up thy gates! Amen.

St. Philip. 8.8.8.8; 8.8.

315 "I am to be gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers."—Gen. xlix. 29.

1 O Thou in whom Thy saints repose,
   When life's brief conflict finds its close:
   Behold us met before Thy face
   To hallow this their resting-place:
   Safe are the souls whom Thou dost keep;
   And safely here their dust shall sleep.

2 Thou knowest, Lord, for Thou hast wept
   Beside the tomb where Lazarus slept,
   What tears must flow, what hearts must bleed,
   When here we sow the precious seed;
   Thou still rememb'rest on Thy Throne
   Thy garden grave and sealed stone.

3 Bid then Thy hosts encamp around
   This chosen spot of holy ground:
   Here let calm Hope with Memory dwell,
   And Faith of heavenly comfort tell:
   No thought of ill, no footstep rude
   Profane the sacred solitude.

4 Here when Thy mourners shall repair
   In lonely grief and trembling prayer,
   Lift Thou sad hearts and streaming eyes
   To those fair glades of Paradise,
   Where safe within the guarded gate
   Thy ransomed souls in patience wait.

5 And when the Valley, thick with corn,
   Shall laugh to see Thy Harvest Morn,
   Here may the Angel-reapers find
   Full many a sheaf for Thee to bind,
   And in Thy golden garner store
   Our fruit of tears for evermore. Amen.

1. Angel voices, ever singing
   Round Thy throne of light—
   Angel harps, for ever ringing,
   Rest not day nor night;
   Thousands only live to bless Thee,
   And confess Thee,

Dr. John Naylor.

F 1 Come forth, O Christian brothers,
In ordered fair array;
Come forth with strains of gladness,
To greet your festal day!
Rejoice in God your Saviour;
Your hearts and voices raise,
His gates with songs to enter,
And tread His courts with praise!

2 Here, joined in holy union,
Assembling year by year,
With one accord to worship,
Before Him we appear;
With joy, like holy David's,
Our hearts receive the word,
Which bids us seek together
The house of David's Lord!

3 Levites of that new Temple
Not built by human hands,
Before whose heavenly altar
One Priest for ever stands;
Through Him our gifts we offer,
Through Him our vows we pay,
The fruit of lips made ready
To give Him thanks to-day.

F 4 Yet who may venture nigh Thee,
Or who may touch Thine ark?
O Thou, beside whose pureness
The heaven of heavens is dark,
Whose fire is swift to chasten,
Whose scourge is strong to smite,
Whose eyes and heart are watching
Thy Temple day and night!

5 Before Thy Throne great Angels
With veiled faces bow;
Have mercy on the sinful
Who dare to seek Thee now;
And o'er our earth-soiled garments
Thy robe of whiteness fling, cres. And touch with fire supernal mf Our lips before we sing!

6 So, kindled from Thine altar,
Prepared and owned by Thee,
Shall body, soul, and spirit,
A whole burnt offering be;
So with the eternal anthem
Our praises shall unite,
And this our lowly service
Be pleasing in Thy sight! Amen.

"Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward."—Exod. xiv. 15.

F 1 Forward go in glad accord,
Ye who know your risen Lord!
Let the strain of fervent love
Lift each drooping heart above.
Dark and troublous though the day,
Cast unworthy care away;
Trust in Him whose mighty hand
Guards the Church and rules the land.

2 Forward still!—and let the strain
Tell of triumph yet again;
For the Lord, who reigns on high,
Leads His own to victory;
Through the world's opposing might,
Through the gathering gloom of night;
Strong in faith, let holy song
Cheer us as we march along.

3 Now let all, as children dear,
In our Father's courts appear;
Let the choral harmony
Tell the spirits' unity:

Also the following:

March, march onward, soldiers true (421).

O Lord, how joyful 'tis to see (453).

“Thou rulest the raging of the sea.”—Ps. lxxxix. 9.

1 Eternal Father! strong to save,
   Whose arm doth bind the restless wave,
   Its own appointed limits keep:
   Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee
   For those in peril on the sea!

2 O Saviour! whose almighty word
   The winds and waves submissive heard,
   Who walkedst on the foaming deep,
   Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee
   For those in peril on the sea!

3 O Sacred Spirit! who didst brood
   Upon the chaos dark and rude,
   Who bad'st its angry tumult cease,
   Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee
   For those in peril on the sea!

4 O Trinity of love and power!
   Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
   From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
   And ever let there rise to Thee
   Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

   Amen.

“He divideth the sea with His power.”—Job xxvi. 12.

1 O God, who metest in Thine hand
   The waters of the mighty sea,
   And harrest ocean with the sand
   By Thy perpetual decree;
   Are lifted on the surge's crown,
   And plunged where seething eddies boil;

2 What time the floods lift up their voice
   And break in anger on the shore,
   When deep to deep calls with the noise
   Of waterspouts and billows' roar;
   Rule then, O Lord, the ocean's wrath,
   And bind the tempest with Thy will;

3 When they who to the sea go down,
   And in the waters ply their toil,
   What time the floods lift up their voice
   And break in anger on the shore,
   When deep to deep calls with the noise
   Of waterspouts and billows' roar;

   Cres. And bring them, Pilot wise and true,

"Fear not, for I am with thee."—Isa. xliii. 5.

1 Now we must leave our fatherland,
   And wander far o'er ocean's foam;
   Broken is kinship's dearest band,
   Forsaken stands our ancient home.

2 But One will ever with us go
   Through busiest day and stilllest night:
   The heavens above, the deeps below,
   Stand all unveiled before His sight.

3 If but His hand still hold us fast,
   His presence hourly fold us round,
   The anchor of our souls is cast
   Firm on the one eternal ground.

4 Though scattered be our brethren now
   O'er land and ocean far apart,
   Yet to one Master still they bow,
   In Him they still are one in heart.

5 Sweet for each other oft to plead,
   And feel our oneness in the Son!
   Ah! then we daily meet indeed
   In spirit at our Father's throne.

6 Soon time for us shall cease to reign,
   The Saviour call us home in peace;
   At last we all shall meet again,
   And partings shall for ever cease. Amen.

"The winds and the sea obey Him."—St. Mark iv. 41.

1 O Lord, be with us when we sail
   Upon the lonely deep,
   Our guard when on the silent deck
   The nightly watch we keep.
2 We need not fear, though all around,
   'Mid rising winds, we hear
   The multitude of waters surge;
   For Thou, O God, art near.
3 The calm, the breeze, the gale, the storm,
   The ocean and the land,
   All, all are Thine, and held within
   The hollow of Thy hand.
4 As when on blue Gennesaret
   Rose high the angry wave,
   And Thy disciples quailed in dread,
   One word of Thine could save;
5 So when the fiercer storms arise
   From man's unbridled will,
   Be Thou, Lord, present in our hearts
   To whisper, "Peace, be still!"
   If duty calls from threatened strife
   To guard our native shore,
   And shot and shell are answering
   The booming cannon's roar;
   Be Thou the mainguard of our host
   Till war and dangers cease,
   Defend the right, put up the sword,
   And through the world make peace.
   Across this troubled tide of life
   Thyself our pilot be,
   Until we reach that better land,
   The land that knows no sea.
   To Thee, the Father, Thee, the Son,
   Whom earth and heaven adore;
   Thee, Spirit moving on the deep,
   Be praise for evermore! Amen.

325 "They willingly received Him into the ship; and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went."—St. John vi. 21.

1 On the waters dark and drear,
   Jesus, Saviour, Thou art near;
   With our ship where'er it roam,
   As with loving friends at home.
2 Thou hast walked the heaving wave;
   Thou art mighty still to save;
   With one gentle word of Peace,
   Thou canst bid the tempest cease.
3 Safely from the boisterous main
   Bring us back to port again;
   In our haven we shall be,
   Jesu, if we have but Thee.
4 Only by Thy power and love
   Fit us for the port above;
   Still the deadly storm within,
   Gusts of passion, waves of sin.
5 So when breaks the glorious dawn
   Of the Resurrection morn,
   When the night of toil is o'er,
   We shall see Thee on the shore.
6 Holy Father, Holy Son,
   Holy Spirit, Three in One;
   Praise unending unto Thee,
   Now and evermore shall be. Amen.
326 "Thy way is in the sea, and Thy path in the great waters."—Ps. lxxvii. 19.

1 The ark of God in safety rode
   Upon the foaming waves;
   The hand of God is with us still,
   He loves us and He saves.

2 A way was opened in the sea,
   Parted by Moses' rod;
   The stormy surge a highway is
   To all who trust in God.

3 O Thou whose way is on the waves,
   Defend us on the deep;
   Our Queen, our country, all we love,
   Bless, and in safety keep.

4 Each at his post, the work assigned
   In order we fulfil;
   So may we in the bark of Christ
   Obey His holy will.

5 The helmsman steers us through the storms
   And quicksands to the shore;
   Christ at the helm His vessel guides
   To peace for evermore.

6 Our ship may founder; but the sea
   Will one day yield its dead;
   And all Christ's loyal crew will then
   Be safe with Christ their Head.

7 The stars will fall, the sun be dark,
   There will be no more sea;
   And in a billowy flood of fire
   The earth will whelm'd be:

8 But safely on the flaming waves
   The ship of Christ will ride,
   And all will come to land with joy
   Who in that ship abide.

9 Thus ever Thou, O blessed Lord,
   Art with us on the sea;
   Oh, may we in the heavenly port
   Be ever, Lord, with Thee!

10 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   Eternal praise be given,
   The God who guides through earthly storms
   To endless joys in Heaven! Amen.

When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee.—Isa. xliii. 2.

1 The ocean hath no danger
   For those whose prayers are made
To Him who in a manger
   A helpless Babe was laid;
Who, born to tribulation,
   And every human ill,
Yet, Lord of His creation,
   The wildest waves can still.

2 If fierce the tempest round us,
   And white the angry deep,
Yet He, when lost, who found us,
   Can still His treasure keep;
Nor wind nor wave can harm us,
   Though hope itself grow dim,
No tempest need alarm us,
   If peace we seek in Him.

3 Though life itself be waning,
   And waves shall o'er us sweep,
The wild wind's sad complaining
   Shall lull us still to sleep;
For as a gentle slumber
   E'en death itself shall prove
To those whom Christ doth number
   As worthy of His love.

4 Then, holy Jesu, hear us,
   And keep us free from harm,
Have pity, Lord, and bear us
   On Thy supporting arm.
Should storm or calm befall us,
   Whate'er our lot may be,
When all is o'er—then call us cres. Home, Saviour, home to Thee! Amen.
A few more years shall roll,
A few more seasons wane,
And we shall be with those that rest
Till Christ shall come again:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that great day;
Oh! wash me in Thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.

A few more suns shall set
O'er these dark hills of time,
And we shall be where God Himself
Lights all the glorious clime:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that bright day;
Oh! wash me in Thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.

A few more storms shall beat
On this stern rocky shore,
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more:

Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day;
Oh! wash me in Thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.

A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
Oh! wash me in Thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away.

'Tis but a little while
And He shall come again,
Who died that we might live, who lives
That we with Him may reign:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that glad day:
Oh! wash me in Thy precious Blood,
And take my sins away. Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

Eventide. 10.10.10.10.  Dr. W. H. Monk, 1861.

1 Abide with me! fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me!

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou, who changest not, abide with me!

3 Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word;
But as Thou dwellest with Thy disciples, Lord,
Familiar, condescending, patient, free,
Come, not to sojourn, but abide with me!

4 Come not in terrors, as the King of kings;
But kind and good, with healing in Thy wings;
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea;
Come, Friend of sinners, and abide with me!

5 Thou on my head in early youth didst smile;
And, though rebellious and perverse meanwhile,
Thou hast not left me, oft as I left Thee;
On to the close, O Lord, abide with me!

6 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, oh, abide with me!

7 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me!

8 Hold then Thy Cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee!
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me! Amen.

May be omitted from [ to ].

GENERAL HYMNS.

ZWINGLE. C.M. Justin Heinrich Knecht, d. 1817.

330 "We see Jesus crowned with glory and honour."—Heb. ii. 9.

1 All hail the power of Jesus' name!
   Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
   Let angels prostrate fall;
   And crown Him Lord of all!

2 Crown Him, ye martyrs of your God,
   Hail Him, ye heirs of David's line,
   Who from His altar call;
   Whom David Lord did call;
   And crown Him Lord of all!

3 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
   The God incarnate, Man divine,
   Ye ransomed from the fall,
   And crown Him Lord of all!

OLD HUNDREDTH. L.M. Guillaume Franc (?) Genevan Psalter of 1554.

5 Let every tribe and every tongue
   For another form of this tune, see Hymn 305.
   Before Him prostrate fall,
   Join in the universal song,
   And crown Him Lord of all! Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

331

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands."—Ps. c. i.

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him, and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His flock, He doth us feed;
And for His sheep He doth us take.

Oh! enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always.
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good;
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heaven and earth adore.
From men and from the angel-host,
Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

332

"Thine, O Lord, is the victory."—1 Chron. xxix. 11.

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!
Hark! the songs of holy Zion
Jesus, out of every nation,
Hath redeemed us by His blood!

2 Alleluia! Not as orphans
Are we left in sorrow now;
Though the cloud from sight received Him
When the forty days were o'er,
Shall our hearts forget His promise—
"I am with you evermore"?

3 Alleluia! Bread of heaven,
Thou on earth our food, our stay;
Intercessor, Friend of sinners,
Where the songs of all the sinless
Sweep across the crystal sea.

4 Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!
Hark! the songs of holy Zion
Thunder like a mighty flood:
"Jesus, out of every nation,
Hath redeemed us by His blood!" Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

334 "As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God."—Ps. xlii. 1.

1 As pants the hart for cooling streams,
When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for Thee,
And Thy refreshing grace.

2 For Thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
Oh! when shall I behold Thy face,
Thou Majesty divine?

3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?

f The praise of Him who is thy God,

f Thy health's eternal spring. Amen.

THE DAY OF PRAISE.

S.M.

Dr. Charles H. Steggall.

335 "They sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb."—Rev. xv. 3.

1 Awake, and sing the song
Of glory to the Lamb;
Wake every heart and every tongue
To praise the Saviour's name.

2 Sing of His dying love;
Sing of His rising power;
Sing how He intercedes above
For those whose sins He bore.

3 Sing on your heavenly way,
Ye ransomed sinners, sing;
Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ, the eternal King.

4 Soon shall ye hear Him say,
"Ye blessed children, come":
Soon will He call you hence away,
And take His wanderers home.

5 There shall our raptured tongue
His endless praise proclaim,
And sweeter voices swell the song
Of glory to the Lamb. Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

AGNUS DEI. [First Tune.] P.M. J. W. ELLIOTT.

Voices. Behold the Lamb! O Thou for sinners slain, Let it not be in vain That Thou hast died.

Behold the Lamb. [Second Tune.] P.M. J. W. ELLIOTT.
Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."—St. John i. 29.

WAINWRIGHT.

L.M.

1 Behold, they gain the lonely height,
   The Master and the favoured three,
   And through the thickest gloom of night
   The glory of the Lord they see.

2 He prays, and lo! the wondrous cloud
   Enwraps Him in its robe of fire;
   And they on earth, in terror bowed,
   Look upward, fainting with desire.

3 What forms are these that, floating near,
   Hold converse with their Lord on high?
   The prophet old, the Tishbite seer,
   Why speak they now of Calvary?

4 Yea, seer and prophet witness gave
   That all their work on earth was done:
   For He, the Christ, was strong to save.
   And all that they had hoped was won.

5 What wonder that the eager heart
   Should seek to stay the flight of time;
   And, from that vision loath to part,
   Still linger in that loftier clime?

6 Ah, vain the dream! The morning clear
   Brings back earth's weary life again;
   The heavenly voice no more they hear,
   But murmuring cries of doubt and pain.

7 Yet still within each faithful breast
   There dwells the thought of what shall be;
   That vision of the eternal rest,
   That cloud of Love's deep mystery.

8 So grant us, Lord, through mists of night,
   To see Thee in Thy glory clad;
   F And with Thy gladness make us glad. Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

Oriel. 8.7.8.7.8.7.

338 "I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband."—Rev. xxi. 2.

Part I.

1 Blessed city, heavenly Salem,
   Peaceful vision dim-descried;
Built of living stones elected,
   Built for ever to abide;
Angel-circled, as the virgins
   For the Bridegroom deck the bride.

2 Newly bright from heaven descending,
   Robed in bridal raiment meet,
Ready for the heavenly marriage,
   Forth she comes her Lord to greet;
Glorious shine her golden bulwarks;
   Shines the golden-paved street.

3 Radiant gleam her pearly portals,
   Widely flung each ample door,
Where in marriage-garments glistening
   They are entering evermore,
\[p\] Who the bitter cross embracing
   Christ’s reproach in this world bore.
\[p\] 4 Stern the strokes, the dint was heavy,
   Keen the graving of His hand,
\[cres.\] Ere each finished stone was planted:
   As the Master-Builder planned,
\[f\] Beauteous, changeless, through all ages
   In the house of God to stand.

Part II.

5 Deeply laid, a sure Foundation,
   Christ, the anointed Corner-stone,
Reaching on to every nation,
   Binding both the walls in one,
Sion’s joy and strong salvation
   Makes the faithful all His own.
GENERAL HYMNS.

6 All her halls a royal priesthood
   Fills with music gloriously,
Praise of God from saintly voices
   Ringing out melodiously,
Heralding with endless joyance
   God the One in Persons Three.

7 Visit, Lord, the earthly temple
   Where Thy presence we implore;
Here receive the rising incense
   From the hearts that Thee adore;
Sprinkle here Thy benedictions
   Dews of healing evermore.

8 Mete Thou here the promised measure
   Running o'er and closely pressed,
Foretaste of the eternal pleasure
   By the saints in light possessed;
There our heart is, there our treasure,
   Paradise, and home, and rest.

GENERAL ENDING.

9 To the everlasting Father,
   And the Son who reigns on high,
With the Holy Ghost, for ever,
   Unity in Trinity,
Honour, glory, virtue, blessing,
   Praise, and might, and majesty! Amen.

St. George.

S.M.

Dr. H. J. Gauntlett.

339 "I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit,"—Isa. lvii. 15.

1 Blest are the pure in heart,
   For they shall see our God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs;
   Their soul is Christ's abode.

2 The Lord, who left the heavens
   Our life and peace to bring,
To dwell in lowliness with men,
   Their pattern and their King;

3 He to the lowly soul
   Doth still Himself impart;
And for His dwelling and His throne
   Chooseth the pure in heart.

4 Lord, we Thy presence seek;
   May ours this blessing be;
Give us a pure and lowly heart,
   A temple meet for Thee. Amen.
340  "Turn us again, O God, and cause Thy face to shine; and we shall be saved."—Ps. lxxx. 3.

1 Bowed low in supplication,
   We come, O Lord, to Thee;
   Thy grace alone can save us;
   To Thee alone we flee.

2 We come for this our parish
   Thy mercy to implore;
   On church, and homes, and people,
   O Lord, Thy blessing pour.

3 Blot out our sins, O Father!
   Forgive the guilty past;
   Loose from their chains the captives
   Whom Satan holdeth fast.

4 Wake up the slumbering conscience
   To listen to Thy call;
   The weak and wavering strengthen,
   And raise up them that fall.

5 Our crying sin drive from us
   With Thy chastising rod;
   That we may be a people
   Fearing and loving God.

6 Oh! be Thy house, Lord, hallowed,
   And hallowed be Thy day;
   Let sin-stained souls find pardon,
   And learn to love and pray.

7 Oh! bless and keep the faithful,
   That they may stand secure;
   Unharmed by Satan's malice,
   And steadfast, meek, and pure.

8 With heavenly food supported,
   Oh! be they firm and strong
   To follow all things holy,
   To flee from all things wrong.

9 Lord, banish strife and variance,
   Knit sundered hearts in one;
   And bind us all together
   In love to Thy dear Son.

10 O Father, bless our parish,
    That all may grow in grace,
    Until we see Thy face. Amen.

ST. ALPHEGE.  7.6.7.6.  DR. H. J. GAUNTLETT, [1848].
341

"He hath prepared for them a city."—Heb. xi. 16.

F 1 Brief life is here our portion;
   Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
   The life that knows no ending,
   The tearless life, is there.
   O happy retribution!
   Short toil, eternal rest;
   For mortals and for sinners
   A mansion with the blest!

P 1 There God, our King and portion,
   In fulness of His grace,
   Shall we behold for ever,
   And worship face to face.
   There grief is turned to pleasure;
   Such pleasure as below
   No human voice can utter,
   No human heart can know.

3 Strive, man, to win that glory;
   Toil, man, to gain that light;
   Send hope before to grasp it,
   Till hope be lost in sight!

4 Exult, O dust and ashes;
   The Lord shall be thy part,
   His only, His for ever,
   Thou shalt be, and thou art. Amen.

GERMAN HYMN.

7.7.7.7. Adapted from Ignaz Pleyel.

342

"The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs."—Isa. xxxv. 10.

1 Children of the heavenly King!
   As ye journey, sweetly sing:
   Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
   Glorious in His works and ways!

2 We are travelling home to God,
   In the way the fathers trod:
   They are happy now, and we
   Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Fear not, brethren! Joyful stand
   On the borders of your land;

4 Lord, obediently we go,
   Gladly leaving all below;
   Only Thou our leader be,
   And we still will follow Thee.

5 Hymns of glory and of praise,
   Father, unto Thee we raise;
   Praise to Thee, O Christ our King,
   And the Holy Ghost, we sing. Amen.
343 "Jesus Christ, who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God."—1 St. Pet. iii. 22.

1 Christ, above all glory seated!
   King triumphant, strong to save!
   Dying, Thou hast death defeated,
   Buried, Thou hast spoiled the grave.

2 Thou art gone where now is given
   What no mortal might could gain,
   On the eternal throne of heaven
   In Thy Father's power to reign.

3 There Thy kingdoms all adore Thee,
   Heaven above and earth below;
   While the depths of hell before Thee
   Trembling and defeated bow.

4 We, O Lord, with hearts adoring,
   Follow Thee above the sky:
   Hear our prayers Thy grace imploring
   Lift our souls to Thee on high!

5 So when Thou again in glory
   On the clouds of heaven shalt shine,
   We Thy flock may stand before Thee,
   Owned for evermore as Thine.

6 Hail! all hail! In Thee confiding,
   Jesu, Thee shall all adore,
   In Thy Father's might abiding
   With one Spirit evermore! Amen.

ST. GODRIC.
GENERAL HYMNS.

344

"Let Thine eyes be opened to this house night and day."—1 Kings viii. 29.

1 Christ is our corner-stone,
   On Him alone we build;
   With His true saints alone
   The courts of heaven are filled:
   On His great love
   Our hopes we place
   Of present grace
   And joys above.

F 2 Oh! then with hymns of praise
   These hallowed courts shall ring;
   Our voices we will raise
   The Three in One to sing;
   And thus proclaim
   In joyful song,
   Both loud and long,
   That glorious name.

3 Here, gracious God, do Thou
   For evermore draw nigh;
   Accept each faithful vow,
   And mark each suppliant sigh:
   In copious supplicant sigh:
   On all who pray
   Each holy day
   Thy blessings pour.

4 Here may we gain from heaven
   The grace which we implore;
   And may that grace, once given,
   Be with us evermore;
   Until that day
   When all the blest
   To endless rest
   Are called away. Amen.

"Watch and pray."—St. Matt. xxvi. 41.

1 Christian, seek not yet repose,
   Hear thy guardian Angel say;
   Thou art in the midst of foes;—
   p Watch and pray.

2 Principalities and powers,
   Mustering their unseen array,
   Wait for thy unguarded hours:—
   p Watch and pray.

3 Gird thy heavenly armour on,
   Wear it ever, night and day;
   Near thee lurks the evil one;
   p Watch and pray.

4 Hear the victors who o'ercame,
   Still they watch each warrior's way,
   All with one deep voice exclaim—
   p Watch and pray.

5 Hear above all these thy Lord,
   Him thou lovest to obey;
   Hide within thy heart His word,—
   p Watch and pray.

6 Watch, as if on that alone
   Hung the issue of the day;
   Pray that help may be sent down,—
   p Watch and pray. Amen.

348 "Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power be unto the Lamb for ever and ever."—Rev. v. 13.

1 Come, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus!"
"Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply;
"For He was slain for us!"

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honour and power divine;
And blessings, more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever Thine.

4 The whole creation join in one
To bless the sacred name
Of Him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb. Amen.

349 "Even so, come, Lord Jesus."—Rev. xxii. 20.

1 Come, Lord, and tarry not;
Bring the long-looked-for day;
Oh! why these years of waiting here,
These ages of delay?

2 Come, for Thy saints still wait;
Daily ascends their sigh:
The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!"
Dost Thou not hear the cry?

3 Come in Thy glorious might,
Come with the iron rod,
Scattering Thy foes before Thy face,
Most mighty Son of God!

4 Come, and make all things new,
Build up this ruined earth;
Restore our faded paradise,
Creation's second birth.

5 Come, and begin Thy reign
Of everlasting peace;
Come, take the kingdom to Thyself,
Great King of Righteousness. Amen.

"I am He that comforteth you."—Isa. li. 12.

1 Come to our poor nature’s night
   With Thy blessed inward light,
   Holy Ghost, the Infinite,
   Comforter Divine!

2 We are sinful; cleanse us, Lord:
   Sick and faint; Thy strength afford:
   Lost, until by Thee restored,
   Comforter Divine!

3 Orphan are our souls and poor;
   Give us, from Thy heavenly store,
   Faith, love, joy, for evermore,
   Comforter Divine!

4 Like the dew, Thy peace distil;
   Guide, subdue our wayward will,
   Things of Christ unfolding still,
   Comforter Divine!

5 Gentle, awful, holy Guest,
   Make Thy temple in each breast,
   There supreme to reign and rest,
   Comforter Divine!

6 In us, for us, intercede,
   And with voiceless groanings plead
   Our unutterable need,
   Comforter Divine!

7 In us “Abba, Father” cry,
   Earnest of our bliss on high,
   Seal of immortality,
   Comforter Divine!

8 Search for us the depths of God, cres. Bear us up the starry road
   f To the height of Thine abode,
Come unto Me.

"Come unto Me."—St. Matt. xi. 28.

P 1 "Come unto Me, ye weary,
And I will give you rest."

m Oh, blessed voice of Jesus,
Which comes to hearts opprest!

f It tells of benediction,
Of pardon, grace, and peace,
Of joy that hath no ending,
Of love which cannot cease.

2 "Come unto Me, ye wanderers,
And I will give you light."

m Oh, loving voice of Jesus,
Which comes to cheer the night!

pp Our hearts were filled with sadness,
And we had lost our way,
cres. But morning brings us gladness, cres. And songs the break of day.

f And stronger than the strong.

3 "Come unto Me, ye fainting,
And I will give you life."

m Oh, cheering voice of Jesus,
Which comes to aid our strife!

f The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
But Thou hast made us mighty,
And love so free and boundless,
To come, dear Lord, to Thee! Amen.

4 "And whosoever cometh,
I will not cast him out."

m Oh, welcome voice of Jesus,
Which drives away our doubt!

f Which calls us, very sinners,
Unworthy though we be
Of love so free and boundless,
To come, dear Lord, to Thee! Amen.
"Let the God of my salvation be exalted."—Ps. xviii. 46.

1 Come, ye faithful, raise the anthem;
   Cleave the skies with shouts of praise;
   Sing to Him who brought salvation,
   Wondrous in His works and ways;
   God eternal, Word incarnate,
   Whom the heaven of heavens obeys.

2 Ere He raised the lofty mountains,
   Formed the sea, or spread the sky,
   Love eternal, free and boundless,
   Moved the Lord of life to die;
   Foreordained the Prince of princes
   For the throne of Calvary.

3 Now above the sapphire pavement,
   High in unapproachèd light,
   Lo! He lives and reigns for ever,
   Victor after hard-won fight,
   Where the song of the redeemed
   Rings unceasing day and night.

4 Yet this earth He still remembers,
   Still by Him the flock are fed:
   Yea, He gives them food immortal,
   Gives Himself, the Living Bread;
   Leads them where the precious Fountain
   From the smitten Rock is shed.

5 Trust Him then, ye fainting pilgrims;
   Who shall pluck you from His hand?
   Pledged He stands for your salvation,
   Pledged to give the promised land,
   Where among the ransomed nations
   Ye too round His throne shall stand. Amen.
St. Vincent.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy."—Ps. cxxvi. 5.

1 Creator of the world! to Thee
An endless rest of joy belongs;
And heavenly choirs are ever free
To sing on high their festal songs.

2 But we are fallen creatures here,
Where pain and sorrow daily come;
And how can we, in exile drear,
Sing out, as they, sweet songs of home?

3 O Father! who dost promise still
That they who mourn shall blessed be;
Grant us to mourn for deeds of ill,
That banish us so long from Thee:

4 But, weeping, grant us faith to rest
In hope upon Thy loving care;
Till Thou restore us, with the blest,
Their songs of praise in heaven to share.

Amen.

"Thou hast crowned Him with glory and honour."—Ps. viii. 5.

1 Crown Him with many crowns,
   The Lamb upon His throne!
   dim. Behold His hands and side,—
   Those wounds, yet visible above,
   In beauty glorified.

   P  No Angel in the sky
   Can fully bear that sight,
   But downward bends his wond'ring eye
   At mysteries so bright.

   F  Crown Him the Lord of Love!
   Hark! how the heavenly anthem
   All music but its own!
   Awake, my soul, and sing
   No Angel in the sky
   Can fully bear that sight,
   Behold His hands and side,
   In beauty glorified.

   Cres.  Crown Him the Lord of Peace!
   Drown. From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
   And all be love and praise.
   His reign shall know no end;
   And round His pierced feet
   The thousand tones of earth shall blend,
   In concord ever sweet.

2 Crown Him the Virgin's Son!
   The God incarnate born,
   Whose conqu'ring arm those troph-ies won
   Whose power a sceptre sways
   From pole to pole, that wars may
   cease,
   And all be love and praise.
   His reign shall know no end;
   And round His pierced feet
   The thousand tones of earth shall
   blend,
   In concord ever sweet.

3 Crown Him the Lord of Love!
   The Lamb upon His throne!
   F  Crown Him the Lord of Life!
   Whose conqu'ring arm those troph-ies won
   Whose power a sceptre sways
   From pole to pole, that wars may
   cease,
   And all be love and praise.
   His reign shall know no end;
   And round His pierced feet
   The thousand tones of earth shall
   blend,
   In concord ever sweet.

4 Crown Him the Lord of Life!
   Who triumphed o'er the grave,
   And rose victorious in the strife,
   For those He came to save.
   His glories now we sing,
   Who died and rose on high;
   Who died eternal life to bring,
   And lives that death may die!

5 Crown Him the Lord of Peace!
   Whose power a sceptre sways
   From pole to pole, that wars may
   cease,
   And all be love and praise.
   His reign shall know no end;
   And round His pierced feet
   The thousand tones of earth shall
   blend,
   In concord ever sweet.

6 Crown Him the Lord of Might,
   The King of kings alone,
   Maker of all, serene and bright.
   On His eternal throne;
   On the broad sea of light,
   Whose everlasting waves
   Reflect His throne,—the Infinite!
   Who lives, and loves, and saves!

7 Crown Him the Lord of Heaven,
   Enthroned in worlds above,
   The King to whom alone is given
   The wondrous name of Love!
   All hail, Redeemer, hail!
   For Thou hast died for me:
   Thy praise shall never, never fail
   Throughout eternity! Amen.

DIES IRAE.

Dies Iræ.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Dyke.

Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth, 7 What shall I, frail man, be pleading? 11 Righteous Judge of Retribution,
Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth, Who for me be interceding, Grant Thy gift of absolution,
All before the throne it bringeth. When the just are mercy needing? Ere that Reckoning Day's conclusion!

Death is struck, and nature quaking, 8 King of Majesty tremendous, pp 12 Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
Who dost free salvation send us, Who dost free salvation send us, All my shame with anguish owning; Fount of pity, then befriended!
All creation is awaking, dim. Fount of pity, then befriended! Spare, O God, Thy suppliant groaning.

To its Judge an answer making, 9 Think, kind Jesu, my salvation 13 Thou the sinful woman savedst;
Wherein all hath been recorded; Caused Thy wondrous incarnation: Thou the dying thief forgavest; Whence shall judgment be awarded. Leave me not to reprobation! And to me a hope vouchsafest.

When the Judge His seat attaineth, 10 Faint and weary Thou hast sought me, 14 Worthless are my prayers and sighing;
And each hidden deed arraigneth, On the Cross of suff'ring bought me; Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,
Nothing unavenged remaineth. Shall such grace be vainly brought me? Rescue me from fires undying.

15 With Thy favouréd sheep, oh! place me, Nor among the goats a-base me,
16 But to Thy right hand up-raise me. While the wicked are confounded,

Doomed to flames of woe unbound, Call me, with Thy saints surrounded.

17 Low I kneel, with heart-submission; See, like ashes, my contrition;

Help me in my last condition! Ah! that day of tears and mourning!

From the dust of earth returning, Man for judgment must prepare him; Spare, O God, in mercy spare him! Lord, all pitying, Jesus blest, Grant us Thine eternal rest! Amen.
Disposer Supreme, And Judge of the earth, Thou choosest for Thine The weak and the poor;

To frail earthen vessels, And things of no worth, Entrusting Thy riches Which aye shall endure. Amen.

(See also "Hanover," Hymn 477.)

"Their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world."—Rom. x. 18.

1. Disposer Supreme,
   And Judge of the earth,
   Thou choosest for Thine
   The weak and the poor;
   To frail earthen vessels,
   And things of no worth,
   Entrusting Thy riches
   Which aye shall endure.

2. Those vessels soon fail,
   Though full of Thy light,
   And at Thy decree
   Are broken and gone;
   Thence brightly appeareth
   Thy truth in its might,
   As through the clouds riven
   The lightnings have shone.

3. Like clouds are they borne
   To do Thy great will,
   And swift as the winds
   About the world go;
   The fire of Thy presence
   Their spirits doth fill,
   They thunder, they lighten,
   The waters o'erflow.

4. Their sound goeth forth
   "Christ Jesus is Lord!"
   Then Satan doth fear,
   His citadels fall:
   As when the dread trumpets
   Went forth at Thy word,
   And one long blast shattered
   The Canaanite's wall.

5. Oh, loud be their trump,
   And stirring their sound,
   To rouse us, O Lord,
   From slumber of sin!
   The lights Thou hast kindled
   In darkness around,
   Oh, may they illumine
   Our spirits within!

6. All glory to Thee,
   Who, hid from our sight,
   Yet fillest with love
   The vast infinite!
   And for us revealed
   As One and yet Three,
   Dost call us from darkness
   Thy glory to see! Amen.

"As it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of Man."—St. Luke xvii. 26.

1 Far down the ages now,
   Her journey well-nigh done,
The pilgrim Church pursues her way,
   In haste to reach her crown.

2 No wider is the gate,
   No broader is the way,
No smoother is the ancient path
   That leads to light and day.

3 No feebler is the foe,
   No slacker grows the fight,
No less the need of armour tried,
   Of shield and helmet bright.

4 Thus onward still we press,
   Through evil and through good,
Through pain and poverty and want,
   Through peril and through-blood.

5 Still faithful to our God,
   And to our Captain true,
We follow where He leads the way,
   The kingdom still in view. Amen.

358  “My flesh and my heart faileth, but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.”—Ps. lxxiii. 26.

1 Far from my heavenly home,
   Far from my Father's breast,
Fainting I cry, “Blest Spirit, come,
   And speed me to my rest.”

2 My spirit homeward turns,
   And fain would thither flee;
My heart, O Sion, droops and yearns,
   When I remember thee.

3 To thee, to thee I press,
   A dark and toilsome road;
When shall I pass the wilderness,
   And reach the saints' abode?

4 God of my life, be near,
   On Thee my hopes I cast;
Oh! guide me through the desert here,
   And bring me home at last. Amen.

"Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy House."—Ps. xxvi. 8.

1 Father, we love Thy house of prayer,
   And duly, morn and eve,
   With cheerful feet would hasten there
   Thy blessing to receive:

2 To tell our sins on bended knee,
   To hear the absolving word
   That sets the burdened conscience free
   To serve and praise the Lord:

3 And then, in gladness deep and calm,
   To rise and take our part,
   And breathe in creed, and hymn, and psalm,
   The fulness of the heart.

4 O God of Hosts, Thy service is Beyond all earthly joy;
   A foretaste of eternal bliss,
   And heavenly hosts' employ! Amen.

361 "And He rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still."—St. Mark iv. 39.

1 Fierce was the storm of wind,
The surging waves ran high,
Failed the disciples' hearts with fear,
Though Thou, their Lord, wast nigh.

2 But at the stern rebuke
Of Thy almighty word,
The wind was hushed, the billows ceased,
And owned Thee God and Lord.

3 So now, when depths of sin
Our souls with terrors fill,
Arise, and be our helper, Lord,
And speak Thy "Peace, be still."

4 When death's dark sea we cross,
Be with us in Thy power,
Nor let the waterfloods prevail
In that dread trial-hour.

5 And when, amid the signs
Which speak Thine advent near,
The roaring of the sea and waves
Fill faithless hearts with fear;

6 May we all undismayed
The raging tempest see,
Lift up our heads, and hail with joy
Thy great Epiphany. Amen.

362 "Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life."—I Tim. vi. 12.

1 Fight the good fight with all thy might,
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
Lay hold on life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.

2 Run the straight race through God's good grace,
Lift up thine eyes, and seek His face;
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

3 Cast care aside, lean on thy Guide;
His boundless mercy will provide:
Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove,
Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

4 Faint not, nor fear, His arms are near,
He changeth not, and thou art dear;
Only believe, and thou shalt see
That Christ is all in all to thee. Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

When shall I come and appear before God? — Ps. xlii. 2.

1. "For ever with the Lord!"
   Amen, so let it be;
   Life from the dead is in that word,
   'Tis immortality.
   Here in the body pent,
   Absent from Him I roam,
   Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
   A day's march nearer home.

2. My Father's house on high,
   Home of my soul, how near
   At times to faith's foreseeing eye
   Thy golden gates appear!
   Here in the body pent,
   Absent from Him I roam,
   Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
   A day's march nearer home.

3. "For ever with the Lord!"
   Father, if 'tis Thy will,
   The promise of that faithful word
   E'en here to me fulfil.
   Here in the body pent,
   Absent from Him I roam,
   Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
   A day's march nearer home.

4. So when my latest breath
   Shall rend the veil in twain,
   By death I shall escape from death,
   And life eternal gain.
   Here in the body pent,
   Absent from Him I roam,
   Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
   A day's march nearer home. Amen.

"Giving thanks always for all things unto God."—Eph. v. 20.

1 For the beauty of the earth,
   For the glory of the skies,
   For the love which from our birth
   Over and around us lies,
   Lord of all, to Thee we raise
   This our grateful psalm of praise.

2 For the wonder of each hour
   Of the day and of the night,

   Sun and moon, and stars of light,
   Lord of all, to Thee we raise
   This our grateful psalm of praise.

3 For the joy of human love,

   Friends on earth, and friends above,
   Pleasures pure and undefiled,
   Lord of all, to Thee we raise
   This our grateful psalm of praise.

4 For Thy Church that evermore
   Lifteth holy hands above,
   Offering up on every shore
   Her pure sacrifice of love,
   Lord of all, to Thee we raise
   This our grateful psalm of praise. Amen.

368  "Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God."—Ps. lxxxvii. 3.

F 1 Glorious things of thee are spoken,
    Zion, city of our God;
    He, whose word cannot be broken,
    Formed thee for His own abode:
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's wall's surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
    Zion, city of our God;
    He, whose word cannot be broken,
    Formed thee for His own abode:
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's wall's surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

2 See, the streams of living waters
    Springing from eternal love,
    Well supply thy sons and daughters,
    And all fear of want remove.
Who can faint, when such a river
    Ever flows their thirst to assuage?
Grace which, like the Lord the Giver,
    Never fails from age to age!

3 Round each habitation hovering,
    See the cloud and fire appear,
    For a glory and a covering,
    Showing that the Lord is near.
Thus they march, the pillar leading,
    Light by night, and shade by day,
Daily on the manna feeding,
    Which He gives them when they pray.

4 Blest inhabitants of Zion,
    Washed in the Redeemer's Blood!
Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
    Makes them kings and priests to God.
'Tis His love His people raises
    Over self to reign as kings:
And as priests His solemn praises
    Each for a thank-offering brings. Amen.

369  "The blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel."—Heb. xii. 24.

1 GLORY be to Jesus,
Who in bitter pains,
Poured for me the Life-blood
From His sacred veins.

2 Grace and life eternal
In that Blood I find;
Blest be His compassion,
Infinitely kind.

3 Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream,
Which from endless torment
Did the world redeem.

4 Abel's blood for vengeance
Pleased to the skies;
But the Blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.

5 Oft as it is sprinkled
On our guilty hearts,
Satan in confusion,
Terror-struck, departs.

6 Oft as earth exulting
Wafts its praise on high,
Angel hosts, rejoicing,
Make their glad reply.

7 Lift ye then your voices;
   Swell the mighty flood;
   Praise the precious Blood. Amen.

370  "Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow His steps."—1 St. Pet. ii 21.

1 Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see;
Watch with Him one bitter hour.
Turn not from His griefs away;
Learn from Him to watch and pray.

2 See Him at the judgment-hall,
Beaten, bound, reviled, arraigned;
See Him meekly bearing all!
Love to man His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
Learn of Christ to bear the cross.

3 Calvary's mournful mountain view;
There the Lord of glory see,
Made a Sacrifice for you,
Dying on the accursed tree:
"It is finished!" hear Him cry;
Learn of Jesus how to die.

4 Early to the tomb repair,
Where His lifeless Body lay;
Angels keep their vigils there:
Who hath taken Him away?
"Christ is risen!" He seeks the skies!
Saviour, teach us so to rise. Amen.
371 "Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light."—Col. i. 12.

1 God hath two families of love;
One is on earth and one above;
One is in battle sharp and sore;
And one at rest for evermore.

2 The Church on earth maintains the fight Against the devil and his might;
The Church at rest with war hath done;
And yet the two are only one.

3 For they who loved their Saviour here,
And died in God's true faith and fear,
Are waiting now in Paradise
To join the Church beyond the skies.

4 We thank Thee, Saviour, for the grace
By which they reached that blessed place;
Oh, teach us so to live that we
May follow them, as they did Thee.

5 Teach us to live in faith and love,
Until Thou callest us above,
To see Thee as Thou art, and stand
Before Thee in the far-off land. Amen.

After last verse.

"God is love."—St. John iv. 16.

1 God is love; that anthem olden
   Sing the glorious orbs of light,
   In their language glad and golden
   Telling to us day and night
   Their great story,
   God is love, and God is might!

2 And the teeming earth rejoices
   In that message from above,
   With ten thousand thousand voices,
   Telling back from hill and grove
   Her glad story,
   God is might, and God is love!

3 Through these anthems of creation,
   Struggling up with gentle strife,
   Christian songs of Christ's salvation,
   To the world with blessings rife,
   Tell their story,
   God is love, and God is life!

4 Up to Him let each affection
   Daily rise, and round Him move;
   Our whole lives one resurrection
   To the life of life above;
   Our glad story
   God is life, and God is love! Alleluia! Amen.

373 "God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us."—Ps. lxvii. 1.

1 God of mercy, God of grace,
   Show the brightness of Thy face;
   Shine upon us, Saviour, shine,
   Fill Thy Church with light divine;
   And Thy saving health extend
   Unto earth's remotest end.

2 Let the people praise Thee, Lord;
   Be by all that live adored;
   Let the nations shout and sing

   Glory to their Saviour King;
   At Thy feet their tribute pay,
   And Thy holy will obey.

3 Let the people praise Thee, Lord;
   Earth shall then her fruits afford;
   God to man His blessing give,
   Man to God devoted live;
   All below, and all above,
   One in joy, and light, and love. Amen.
"The greatest of these is charity."—1 Cor. xiii. 13.

1 Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost,
   Taught by Thee, we covet most
   Of Thy gifts at Pentecost
   Holy, heavenly Love.

2 Faith, that mountains could remove,
   Tongues of earth or heaven above,
   Knowledge—all things—empty prove,
   Without heavenly Love.

3 Though I as a martyr bleed,
   Give my goods the poor to feed,
   All is vain, if love I need;
   Therefore, give me Love.

4 Love is kind, and suffers long;
   Love is meek, and thinks no wrong;
   Love than death itself more strong;
   Therefore, give us Love.

5 Prophecy will fade away,
   Melting in the light of day;
   Love will ever with us stay;
   Therefore, give us Love.

6 Faith will vanish into sight;
   Hope be emptied in delight;
   Love in heaven will shine more bright;
   Therefore, give us Love.

7 Faith and Hope and Love we see
   Joining hand in hand agree;
   But the greatest of the three,
   And the best, is Love.

8 From the overshadowing
   Of Thy gold and silver wing,
   Of Thy gold and silver wing,
   Shed on us who to Thee sing
   Holy, heavenly Love. Amen.
Great God, what do I see and hear!
The end of things created!

I see the Judge of men appear,
On clouds of glory seated!

Prepare, my soul, to meet Him!

But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing,
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing.

The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

The end of things created!

Great God, what do I see and hear!

The dead in Christ shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding;
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding,
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

Great God, what do I see and hear!
The end of things created!

I see the Judge of men appear,
On clouds of glory seated!

Prepare, my soul, to meet Him!

And sighs are unavailing.

Great God, what do I see and hear!

The end of things created!

I see the Judge of men appear,
On clouds of glory seated!

Prepare, my soul, to meet Him!

But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing,
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing.

The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

"He will be our Guide, even unto death."—Ps. xlvi. 14.

1 Guide us, O Thou great Jehovah!
Pilgrims through this barren land;
We are weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold us with Thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven,
Feed us till we want no more.

2 Open Thou the living Fountain,
Whence the healing waters flow:
Let the fiery cloudy pillar
Lead us all our journey through:
Strong Deliverer,
cres. Be Thou still our strength and shield.

3 When we tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid our anxious fears subside;
Bear us through the o’erwhelming torrent,
Land us safe on Canaan’s side:
Songs of praises
We will ever give to Thee. Amen.

377  "That He by the grace of God should taste death for every man."—Heb. ii. 9.

1 Hail that Head all torn and wounded, With the crown of thorns surrounded, Hail that Face all marred and pale; Hail that Body, pierced and shaken, Mocked of man, by God forsaken, Left in death's last hour to fail!

Thou whose form for us was wasted, Who for us of death hast tasted, Hear us, sinners though we be! Do not from Thy sufferings turn us, Do not leave us, do not spurn us, Let us cling in death to Thee!

2 By Thine anguish, by Thy crying, By Thy voice when Thou wast dying, By Thy last expiring breath; Thou of heavenly life the Giver, Thou, Almighty to deliver. Oh, receive our souls in death!

3 When our weakened minds are straying, Make, O Lord, no long delaying, Fail us, not, O Jesu, then! With Thy presence us defending, Come and cheer our latest ending, cres. Saviour of the sons of men! Amen.

378 "He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them."—Heb. vii. 25.

1 Hail, Thou once despised Jesus!
Hail, Thou great and glorious King!
Thou didst suffer to release us,
Thou didst free salvation bring:
Hail, Thou Saviour, bleeding, dying,
Bearer of our sin and shame!
On Thy grace alone relying,
Seek we mercy through Thy Name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins on Thee were laid;
By Almighty love anointed
Thou hast full atonement made:
All Thy people are forgiven
Through the virtue of Thy Blood;
Open is the gate of Heaven;
Peace is made for man with God.

There for ever to abide,
All the heavenly hosts adore Thee,

Help to chant Immanuel's praise! Amen.

379 "His Name shall endure for ever. All nations shall call Him blessed."—Ps. lxxii. 17.

1 Hail to the Lord's Anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free;
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes with succour speedy
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

3 Kings shall fall down before Him,
And gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing;
O'er every foe victorious,
He on His throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious,
All-blessing and all-blessed. Amen.

DAY OF GRACE.

380 "I will restore health unto thee; I will heal thee of thy wounds."—Jer. xxx. 17.

1 Heal me, O my Saviour, heal;
Heal me as I suppliant kneel;
Heal me, and my pardon seal.

2 Fresh the wounds that sin hath made;
Hear the prayers I oft have prayed,
And in mercy send me aid.

3 Helpless, none can help me now,
Cheerless, none can cheer but Thou;
Suppliant, Lord, to Thee I bow.

4 Thou the true Physician art;
Thou, O Christ, canst health impart,
Binding up the bleeding heart.

5 Other comforters are gone;
Thou canst heal, and Thou alone,
Thou for all my sin atone.

6 Heal me, then, my Saviour, heal;
Heal me, as I suppliant kneel;
To Thy mercy I appeal. Amen.
He hath sent Me to heal the broken-hearted."—St. Luke iv. 18.

1 Heal us, Emmanuel; hear our prayer;
   We wait to feel Thy touch:
   Deep-wounded souls to Thee repair;
   And, Saviour, we are such.

2 Our faith is feeble, we confess;
   We faintly trust Thy word:
   But wilt Thou pity us the less?
   Be that far from Thee, Lord!

3 Remember him who once applied
   With trembling for relief;
   "Lord, I believe," with tears he cried,
   "Help Thou mine unbelief!"

4 She, too, who touched Thee in the press,
   And healing virtue stole.
   Was answered, "Daughter, go in peace,
   Thy faith hath made thee whole."

5 Like her, with hopes and fears we come
   To touch Thee if we may;
   Oh, send us not despairing home;
   Send none unhealed away! Amen.

"The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost."—St. John xiv. 26.

1 Holy Spirit! Come in might!
From Thy dwelling-place of light
Thy pure beaming radiance give.
Come, Thou helper of the poor,
Come with treasures which endure,
Come, Thou Light of all that live!

2 Light immortal! Light divine!
Visit Thou these hearts of Thine,
And our inmost being fill.
If Thou take Thy grace away,
Nothing pure in us will stay,
All our good is turned to ill.

3 Heal our wounds, our strength renew,
On our dryness pour Thy dew,
Wash the stains of sin away;
Bend the stubborn heart and will,
Melt the frozen, warm the chill,
Guide the steps that go astray.

4 On Thine own, who evermore
Thee confess and Thee adore,
In Thy sevenfold gifts descend:
Give them comfort when they die;
Give them life with Thee on high;
Give them joys which never end. Amen.

"Hosanna to the Son of David."—St. Matt. xxi. 9.

1 Hosanna to the living Lord!
Hosanna to the Incarnate Word!
To Christ, Creator, Saviour, King,
Let earth, let heaven, Hosanna sing.
Hosanna in the Highest!

2 O Saviour, with protecting care
Return to this Thy House of Prayer;
Where we Thy parting promise claim,
Assembled in Thy sacred Name.
Hosanna in the Highest!

3 But, chiefest, in our cleansèd breast,
Eternal! bid Thy Spirit rest;
And make our secret soul to be
A temple pure, and worthy Thee!
Hosanna in the Highest!

4 So, in the last and dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall melt away,
Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,
Shall swell the sound of praise again.
Hosanna in the Highest! Amen.
384 "The Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them."—Rev. vii. 17.

1 How bright these glorious spirits shine!
   Whence all their white array?
   How came they to the blissful seats
   Of everlasting day?

2 Lo! these are they, from sufferings great,
   Who came to realms of light;
   And in the Blood of Christ have washed
   Those robes which shine so bright.

3 Now with triumphal palms they stand
   Before the throne on high,
   And serve the God they love amidst
   The glories of the sky.

4 His presence fills each heart with joy,
   Tunes every mouth to sing;
   By day, by night, the sacred courts
   With glad Hosannas ring.

5 Hunger and thirst are felt no more,
   Nor suns with scorching ray;
   God is their Sun, whose cheering beams
   Diffuse eternal day.

6 The Lamb which dwells amidst the throne
   Shall o'er them still preside,
   Feed them with nourishment divine,
   And all their footsteps guide.

7 In pastures green He'll lead His flock
   Where living streams appear;
   And God the Lord from every eye
   Shall wipe off every tear. Amen.
"O Lord, how long?"—Ps. vi. 3.

1 How long, O Lord, how long, we ask,
   Before our spirits shall be free,
   Before we reach the golden land,
   And Israel's strong salvation see?

2 How long, O Lord, how long? they cry,
   Beneath Thine altar day and night,
   Who with deep yearning hearts await
   The fulness of celestial light.

3 How long, O Lord? creation cries:
   The tribes of men take up the strain;
   When shall the poor oppressed go free,
   The captive cast away his chain?

4 O Jesu, who didst win us back
   From sin and death to God and grace,
   When shall we tread the shining streets,
   And see Thy glory face to face?

5 We are impatient, and forget
   The battle stern that must be won.
   Help us, O Lord, in Thee to strive,
   And then to pray, "Thy will be done."

6 For first the strife, and then the crown;
   First the day's march, and then the rest;
   First comes the watch, the cross, the grave,
   And then the Sabbath, bright and blest.

7 Thou art our Strength! No foe shall harm,
   Thy love shall shield us to the last,
   Thou art our Life! Since Thou hast died,
   The bitterness of death is past! Amen.

"How long, O Lord, holy and true." —Rev. vi. 10.

1 How long, O Lord, our Saviour,
   Wilt Thou remain away?
   Our hearts are growing weary
   Of Thy so long delay.
   Oh, when shall come the moment
   When, brighter far than morn,
   The sunshine of Thy glory
   Shall on Thy people dawn.

2 How long, O heavenly Bridegroom,
   How long wilt Thou delay?
   And yet how few are grieving
   That Thou dost absent stay!
   The bridal train their vigil
   And calling have forgot,
   And seek for ease and slumber,
   Where Thou, their Lord, art not.

3 Oh, wake Thy slumbering virgins,
   Send forth the solemn cry,
   Let all the saints repeat it—
   "The Bridegroom draweth nigh!"
   May all our lamps be burning,
   Our loins well girded be,
   Each longing heart preparing
   With joy Thy Face to see. Amen.
"Lord, how excellent is Thy Name in all the earth."—Ps. viii. 1.

1 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds
   In a believer's ear!
   It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
   And drives away his fear.

2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
   And calms the troubled breast;
   'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
   And to the weary rest.

3 Dear Name! the rock on which I build!
   My shield and hiding-place!
   My never-failing treasury, filled
   With boundless stores of grace!

4 Jesus! my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
   My Prophet, Priest, and King,
   My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
   Accept the praise I bring.

5 Weak is the effort of my heart,
   And cold my warmest thought;
   But when I see Thee as Thou art,
   I'll praise Thee as I ought.

6 Till then I would Thy love proclaim
   With every fleeting breath;
   And may the music of Thy Name
   Refresh my soul in death! Amen.
"He that cometh to Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth in Me shall never thirst."—St. John vi. 35.

1 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Come unto Me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon My breast."
I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary, and worn, and sad;
I found in Him a resting-place,
And He has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Behold, I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down, and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in Him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's Light;
Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In Him my Star, my Sun;
And in that Light of life I'll walk
Till travelling days are done. Amen.

First Verse.

"He that cometh to Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth in Me shall never thirst."—St. John vi. 35.
"Father, forgive them."—St. Luke xxiii. 34.

1 I see the crowd in Pilate's hall,
  Their furious cries I hear;
  Their shouts of "Crucify!" appal,
  Their curses fill mine ear.

2 And of that shouting multitude
  I feel that I am one;
  And in that din of voices rude
  I recognize my own.

3 I see the scourgers rend the Flesh
  Of God's belovéd Son;
  And as they smite I feel afresh
  That I of them am one,

4 Around yon Cross the throng I see
  That mock the Sufferer's groan,
  Yet still my voice it seems to be,
  As if I mocked alone.

5 'Twas I that shed the sacred Blood,
  I nailed Him to the tree,
  I crucified the Christ of God,
  I joined the mockery.

6 Yet not the less that Blood avails
  To cleanse away my sin,
  And not the less that Cross prevails
  To give me peace within. Amen.

1. Jerusalem, my happy home,
   When shall I come to thee?
   When shall my sorrows have an end?
   Thy joys when shall I see?
   O happy harbour of the saints!
   O sweet and pleasant soil!
   In thee no sorrow may be found,
   No grief, no care, no toil.

2. There lust and lucre cannot dwell,
   There envy bears no sway;
   There is no hunger, heat, nor cold,
   But pleasure every way.
   Thy walls are made of precious stones,
   Thy bulwarks diamond square;
   Thy gates are of right orient pearl,
   Exceeding rich and rare.

(See also "Vox Jesu," No. 388. Second Tune.)

"Jerusalem which is above, is free."—Gal. iv. 26.
GENERAL HYMNS.

3 Thy turrets and thy pinnacles
   With carbuncles do shine;
   Thy very streets are paved with gold,
   Surpassing clear and fine.
Ah, my sweet home, Jerusalem,
   Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end,
   Thy joys that I might see!

4 Thy saints with glory shall be crowned,
   Shall see God face to face;
   They triumph still, they still rejoice,
   Most happy is their case.
Our sweet is mixed with bitter gall,
   Our pleasure is but pain,
   Our joys scarce last the looking on,
   Our sorrows still remain.

5 Thy gardens and thy gallant walks
   Continually are green,
   There grow such sweet and pleasant flowers
   As no where else are seen.
Quite through the streets, with silver sound,
   The flood of Life doth flow;
   Upon whose banks on every side
   The wood of Life doth grow.

6 There trees for evermore bear fruit,
   And evermore do spring;
   There evermore the Angels sit,
   And evermore do sing.
Jerusalem, my happy home,
   Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end,
   Thy joys that I might see! Amen.

"The heavenly Jerusalem."—Heb. xii. 22.

1 Jerusalem, my happy home,
   Name ever dear to me,
   When shall my labours have an end
   In joy, and peace, and thee?

2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
   And gates of pearl behold,
   Thy bulwarks with salvation strong,
   And streets of shining gold?

3 Apostles, Martyrs, Prophets there
   Around my Saviour stand;
   And all I love in Christ below
   Will join the glorious band.

4 Jerusalem, my happy home,
   My soul still pants for thee;
   Then shall my labours have an end
   When I thy joys shall see. Amen.
"Our conversation is in heaven."—Phil. iii. 20.

1 Jerusalem on high
My song and city is,
My home whene'er I die,
The centre of my bliss:
Oh happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy face?

2 There dwells my Lord, my King,
Judged here unfit to live;
There Angels to Him sing,
And lowly homage give:
Oh happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy face?

3 The patriarchs of old
There from their travels cease;
The prophets there behold
Their longed-for Prince of Peace:
Oh happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy face?

4 The Lamb's apostles there
I might with joy behold;
The harpers I might hear
Harping on harps of gold:
Oh happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy face?

5 The bleeding martyrs, they
Within those courts are found,
Clothed in pure array,
Their scars with glory crowned:
Oh happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy face?

6 Ah me! ah me, that I
In Kedar's tents here stay!
No place like that on high;
Cres. Lord, thither guide my way:
Oh happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee,
To see Thy face? Amen.

"And he shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem."—Rev. xxii. 10.

1 Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest!
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppressed.

dim. I know not, oh! I know not What joys await us there,
What radiance of glory,
What light beyond compare!

2 They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song;
And bright with many an Angel
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David,
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast:
And they, who with their Leader
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

4 Jerusalem the glorious!
The glory of the elect!
Oh, dear and happy vision
That eager hearts expect!
O Jesu! quickly bring us
To that bright land of rest,
Who art with God the Father,
And Spirit ever blest. Amen.
P 1 Jesu, Lover of my soul,
    Let me to Thy bosom fly,
    While the waters nearer roll,
    While the tempest still is high.

    Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
    Till the storm of life is past:
    Safe into the haven guide,
    Oh, receive my soul at last!

2 Other refuge have I none,
    Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
    Leave—ah! leave me not alone,
    Still support and comfort me.

    All my trust on Thee is stayed,
    All my help from Thee I bring;
    Cover my defenceless head
    With the shadow of Thy wing.

3 Wilt Thou not regard my call?
    Wilt Thou not accept my prayer?
    Lo! I sink, I faint, I fall!
    Lo! on Thee I cast my care.

   Reach me out Thy gracious hand!
    While I of Thy strength receive,
    Hoping against hope, I stand;
    Dying, and, behold, I live!

4 Thou, O Christ, are all I want;
    More than all in Thee I find:
    Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
    Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

    Just and holy is Thy name;
    I am all unrighteousness:
    False and full of sin I am;
    Thou art full of truth and grace.

5 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
    Grace to cover all my sin;
    Let the healing streams abound,
    Make and keep me pure within.

   Thou of life the fountain art,
    Freely let me take of Thee;
    Spring Thou up within my heart;
    Rise to all eternity. Amen.

401  "They forsook all, and followed Him."—St. Luke v. 11.

1 Jesu, still lead on,
   Till our rest be won!
   And although the way be cheerless,
   We will follow, calm and fearless;
   Guide us by Thy hand
   To our fatherland.

2 If the way be drear,
    If the foe be near,
    Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
    Let not faith and hope forsake us,
    For, through many a foe,
    To our home we go!

   From a long-felt grief,—
   When oppressed by new temptations,
   Lord, increase and perfect patience;
   Show us that bright shore
   Where we weep no more!

"Unto you which believe He is precious."—1 St. Pet. ii. 7.

1 Jesu! the very thought is sweet:
   In that dear Name all heart-joys meet:
   But, oh! than honey sweeter far
   The glimpses of His Presence are.

2 No word is sung more sweet than this,
   No sound is heard more full of bliss,
   No thought brings sweeter comfort nigh,
   Than Jesus, Son of God most High.

3 Jesu, the hope of souls forlorn,
   How good to them for sin that mourn!
   To them that seek Thee, oh, how kind!
   But what art Thou to them that find?

4 No tongue of mortal can express,
   No pen can write the blessedness;
   He only who hath proved it knows
   What bliss from love of Jesus flows.

5 O Jesu, King of wondrous might!
   O Victor, glorious from the fight!
   Sweetness that may not be expressed,
   And altogether loveliest!

6 Abide with us, O Lord, to-day;
   Fulfil us with Thy grace, we pray;
   And with Thine own true sweetness feed
   Our souls, from sin and darkness freed. Amen.

St. Gregory.

"The fulness of Him that filleth all in all."—Eph. i. 23.

1 Jesus, Thou joy of loving hearts!
Thou Fount of life, Thou Light of men!
From the best bliss that earth imparts
We turn unfilled to Thee again.

2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on Thee call;
cres. To them that seek Thee Thou art good;
f To them that find Thee, all in all!

3 We taste Thee, O Thou living Bread,
And long to feast upon Thee still;
We drink of Thee, the Fountain-head,
And thirst our souls from Thee to fill.

4 Our restless spirits yearn for Thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad when Thy gracious smile we see,
Blest when our faith can hold Thee fast.

5 O Jesu, ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away;
cres. Shed o'er the world Thy holy light. Amen.

"He left all, rose up, and followed Him."—St. Luke v. 28.

1 Jesus calls us; o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild restless sea
Day by day His sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, "Christian, follow Me;"

2 As, of old, Saint Andrew heard it
By the Galilean lake,
Turn'd from home, and toil, and kindred,
Leaving all for His dear sake.

3 Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, "Christian, love Me more."

4 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
"That we love Him more than these."

5 Jesus calls us; By Thy mercies,
Saviour, make us hear Thy call,
Give our hearts to Thine obedience,
Serve and love Thee best of all. Amen.
405 "I am He that liveth, and was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore."—Rev. i. 18.

1 Jesus lives! Thy terrors now
Can no longer, Death, appal us;
Jesus lives! By this we know
Thou, O Grave, canst not enthrall us. Alleluia!

2 Jesus lives! Henceforth is death
But the gate of life immortal;
This shall calm our trembling breath,
When we pass its gloomy portal. (f) Alleluia!

3 Jesus lives! For us He died:
Then, alone to Jesus living,
Pure in heart may we abide,
Glory to our Saviour giving. Alleluia!

4 Jesus lives! Our hearts know well
Nought from us His love shall sever;
Life, nor death, nor powers of hell
Tear us from His keeping ever. Alleluia!

5 Jesus lives! To Him the throne
Over all the world is given;
May we go where He is gone,
Rest and reign with Him in heaven. Alleluia!

Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

406 "For above every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come."—Eph. i. 21.

1 Jesus! Name of wondrous love!
Name all other names above!
Un to which must every knee
Bow in deep humility.

2 Jesus! Name decreed of old;
To the maiden mother told,
Kneeling in her lowly cell,
By the Angel Gabriel.

3 Jesus! Name of priceless worth
To the fallen sons of earth
For the promise that it gave,
"Jesus shall His people save."

4 Jesus! Name of mercy mild,
Given to the holy Child,
When the cup of human woe
First He tasted here below.

5 Jesus! Only Name that's given
Under all the mighty heaven,
Whereby man, to sin enslaved,
Bursts his fetters, and is saved.

6 Jesus! Name of wondrous love!
Human Name of God above!
Pleading only this we flee,
Helpless, O our God, to Thee. Amen.

407 "His Name shall endure for ever. All nations shall call Him Blessed."—Ps. lxxii. 17.

1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 To Him shall endless prayer be made,
And princes throng to crown His head;
His Name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His Name.

4 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains,
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

5 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honours to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.
General Hymns.

1 Just as I am, without one plea
   But that Thy Blood was shed for me,
   And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
   To rid my soul of one dark blot,
   To Thee, whose Blood can cleanse each spot,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
   With many a conflict, many a doubt,
   Fightings and fears within, without,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
   Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
   Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
   Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
   Because Thy promise I believe,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

6 Just as I am—Thy love unknown
   Has broken every barrier down;
   Now, to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

410 "I am the Lord, thy God, which leadeth thee by the way thou shouldest go."—Isa. xlviii. 17.

1 Lead us, Heavenly Father, lead us
   O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guide us, guard us, keep us, feed us,
   For we have no help but Thee;
Yet possessing every blessing,
   If our God our Father be.

2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us,
   All our weakness Thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
   Thou didst feel its keenest woe:
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
   Through the desert Thou didst go.

3 Spirit of our God, descending,
   Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every feeling blending,
   Pleasures that can never cloy.
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,

411 “God is the King of all the earth, sing ye praises with understanding.”—Ps. xlvii. 7.

1 Let all the world in every corner sing

The earth is not too low,
   His praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing
   My God and King!

2 Let all the world in every corner sing
   My God and King!

But above all the heart

Let all the world in every corner sing
   My God and King! Amen.

412

"And where I am, there shall also My servant be."—St. John xii. 26.

1 Let me be with Thee where Thou art
My Saviour, my eternal Rest:
Then only will this longing heart
Be fully and completely blest.

2 Let me be with Thee where Thou art,
Thy unveiled glory to behold;
Then only will this wandering heart
Cease to be treacherous, faithless, cold.

3 Let me be with Thee where Thou art,
Where spotless saints Thy Name adore,
Then only will this evil heart
Be sinful and defiled no more.

4 Let me be with Thee where Thou art,
Where none can die, where none remove;
There neither life nor death can part
Me from Thy presence and Thy love! Amen.

"Let them praise the Name of the Lord, for He commanded, and they were created."—Ps. cxlvii. 5.

1 Let us raise our grateful voices;
Nature all with us rejoices
Homage to our God to bring,— Voices hymning deepest yearning
Of our hearts intent on learning
How God's praise we best may sing.

Lakes and rivers, sparkling fountains,
Join the never-resting throng!
Beasts and birds, all God's creation,
Filled with holy aspiration,
cres. Swell the universal song!

3 Let not man, of all God's creatures
Nobler far—for in man's features
God's own image we behold,—
Let not man in adoration cres. Fall behind. By ev'ry nation
f Let His praise in song be told!
4 God and Father, deign to hear us,
Son Eternal, come Thou near us,
Holy Spirit, present be;
cres. As, with Angels blest and mortals,
f High above to Heaven's bright portals
Swells our psalm of praise to Thee! Amen.

Ever Faithful, ever Sure.  P.M.

First and last verses.

(Last verse.)

Arthur Sullivan.

1 Let us with a gladsome mind
   Praise the Lord, for He is kind;
   For His mercies aye endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure!

2 Who by His wisdom did create
   The painted heavens so full of state:
   For His mercies aye endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure!

3 Who did the solid earth ordain
   To rise above the watery plain:
   For His mercies aye endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure!

4 Who by His all-commanding might,
   Did fill the new-made world with light:
   For His mercies aye endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure!

414 "O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endureth for ever."—Ps. cxxxvi. 1.
5 And caused the golden-tressed sun
   All the day long his course to run:
   For His mercies aye endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure!

6 The hornèd moon to shine by night,
   Amongst her spangled sisters bright:
   For His mercies aye endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure!

7 All living creatures He doth feed,
   And with full hand supplies their need:
   For His mercies aye endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure!

8 Let us therefore warble forth
   His mighty majesty and worth:
   For His mercies aye endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure! Amen.

"Surely the Lord is in this place."—Gen. xxviii. 16.

1 Lo, God is here! Let us adore,
   And own how dreadful is this place;
   Let all within us feel His power,
   And humbly bow before His face.

2 Lo, God is here, whom day and night
   United choirs of angels praise;
   Cres. To Him, enthroned above all height,
   The host of heaven their anthems raise.

3 Almighty Father, may our praise
   Thy courts with grateful fragrance fill;
   Still may we stand before Thy face,
   Still bear and do Thy sovereign will.

4 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   The God whom earth and heaven adore,
   From men and from the Angel-host
   Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.
Lo! the voice of Jesus
Fondly speaks to all;
He it is who frees us
From sin's bitter thrall:
He it is whose nature,
Human as our own,
Pleads for every creature
By the Father's throne.

Lo! the voice of Jesus,
Heard within the breast,
Tells us He will ease us,
Howse'er distrest—
Tells us that our sorrow
For the night may last,
But a glad to-morrow
Breaks upon us fast.

Lo! the voice of Jesus
Bids us still endure,
Seek not what will please us,
But things just and pure;
Strive through self-denial
Upwards to the light,
Where Faith's years of trial
Shall be lost in sight. Amen.
417

"We shall see Him as He is."—St. John iii. 2.

1 Lord, if on earth the thought of Thee
   Be life, and strength, and peace,
   How blessed shall that vision be
   Which never more can cease!

2 How blest when we Thy glory see
   In light without a shade;
   The glory which surrounded Thee
   Before the worlds were made!

3 Darkly to us, as through a glass,
   Thy beauty now is shown;
   Then we shall see Thee face to face,
   And know as we are known.

4 Then purge, O Lord, our hearts from sin,
   Hathlow Thine own abode,
   That nought unclean be found within
   The temple of our God. Amen.

"My soul is even as a weaned child."—Ps. cxxxi. 2.

1 Lord, if Thou the grace impart,
   Poor in spirit, meek in heart,
   Like our Master we shall be,
   Clothed with humility.

2 Simple, teachable, and mild;
   Humble as a little child;
   Pleased with what the Lord provides;
   Weaned from all the world besides.

3 Father, fix our souls on Thee;
   Every evil let us flee;
   Always happy in Thy love;
   Looking for our rest above.

4 Oh, that all might seek and find
   Every good in Christ combined!
   Oh, that all might Him adore,
   Trust Him, praise Him, evermore! Amen.

"Looking diligently, lest any man fail of the grace of God."—Heb. xii. 15.

1 Lord, in this Thy mercy's day,
Ere it wholly pass away,
On our knees we fall and pray.

2 Holy Jesu, grant us tears,
Fill us with heart-searching fears,
Ere that awful doom appears.

3 Lord, on us Thy Spirit pour,
Kneeling lowly at the door,
Ere it close for evermore.

4 By Thy night of agony,
By Thy supplicating cry,
By Thy willingness to die.

5 By Thy tears of bitter woe
For Jerusalem below,
Let us not Thy love forego.

6 Grant us 'neath Thy wings a place,
Lest we lose this day of grace,
Lest we never see Thy face. Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

420  "Our fathers have told us what work Thou didst in their days, in the times of old."—Ps. xliv. 1.

1 Lord, in whose eternal counsels
   Past and Future are as one,
With Thy grace and Thy protection
Bless Thy work in us begun;
By our hands maintain Thy conflict
Till the victory be won.

2 It was the resistless power
   Of Thy quickening Spirit's flame
That upon our night of darkness
Full of light and healing came,
Bidding us arise and serve Thee,
   To the glory of Thy Name.

3 With Thy glory for our watchword,
   And our confidence in Thee,
In Thy might our weakness prospered;
   Faint, yet not distressed are we:
Still in hope, by faithful warfare,
   Thy co-heirs of joy to be.

4 Great Thy work for us already,
   Lord, wherein we now rejoice:
Oh! with Thy sure help for ever
   Bless the people of Thy choice,
Make us follow where Thou goest,
   Faithful to our Shepherd's voice.

5 From the chiding of the godless,
   From the harshness of the proud,
Save us, trusting to Thy Presence,
   Though the strife of tongues wax loud;
As we journey through the desert
   Lead us with Thy guiding cloud.

6 So to Thee, O loving Father;
   So to Thee, Incarnate Son;
So to Thee, Creator Spirit;
   Ever Three and ever One;
Be the glory of the wonders
   Which Thy hand alone hath done! Amen.

ST. HUGH.  C.M.  E. J. HOPKINS.

421  "So shall we ever be with the Lord."—1 Thess. iv. 17.

1 Lord, it belongs not to our care
   Whether we die or live;
To love and serve Thee is our share,
   And this Thy grace must give.

2 If life be long, oh, make us glad
   The longer to obey;
If short, no labourer is sad
   To end his toilsome day.

3 Christ leads us through no darker rooms
   Than He went through before;
He that unto God's kingdom comes
   Must enter by this door.

4 Come, Lord, when grace hath made us meet
   Thy blessed face to see;
For if Thy work on earth be sweet, cres. What will Thy glory be?

5 There shall we end our sad complaints,
   Our weary sinful days,
   And join with the triumphant saints
   That sing Jehovah's praise.

6 Our knowledge of that life is small,
   The eye of faith is dim:
   Enough for us that Christ knows all,
   And we shall be with Him. Amen.
422 "Thou, Lord, art plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon Thee."—Ps. lxxxvi. 5.

1 Lord of mercy and of might,
   Of mankind the life and light,
   Maker, Teacher infinite,
   p Jesu, hear and save!
2 Who, when sin's primæval doom
   Gave creation to the tomb,
   Didst not scorn a Virgin's womb,
   p Jesu, hear and save!
3 Strong Creator! Saviour mild!
   Humbled to a mortal child,
   Captive, beaten, bound, reviled,
   f Jesu, hear and save!
   f 4 Throned above celestial things,
   f Borne aloft on Angels' wings,
   f Lord of lords, and King of kings,
   f Jesu, hear and save!
4 Soon to come to earth again,
   Judge of Angels and of men,
   Hear us now, and hear us then,
   p Jesu, hear and save! Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

423

"How amiable are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of Hosts."—Ps. lxxxiv. 1.

1 Lord of the worlds above,
   How pleasant and how fair
The dwellings of Thy love,
Thy earthly temples, are!
   To Thine abode
   My heart aspires,
   With warm desires,
   To see my God.

2 Oh, happy souls that pray
   Where God appoints to hear!
Oh, happy men that pay
   Their constant service there!
   They praise Thee still;
   And happy they
   That love the way
   To Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
   Through this dark vale of tears,
   Till each arrives at length,
   Till each in heaven appears;

   F  Oh, glorious seat!
When God, our King,
   Shall thither bring
   Our willing feet!

   F 4 God is our Sun and Shield,
Our Light and our Defence;
   With gifts His hands are filled,
   We draw our blessings thence.
   Thrice happy he,
   O God of Hosts,
   Whose spirit trusts
   Alone in Thee. Amen.

424 "O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come."—Ps. lxv. 2.

1 Lord, teach us how to pray aright,
   With reverence and with fear;
Though dust and ashes in Thy sight,
   We may, we must, draw near.

2 We perish if we cease from prayer;
   Oh, grant us power to pray!
And when to meet Thee we prepare,
   Lord, meet us by the way.

3 Burdened with guilt, convinced of sin,
   In weakness, want, and woe,
   Fightings without, and fears within,
   Lord, whither shall we go?

4 God of all grace, we come to Thee,
   With broken, contrite hearts;
   Give what Thine eye delights to see,
   Truth in the inward parts;

5 And faith in that One Sacrifice
   That can for sin atone;
   To rest our hopes, to fix our eyes,
   On Christ, on Christ alone. Amen.

"Narrow is the way which leadeth unto life."—St. Matt. vii. 14.

1 Lord, Thy children guide and keep,
    As with feeble steps they press
On the pathway rough and steep
Through this weary wilderness.
   p Holy Jesu, day by day
   p Lead us in the narrow way.

2 There are stony ways to tread;
    Give the strength we sorely lack:
There are tangled paths to thread;
Light us, lest we miss the track.
   p Holy Jesu, day by day
   p Lead us in the narrow way.

3 There are sandy wastes that lie
    Cold and sunless, vast and drear,
Where the feeble faint and die;
Grant us grace to persevere.
   p Holy Jesu, day by day
   p Lead us in the narrow way.

4 There are soft and flowery glades
    Decked with golden-fruited trees;
Sunny slopes, and scented shades:
Keep us, Lord, from slothful ease.
   p Holy Jesu, day by day
   p Lead us in the narrow way.

5 Upward still to purer heights,
    Onward yet to scenes more blest,
Calmer regions, clearer lights,
Till we reach the promised rest.
   p Holy Jesu, day by day
   p Lead us in the narrow way. Amen.

1 Lord, to whom except to Thee
Shall our wandering spirits go—

2 Though Thy dread mysterious word
Hard to human sense may prove,
Where can deeper truth be heard,

Which the Spirit’s breath inspires,
And the food must be divine
Which each new-born soul desires.

Who can love as Thou hast loved?
Who can do as Thou hast done?

7 Who can cleanse the soul from sin,
Hear the prayer, and seal the vow?
Who can fill the void within,
Blessèd Saviour, who but Thou?

8 Therefore evermore I'll give Thanks and praise, my God, to Thee;
Evermore in Thee I live,
Evermore live Thou in me. Amen.

St. Flavian.

Abraham Barber’s Psalter, 1687.

“Give ear unto my prayer that goeth not out of feigned lips.”—Ps. xvii. 1.

1 Lord, when we bend before Thy throne,
And our confessions pour,
Teach us to feel the sins we own,
And hate what we deplore.

2 Our broken spirits pitying see;
True penitence impart;
Then let a kindling glance from Thee
Beam hope upon the heart.

3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
May we our wills resign,
And not a thought our bosom share
That is not wholly Thine;

4 May faith each meek petition fill,
And waft it to the skies;
And teach our hearts ‘tis goodness still
That grants it, or denies. Amen.

"We have known and believed the love that God hath to us."—1 St. John iv. 16.

| 1 | Love divine, all love excelling,                           | 2 | Come, Almighty to deliver!                                |
|   | Joy of heaven, to earth come down!                        |   | Let us all Thy Life receive;                              |
|   | Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,                            |   | Suddenly return, and never,                               |
|   | All Thy faithful mercies crown.                           |   | Never more Thy temples leave.                             |
|   | Jesu! Thou art all compassion,                            |   | Thee would we be always blessing,                         |
|   | Pure, unbounded Love Thou art;                             |   | Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,                             |
|   | Visit us with Thy salvation,                              |   | Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,                     |
|   | Enter every trembling heart.                              |   | Glory in Thy perfect love.                                 |

3 | Finish then Thy new creation;                             |
   | Pure and spotless may we be;                              |
|   | Let us see Thy great salvation,                           |
|   | Perfectly restored in Thee:                               |
| cresc. | Changed from glory into glory,                           |
| f     | Till in heaven we take our place,                         |
| f     | Till we cast our crowns before Thee,                       |
| f     | Lost in wonder, love, and praise! Amen.                   |
431 "Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ."—2 Tim. ii. 3.

1 March, march onward, soldiers true! Take through cloud and mist your way,
Yonder flows the fount of life, yonder dwells eternal day.
March, though myriad foes are nigh, forward till ye reach the shore,
Then, when all the strife is done, rest in peace for evermore.

2 Hark, hark, loud the trumpet sounds! Wake, ye children of the light;
Time is past for sloth and sleep; wake and arm you for the fight.
Spear and sword each warrior needs; foes are round you, friends are few;
Faint not, though the way be long: fainting, still your way pursue.

3 See, see, yonder shines your home: gates of pearl and walls of gold,
Joy that heart hath never known, bliss that tongue hath never told.
Victors then through Christ your Lord, gathered round His glorious throne,
Be it yours to sing His praise, praise that He, your King, shall own.

4 Praise, praise Him who reigns on high! Praise the co-eternal Son, Praise the Spirit, Lord of life, praise the blessed Three in One.
Praise Him, ye who toll and fight; praise Him, ye who bear the palm;
As the sound of mighty seas, pour your everlasting psalm. Amen.
"Not my will, but Thine, be done."—St. Luke xxii. 42.

My God and Father, while I stray
Far from my home in life's rough way,
Oh, teach me from my heart to say,
pp Thy will be done!

Though dark my path and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not,
Or breathe the prayer divinely taught,
pp Thy will be done!

What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved, no longer nigh,
Submissive still would I reply,
pp Thy will be done!

Though Thou hast called me to resign
What most I prized, it ne'er was mine,
I have but yielded what was Thine;
pp Thy will be done!

Let but my fainting heart be blest
With Thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to Thee I leave the rest;
pp Thy will be done!

Renew my will from day to day;
Blend it with Thine; and take away
All that now makes it hard to say,
pp Thy will be done!

Then, when on earth I breathe no more cres. The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
f I'll sing upon a happier shore,
dim. Thy will be done! Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

433  "Dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto."—1 Tim. vi. 16.

1 My God, how wonderful Thou art!
   Thy Majesty how bright!
   How beautiful Thy mercy-seat,
   In depths of burning light!

2 How dread are Thine eternal years,
   O everlasting Lord,
   By prostrate spirits day and night
   Incessantly adored!

3 How wonderful, how beautiful,
   The sight of Thee must be,
   Thine endless wisdom, boundless power,
   And awful purity!

4 Yet I may love Thee too, O Lord,
   Almighty as Thou art,
   For Thou hast stooped to ask of me
   The love of my poor heart.

5 No earthly father loves like Thee,
   No mother, e'er so mild,
   Bears and forbears as Thou hast done
   With me Thy sinful child.

6 Father of Jesus, love's Reward,
   What rapture will it be
   Prostrate before Thy throne to lie,
   And gaze and gaze on Thee! Amen.

434  "We love Him, because He first loved us."—1 St. John iv. 19.

P 1 My God, I love Thee, not because
   I hope for heaven thereby,
   Nor yet because who love Thee not
   Must die eternally.

2 Thou, O my Jesus, Thou didst me
   Upon the Cross embrace;
   For me didst bear the nails and spear,
   And manifold disgrace;

3 And griefs and torments numberless,
   And sweat of agony;
   Yea, death itself; and all for me
   Who was Thine enemy.

4 Then why, O blessed Jesu Christ,
   Should I not love Thee well?
   Not for the hope of winning heaven,
   Nor of escaping hell;

5 Not with the hope of gaining aught,
   Not seeking a reward;
   But as Thyself hast loved me,
   O ever-loving Lord!

6 So would I love Thee, dearest Lord,
   And in Thy praise will sing;
   Solely because Thou art my God,
   And my Eternal King. Amen.
435 "Mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up."—Ps. xl. 12.

P 1 My sins have taken such an hold on me,
   I am not able to look up to Thee;
   \( \text{mf Lord, I repent; (pp) accept my tears and grief:} \)
F  But Thou hast taken all my sin away,
   And I in Thee dare now look up and pray:
   \( \text{Lord, I believe; (p) help Thou mine unbelief.} \)

   Of careless thoughts and words and works and ways,

   And the Forgiveness which can all forgive,

GENERAL HYMNS.

P 3 Of selfishness which makes the soul unjust,
Envy and strife, and every sinful lust,
\( \text{mf} \) Lord, I repent; (pp) accept my tears and grief:
\( \text{F} \) And in the Blood, which doth my pardon plead,
The Truth and Love, which for me intercede,
Lord, I believe; (p) help Thou mine unbelief.

P 4 Of sins that as a cloud have hid Thy face,
Of Thy care slighted, and Thy grieved grace,
\( \text{mf} \) Lord, I repent; (pp) accept my tears and grief:
\( \text{F} \) In love which puts sin's envious veil aside,
Rending the veil of flesh which for me died,
Lord, I believe; (p) help Thou mine unbelief.

P 5 Sin is my sorrow, passion is my pain,
To Thee their vileness, and in me their stain;
\( \text{mf} \) Lord, I repent; (pp) accept my tears and grief:
\( \text{F} \) Christ is my joy; and out of all distress
He doth deliver with His righteousness:

"My soul longeth for Thee."—Ps. lxiii. 1.

P 1 My spirit longs for Thee
Within my troubled breast,
Though I unworthy be
Of so divine a Guest:

2 Of so divine a Guest
Unworthy though I be,
Yet has my heart no rest,
Unless it come from Thee:

3 Unless it come from Thee,
In vain I look around;
In all that I can see
No rest is to be found:

4 No rest is to be found,
But in Thy blessed love:
Oh, let my wish be crowned,
And send it from above! Amen.
This and the tune on the next page (St. John) may be interchanged.

"Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you."—St. James iv. 8,

1 Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee!
E'en though it be a cross that raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be—
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee.

2 Though like the wanderer (the sun gone down),
Darkness be over me—my rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee.

3 Then let the way appear steps unto heaven,
All that Thou sendest me in mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee.

4 Then, with my waking thoughts bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee.

5 Or if on joyful wing cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot, upwards I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee. Amen.
"And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me."—St. John xii. 32.

1. Nearer, O God, to Thee! Hear Thou my prayer.
   E'en though a heavy cross fainting I bear,
   Still all my prayer shall be,
   Cres. Nearer, O God, to Thee; (dim.) nearer to Thee!

2. If, where they led my Lord, I too am borne,
   Planting my steps in His, weary and worn,
   Oh, may they carry me
   Cres. Nearer, O God, to Thee; (dim.) nearer to Thee!

3. If Thou the cup of pain givest to drink,
   Let not my trembling lip from the draught shrink;
   So by my woes to be
   Cres. Nearer, O God, to Thee; (dim.) nearer to Thee!

4. Though the great battle rage hotly around,
   Still where my Captain fights let me be found;
   Through toils and strife to be
   Cres. Nearer, O God, to Thee; (dim.) nearer to Thee!

5. When, my course finished, I breathe my last breath,
   Ent'ring the shadowy valley of death,
   There too I still shall be Nearer, O God, to Thee; nearer to Thee!

6. And when Thou, Lord, once more glorious shalt come,
   Oh for a dwelling-place in Thy bright home!
   Through all eternity
   Nearer, O God, to Thee; (dim.) nearer to Thee! Amen.
439 "Now, therefore, our God, we thank Thee, and praise Thy glorious Name."—1 Chron. xxix. 13.

1 Now thank we all our God,
With heart, and hands, and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

2 Oh, may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever-joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

3 All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and Him who reigns
With them in highest heaven!
The One Eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

440 "Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of Thy wings."—Ps. xvii. 8.

1 O Christ our King, give ear;
   O Lord and Maker, hear;
   And guide our footsteps lest they stray.
   Thy right hand be stretched out,
   Thy left be round about,
   In every peril that we meet!

2 Defend our onward path,
   Protect from hostile wrath,
   And bring us to Thy holy seat.
   And oh, good Lord, at last,
   Our many wanderings past,
   Give us to see Thy realm of light!

3 And Thy faithful guardian send,
   Thine Angel, who may tend,
   And lead us on our holy way.
   Glory to God on high,
   Be paid eternally,
   And praise, and majesty, and might! Amen.

441 "O send out Thy light and Thy truth; let them lead me."—Ps. xliii. 3.

1 O everlasting Light,
   Give of dawn and day,
   Dispeller of the ancient night
   In which creation lay;

2 O everlasting Health,
   From which all healing springs,
   Our Bliss, our Treasure, and our Wealth,
   To Thee our spirit clings!

3 O everlasting Truth,
   Truest of all that's true;

4 Sure Guide of erring age and youth,
   Lead us, and teach us too!

5 O everlasting Strength,
   Uphold us in the way;
   Bring us, in spite of foes, at length
   To joy, and light, and day!

6 O everlasting Love,
   Wellspring of grace and peace;
   Pour down Thy fulness from above,
   Bid doubt and trouble cease! Amen.

"And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead."—Rev. i. 17.

1 O God, enshrined in dazzling light
   Above the highest sphere,
   My soul is filled with awe to feel
   That Thou art present here.

2 Thine Eye is as a lamp of fire,
   And in its searching flame
   I see myself, all stained with sin,
   And bow my head with shame.

   But, O my God, Thy Son hath died!
   And from the dust I rise,
   And from myself and all my sin
   To Thee I lift mine eyes.

   My sins are dark, but over all
   Thy burning love I see;
   And all my soul is full of praise,
   And worships only Thee. Amen.

1 O God of hosts, the mighty Lord,
   How lovely is the place
   Where Thou, enthroned in glory, show'st
   The brightness of Thy face!

2 Thrice happy they whose choice has Thee
   Their sure protection made;
   Who long to tread the sacred ways
   That to Thy dwelling lead!

3 For in Thy courts one single day
   'Tis better to attend,
   Than, Lord, in any place besides
   A thousand days to spend.

4 For God, who is our sun and shield,
   Will grace and glory give;
   And no good thing will He withhold
   From them that justly live.

5 Thou God, whom heavenly hosts obey,
   How highly blest is he,
   Whose hope and trust, securely placed,
   Is still reposed on Thee! Amen.

St. David. C.M. Playford's Psalter, 1671.
445 "Thou hast given a banner to them that fear Thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth."—Ps. lx. 4.

1 O God of Truth, whose living Word Upholds whate'er has breath, Look down on Thy created sons Enslaved by sin and death.

2 Set up Thy standard, Lord, that we Who claim a heavenly birth, May march with Thee to smite the lies That vex Thy groaning earth.

3 Ah! would we join that blest array, And follow in the might Of Him, the Faithful and the True, In raiment clean and white?

4 How can we fight for Truth and God, Enthralled by lies and sin? He who would wage such war on earth Must first be true within.

5 O God of Truth, for whom we long, Thou who wilt hear our prayer, Do Thine own battle in our hearts, And slay the falsehood there!

6 So tried in Thy refining fire, From every lie set free, In us Thy perfect Truth shall dwell, And we may fight for Thee. Amen.

446 "Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help."—Ps. cxlv. 5.

1 O God, our Help in ages past,
   Our Hope for years to come,
   Our shelter from the stormy blast,
   And our eternal Home!

2 Under the shadow of Thy throne
   Thy saints have dwelt secure;
   Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
   And our defence is sure.

3 Before the hills in order stood,
   Or earth received her frame,
   From everlasting Thou art God,
   To endless years the same.

4 A thousand ages in Thy sight
   Are like an evening gone;
   Short as the watch that ends the night
   Before the rising sun.

P 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
   Bears all its sons away;
   They fly, forgotten, as a dream
   Dies at the opening day.

F 6 O God, our Help in ages past,
   Our Hope for years to come;
   Be Thou our Guard while troubles last,
   And our eternal Home! Amen.

447 "O God, Thou art my God, early will I seek Thee."—Ps. lxiii. 1.

1 O God, Thou art my God alone;
   Early to Thee my soul shall cry;
   A pilgrim in a land unknown,
   A thirsty land whose springs are dry.

2 Thee in the watches of the night,
   Will I remember on my bed;
   Thy presence makes the darkness light,
   Thy guardian wings are round my head.

3 Better than life itself Thy love,
   Dearer than all beside to me;
   For whom have I in heaven above,
   Or what on earth compared to Thee? Amen.

"There is one Body, and one Spirit."—Eph. iv. 4.

1 O Holy Ghost, Thou God of peace,
    Pity Thy Church, now rent in twain;
    Bid wrath and strife and variance cease,
    And let us all be one again;

2 One with our brethren here in love,
    And one with saints that are at rest,
    And one with Angel hosts above,
    And one with God for ever blest.

3 Oh! make on earth all churches one,
    One with the blessed gone before,
    All knit in sweet communion,
    To love Thee, worship, and adore.

4 For one the Lord on whom we call,
    The Spirit one which He hath given, cres. One God and Father of us all,
f One Faith on earth, one Hope of heaven. Amen.
449 "I am the good Shepherd, and know My sheep, and am known of Mine."—St. John x. 14.

1 O Jesu ever present,
O Shepherd ever kind,
Thy very Name is music
To ear, and heart, and mind.

It woke my wondering childhood
To muse on things above;
It drew my harder manhood
With cords of mighty love.

2 How oft to sure destruction
My feet had gone astray,
Wert Thou not, patient Shepherd,
The Guardian of my way!

How oft, in darkness fallen,
And wounded sore by sin,
Thy Hand has gently raised me,
And healing balm poured in!

3 O Shepherd good, I follow
Wherever Thou wilt lead;
No matter where the pasture,
With Thee at hand to feed.

Thy voice, in life so mighty,
In death shall make me bold.
Oh, bring my ransomed spirit
To Thine eternal fold! Amen.
"Lord I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou goest."—St. Luke ix. 57.

1 O Jesu, I have promised
   To serve Thee to the end;
Be Thou for ever near me,
   My Master and my Friend!
I shall not fear the battle
   If Thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway
   If Thou wilt be my Guide.

2 Oh! let me feel Thee near me—
   The world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
   The tempting sounds I hear.
My foes are ever near me,
   Around me and within;
But, Jesu, draw Thou nearer,
   And shield my soul from sin.

3 Oh! let me hear Thee-speaking
   In accents clear and still,
Above the storms of passion,
   The murmurs of self-will.
Oh! speak to re-assure me,
   To hasten or control:
Oh! speak, and make me listen,
   Thou Guardian of my soul!

4 O Jesu, Thou hast promised
   To all who follow Thee
That where Thou art in glory
   There shall Thy servant be;
And, Jesu, I have promised
   To serve Thee to the end;
Oh! give me grace to follow
   My Master and my Friend!

5 Oh! let me see Thy foot-marks,
   And in them plant mine own;
My hope to follow duly
   Is in Thy strength alone.
Oh! guide me, call me, draw me,
   Uphold me to the end;
And then in heaven receive me,
   My Saviour and my Friend! Amen.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock."—Rev. iii. 20.

1 O Jesu, Thou art standing
   Outside the fast-closed door,
   In lowly patience waiting
   To pass the threshold o'er.

   Shame on us, Christian brothers,
   His Name and sign who bear,
   Oh, shame, thrice shame, upon us,
   To keep Him standing there!

2 O Jesu, Thou art knocking;
   And lo! that Hand is scarred,
   And thorns Thy Brow encircle,
   And tears Thy Face have marred.

   Oh love that passeth knowledge,
   { So patiently to wait!
   Oh sin that hath no equal,
   { So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesu, Thou art pleading
   In accents meek and low—
   "I died for you, My children,
   And will ye treat Me so!"

   O Lord, with shame and sorrow
   We open now the door:

   cres. Dear Saviour, enter, enter, mf And leave us nevermore. Amen.

"Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you."—I St. Peter v. 7.

1 O Lord, how happy should we be
If we could cast our care on Thee,
If we from self could rest;
And feel at heart that One above
In perfect wisdom, perfect love,
Is working for the best.

2 How far from this our daily life!
How oft disturbed by anxious strife,
By sudden wild alarms!
Oh, could we but relinquish all
Our earthly props, and simply fall
On Thine Almighty arms!

3 Could we but kneel and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God;
Then rise with lightened cheer,
Sure that the Father, who is nigh
To still the famished raven's cry,
Will hear in that we fear.
GENERAL HYMNS.

4 We cannot trust Him as we should;
   So chafes weak nature's restless mood
   To cast its peace away;
   But birds and flowerets round us preach,
   All, all the present evil teach
   Sufficient for the day.

5 Lord, make these faithless hearts of ours
   Such lessons learn from birds and flowers;
   Make them from self to cease,
   Leave all things to a Father's will,
   And taste, before Him lying still,
   E'en in affliction, peace. Amen.

453 "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!"—Ps. cxxxiii.1.

1 O Lord, how joyful 'tis to see
   The brethren join in love to Thee;
   On Thee alone their heart relies,
   Their only strength Thy grace supplies.

2 How sweet within Thy holy place
   With one accord to sing Thy grace,
   Besieging Thine attentive ear
   With all the force of fervent prayer.

3 Oh! may we love the House of God,
   Of peace and joy the blest abode;
   Oh! may no angry strife destroy
   That sacred peace, that holy joy.

4 The world without may rage, but we
   Will only cling more close to Thee,
   With hearts to Thee more wholly given,
   More weaned from earth, more fixed on heaven.

5 Lord, shower upon us from above
   The sacred gift of mutual love:
   Each other's wants may we supply,
   And reign together in the sky. Amen.

"King of kings and Lord of lords."—Rev. xix. 16.

1 O L o r d our God, in reverence lowly,
The host of heaven call Thee "Holy,"
From Cherubim and Seraphim,
From Angel pha'lanx, far extending,
In fuller tones is still ascending
The "Ho'y, Ho'y, Holy" hymn.

The Fount of joy Thou art,
E'er filling every heart,
Ever! Ever!
We, too, are Thine, and with them sing,
f "Thou, Lord, and only Thou, art King!"
They sing, in sweet and sinless numbers,
The wondrous love that never slumbers,
And of the wisdom, power, and might,
The truth and faithfulness abiding,
And over all Thy works presiding.
But they can scarcely praise aright;
For all is never sung,
 Even by Seraphs' tongue,
Never! Never!
We, too, are Thine, and with them sing,
*f "Thou, Lord, and only Thou, art King!"

Oh, come! Reveal Thyself more fully,
That we may learn to praise more truly;
Make every heart a temple true,
Filled with Thy glory overflowing,
More of Thy love each morning showing,
And waking praises loud and new.
Here let Thy peace divine
Over Thy children shine,
Ever! Ever!
And, glad or sad, we joining sing,
*f "Thou, Lord, and only Thou, art King!"  Amen.

---

O Love divine, how sweet Thou art!
When shall I find my willing heart
All taken up by Thee?
My thirsty spirit faints to prove
The greatness of redeeming love,
The love of Christ to me.

Stronger His love than death and hell;
Its riches are unsearchable:
The first-born sons of light
Desire in vain its depths to see;
They cannot reach the mystery,
The length, and breadth, and height.

God only knows the love of God;
Oh, that it now were shed abroad
In this poor stony heart!
For love I sigh, for love I pine;
This only portion, Lord, be mine;
Be mine this better part.

Oh, that I could for ever sit,
With Mary at the Master's feet!
Be this my happy choice!
My only care, delight, and bliss,
My joy, my heaven on earth be this,
To hear the Bridegroom's voice!  Amen.

456  “We have known and believed the love that God hath to us.”—1 St. John iv. 16.

1 O Love, who formedst me to wear
   The image of Thy Godhead here;
Who soughtest me with tender care
   Through all my wanderings wild and drear;
cres. O Love, I give myself to Thee,
   Thine ever, only Thine to be.

2 O Love, who cre life’s earliest dawn
   On me Thy choice hast gently laid;
O Love, who here as Man wast born,
   And wholly like to us wast made;
cres. O Love, I give myself to Thee,
   Thine ever, only Thine to be.

3 O Love, who once in time wast slain,
   Pierced through and through with bitter woe;
O Love, who wrestling thus didst gain
   That we eternal joy might know;
cres. O Love, I give myself to Thee,
   Thine ever, only Thine to be.

4 O Love, who lovest me for aye,
   Who for my soul dost ever plead;
O Love, who didst my ransom pay,
   Whose power sufficeth in my stead;
cres. O Love, I give myself to Thee,
   Thine ever, only Thine to be.

5 O Love, who once shalt bid me rise
   From out this dying life of ours;
O Love, who once o’er yonder skies
   Shalt set me in the fadeless bowers;
cres. O Love, I give myself to Thee,
   Thine ever, only Thine to be. Amen.

"It doth not yet appear what we shall be."—1 St. John iii. 2.

1 O shining city of our God!
   And shall we see thee here?
   Thy pearly gates and golden streets?—
   "It doth not yet appear."

2 O healing tree of twelvefold fruit!
   O river pure and clear!
   And shall we touch and shall we taste?—
   "It doth not yet appear."

3 O crowned and white-robed choir on high,
   Our elder brethren dear!
   And shall we blend our songs with yours?—
   "It doth not yet appear."

4 O Rainbow Throne! O Court of Heaven!
   Or signs of things we cannot yet
   In faintest semblance know?

5 For Thine appearing, Lord, I wait;
   Be this enough for me,
   Cres. If I may see Thee as Thou art,
   Cres. Our Victim and our Priest to be! Amen.

458  "Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedek."—Ps. cx. 4.

1 O THOU, before the world began,
   Ordained a Sacrifice for man;
   Thy Priesthood doth unchanged remain;
   Thy years, O God, can never fail,
   Nor Thy blest work within the veil.

2 Thy offering still continues new,
   Thy vesture keeps its blood-stained hue;
   Thyself the Lamb for sinners slain,
   Oh! that our faith may never move,
   But stand unshaken as Thy love;
   Sure evidence of things unseen,
   Now let it pass the years between,
   Cres. Our Victim and our Priest to be! Amen.

3 Oh! that our faith may never move,
   But stand unshaken as Thy love;
   Sure evidence of things unseen,
   Now let it pass the years between,

4 And view Thee bleeding on the Tree,
   Cres. Our Victim and our Priest to be! Amen.

459 "According to Thy mercy remember Thou me for Thy goodness' sake, O Lord."—Ps. xxv. 7.

1 O Thou, from whom all goodness flows,
I lift my heart to Thee;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
O Lord, remember me!

2 When on my aching, burdened heart
My sins lie heavily,
Thy pardon grant, Thy peace impart,
In love remember me!

3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee,
Oh, let my strength be as my day;
For good remember me!

4 If worn with pain, disease, and grief,
This feeble frame should be;
Give patience, rest, and kind relief,
Hear, and remember me!

5 If on my face, for Thy loved Name,
Shame and reproach shall be,
All hail reproach, and welcome shame,
If Thou remember me!

6 When in the solemn hour of death
I wait Thy just decree,
Be this the prayer of my last breath—
O Lord, remember me! Amen.

"Search me, O God, and know my heart."—Ps. cxlvii. 23.

1 O Thou, to whose all-searching sight
The darkness shineth as the light,
Search, prove my heart; it pants for Thee;
Oh, burst these bands, and set it free!

2 Wash out its stains, refine its dross,
Nail my affections to the Cross;
Hallow each thought; let all within
Be clean as Thou, my Lord, art clean.

3 If in this darksome wild I stray,
Be Thou my Light, be Thou my Way;
No foes, no evil need I fear,
If Thou, my Lord, my God, art near.

4 When rising floods my head o’erflow,
When sinks my heart in waves of woe,
Jesu, Thy timely aid impart,
And raise my head, and cheer my heart.

5 Teach me, where’er Thy steps I see,
Dauntless, untired, to follow Thee;
Oh, let Thy Hand support me still,
And lead me to Thy holy hill!

6 If rough and thorny be my way,
My strength proportion to my day;
Till toil and grief and pain shall cease,
Where all is calm and joy and peace. Amen.

"They shall look upon Me whom they have pierced."—Zech. xii. 10.

1 O Thou who hast our sorrows borne,
Help us to look on Thee, and mourn,—
On Thee whom we have slain;
Thee we have pierced a thousand times;
And by our oft-repeated crimes
Renewed Thy deadly pain.

2 Vouchsafe us eyes of faith, to see
The Man transfixed on Calvary,—
To know Thee who Thou art,
The One eternal God and true!
And let the sight affect, subdue,
And break each stubborn heart.

3 Oh, let Thy dying love constrain
Our souls to love their God again,
Their Lord to glorify;
That we may come Thy Cross to share,
Join in Thy sacrificial prayer,
And with our Saviour die! Amen.

AUTUMN.

7.6.7.6.

Frederick Iliffe.

1 O Word of God Incarnate,
   O Wisdom from on high,
   O Truth unchanged, unchanging,
   O Light of our dark sky:

2 We praise Thee for the radiance
   That from the hallowed page,
   A lantern to our footsteps,
   Shines on from age to age.

3 The Church from her dear Master
   Received the gift divine,
   And still that light she lifteth
   O'er all the earth to shine.

4 It is the golden casket
   Where gems of truth are stored;
   It is the heaven-drawn picture
   Of Christ the living Word.

5 It floateth like a banner
   Before God's host unfurled;
   It shineth like a beacon
   Above the darkling world.

6 It is the chart and compass,
   That o'er life's surging sea,
   'Mid mists and rocks and quicksands
   Still guides, O Christ, to Thee.

7 Oh! make Thy Church, dear Saviour,
   A lamp of purest gold,
   To bear before the nations
   Thy true light, as of old.

8 Oh! teach Thy wandering pilgrims
   By this their path to trace, cres. Till, clouds and darkness ended,
   f They see Thee face to face. Amen.

"Behold, Angels came and ministered unto Him."—St. Matt. iv. 11.

F 1 O ye immortal throng
Of Angels round the throne,
Join with our feeble song,
To make the Saviour known.
On earth ye knew
His wondrous grace;
His glorious Face
In heaven ye view.

P 2 Ye saw the heaven-born Child
In human flesh arrayed,
An Infant meek and mild,
While in the manger laid:
F And "Praise to God,
And Peace on earth,"
For such a Birth,
Proclaimed aloud.

F 4 Around His sacred Tomb
P A willing watch ye kept, cres. Till that blest moment came f When He awoke that slept;
F Then rolled the stone,
And all adored
Your rising Lord
With joy unknown.

F 5 When, all arrayed in light,
The ascending Conqueror shone,
Ye hailed His rapturous flight
Up to His Father's throne,
And waved around
Your golden wings,
And struck your strings
Of sweetest sound.

F 6 O ye immortal throng
Of Angels round the throne,
Join with our feeble song,
To make the Saviour known:
Praise, bright-winged host,
The Three in One,
The Father, Son,
And Holy Ghost. Amen.

464 "Ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint."—Deut. xx. 3.

1 Oft in danger, oft in woe,
   Onward, Christians, onward go,
   Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
   Strengthened with the bread of life.

2 Onward, Christians, onward go,
   Join the war and face the foe.
   Faint not! Much doth yet remain,
   Dreary is the long campaign.

3 Shrink not, Christians! Will ye yield?
   Will ye quit the painful field?
   Will ye flee in danger's hour?
   Know ye not your Captain's power?

4 Let your drooping hearts be glad;
   March, in heavenly armour clad;
   Fight, nor think the battle long;
   Soon shall victory tune your song.

5 Let not sorrow dim your eye;
   Soon shall every tear be dry;
   Let not fears your course impede;
   Great your strength, if great your need.

6 Onward then to battle move;
   More than conquerors ye shall prove;
   Though opposed by many a foe,

"Oh come, let us sing unto the Lord."—Ps. xcvi. 1.

1 Oh, come, loud anthems let us sing,
   Loud thanks to our Almighty King!
   For we our voices high should raise
   When our salvation's Rock we praise.

2 Into His presence let us haste,
   To thank Him for His favours past;
   To Him :dress in joyful songs
   The praise that to His Name belongs.

3 Oh, let us to His courts repair,
   And bow with adoration there;
   There on our knees devoutly all
   Before the Lord our Maker fall.

4 To God the Father, God the Son,
   And God the Spirit, Three in One,
   Be honour, praise, and glory given,
   By all on earth and all in heaven. Amen.

MARTYRDOM.

C.M. HUGH WILSON, about 1825.

466 "I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear Me for ever."—Jer. xxxii. 39.

1 Oh! for a heart to praise my God;
   A heart from sin set free;
   A heart that's sprinkled with the Blood
   So freely split for me:

2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
   My great Redeemer's throne;
   Where only Christ is heard to speak,
   Where Jesus rules alone!

3 Oh! for a lowly, contrite heart,
   Believing, true, and clean,
   Which neither life nor death can part
   From Him who dwells within:

4 A heart in every thought renewed,
   And full of love divine;
   Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
   A copy, Lord, of Thine!

5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
   Come quickly from above;
   Cres. Write Thy new name upon my heart,
467 "He hath done all things well: He maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak."—St. Mark vii. 37.

1 Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace!

2 Jesus! the Name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace!

3 He speaks! and, listening to His voice,
New life the dead receive;

The mournful, broken hearts rejoice:
The humble poor believe.

4 Hear Him, ye deaf! His praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ!
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come!
And leap, ye lame, for joy!

5 My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
And spread through all the earth abroad
The honours of Thy Name. Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

468 "Behold, we have forsaken all and followed Thee; what shall we have therefore?"—St. Matt. xix. 27.

1 Oh, happy band of pilgrims,
If onward ye will tread
With Jesus as your Fellow
To Jesus as your Head!
Oh, happy, if ye labour
As Jesus did for men:
Oh, happy, if ye hunger
As Jesus hungered then!

2 The Faith by which ye see Him,
The Hope in which ye yearn,
The Love that through all troubles
To Him alone will turn,—
What are they but His heralds
To lead you to His sight?
What are they save the effluence
Of uncreated Light?

3 The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That Death alone can cure,—
What are they but His jewels
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder
Set up to heaven on earth?

4 The Cross that Jesus carried,
He carried as your due;
The Crown that Jesus weareth,
He weareth it for you.

469 "One day in Thy courts is better than a thousand."—Ps. lxxxiv. 10.

1 Oh, happy feet that tread
Thine earthly courts, O Lord!
There heavenly light is shed;
There Thine own peace is poured.

2 Oh, happy knees that press
Thy Temple’s lowly floor,
While contrite hearts confess,
And pardoning grace implore!

3 Oh, happy ears that hear
With glad and simple faith
The message ringing clear—
"Thy sins God pardoneth!"

4 Oh, happy tongues that sing
With burning praise on fire,
Here faintly echoing
The bright celestial choir!

5 Oh, happy souls that rise
In childlike trust to Thee,
With hallowed sacrifice
Of prayer and litany!

6 Oh, happy eyes that light
With brave and holy pride
The one faith to recite,
For which the martyrs died!

7 Oh, happier still who low
At Thy blest banquet kneel,
With trembling rapture glow,
And there Thy Presence feel!

8 But happiest, happiest far,
To Heav’n’s fair courts to soar,
And, where all glories are,
To praise Thee evermore! Amen.

"Have compassion on us, and help us!"—St. Mark ix. 22.

1 Oh, help us, Lord; each hour of need
   Thy heavenly succour give:
   Help us in thought, and word, and deed,
   Each hour on earth we live!

2 Oh, help us when our spirits cry
   With contrite anguish sore;
   And when our hearts are cold and dry,
   Oh, help us, Lord, the more!

3 Oh, help us through the prayer of faith
   More firmly to believe!
   For still the more the servant hath
   The more shall he receive.

4 Oh, help us, Jesu, from on high:
   We know no help but Thee!
   Oh, help us so to live and die

Rev. O. M. Feilden.
Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory."—2 Cor. iv. 17.

Oh! let him, whose sorrow
No relief can find,
Trust in God, and borrow
Ease for heart and mind.

Where the mourner weeping
Sheds the secret tear,
God His watch is keeping,
Though none else be near.

God will never leave thee,
All thy wants He knows,
Feels the pains that grieve thee,
Sees thy cares and woes.

Raise thine eyes to heaven
When thy spirits quail,
When, by tempests driven,
Heart and courage fail.

When in grief we languish
He will dry the tear,
Who His children's anguish
Soothes with succour near.

All our woe and sadness,
In this world below,
Balance not the gladness
We in Heaven shall know.

Jesu, Holy Saviour,
In the realms above
Crown us with Thy favour,
Fill us with Thy love. Amen.

The love of Christ which passeth knowledge."—Eph. iii. 19.

Oh! Love, how deep! how broad! how high!
It fills the heart with ecstasy
That God, the Son of God, should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake.

He sent no Angel to our race,
Of higher or of lower place,
But wore the robe of human frame
Himself, and to this lost world came.

For us He was baptized, and bore
His holy fast, and hungered sore;
For us temptation sharp He knew;
For us the tempter overthrew.

For us He prayed, for us He taught,
For us His daily works He wrought,
By words and signs and actions thus
Still seeking not Himself but us.

For us to wicked men betrayed,
Scourged, mocked, in purple be arrayed,
He bore the shmeful Cross and death;
For us at length gave up His breath.

For us He rose from death again,
For us He went on high to reign,
For us He sent His Spirit here
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer. Amen.

"The Paradise of God."—Rev. ii. 7.

P 1 Oh Paradise! Oh Paradise!
Who doth not crave for rest?
Who would not seek the happy land
Where they that loved are blest?
F Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

P 2 Oh Paradise! Oh Paradise!
The world is growing old;
Who would not be at rest and free,
Where love is never cold?
F Where loyal hearts, &c.

P 3 Oh Paradise! Oh Paradise!
'Tis weary waiting here;
We long to be where Jesus is,
To feel, to see Him near;
F Where loyal hearts, &c.

P 4 Oh Paradise! Oh Paradise!
We long to sin no more;
We long to be as pure on earth
As on Thy spotless shore;
F Where loyal hearts, &c.

P 5 Oh Paradise! Oh Paradise!
We shall not wait for long;
E'en now the loving ear may catch
Faint fragments of thy song;
F Where loyal hearts, &c.

6 Lord Jesu, King of Paradise,
Oh, keep us in Thy love,
And guide us to that happy land
Of perfect rest above:
F Where loyal hearts, &c. Amen.
474 "He saith, Surely I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus."—Rev. xxii. 20.

1 Oh! quickly come, dread Judge of all;
For, awful though Thine Advent be,
All shadows from the truth will fall,
And falsehood die, in sight of Thee.
Oh! quickly come; for doubt and fear
Like clouds dissolve when Thou art near.

2 Oh! quickly come, great King of all;
Reign all around us, and within;
Let sin no more our souls enthrall,
Let pain and sorrow die with sin.
Oh! quickly come; for Thou alone
Canst make Thy scattered people one.

3 Oh! quickly come, true Life of all;
For death is mighty all around;
On every home his shadows fall,
On every heart his mark is found.
cres. Oh! quickly come; for grief and pain
Can never cloud Thy glorious reign.

4 Oh! quickly come, sure Light of all;
For gloomy night broods o'er our way;
And weakly souls begin to fall
With weary watching for the day.
f Oh! quickly come; for round Thy throne
No eye is blind, no night is known. Amen.
"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord."—Ps. cxxii. 1.

1 Oh, 'twas a joyful sound to hear
   Our tribes devoutly say,
   Up, Israel, to the temple haste,
   And keep your festal day.

2 'Tis thither, by divine command,
   The tribes of God repair,
   Before His ark to celebrate
   His Name with praise and prayer.

3 Oh! pray we then for Salem's peace,
   For they shall prosperous be,
   Thou holy city of our God,
   Who bear true love to thee.

4 May peace within thy sacred walls
   A constant guest be found,
   With plenty and prosperity
   Thy palaces be crowned. Amen.

For the 1st Verse, the slur is better over the 3rd and 4th notes of this bar.

"There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God."—Heb. iv. 9.

1 Oh, what the joy and the glory must be,
Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see!
Crowns for the valiant, to weary ones rest;
God shall be all, and in all ever blest!

2 What are the Monarch, His Court, and His Throne?
What are the peace and the joy that they own?
Oh, that the blest ones, who in it have share,
All that they feel could as fully declare!

3 Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
Vision of peace, that brings joy evermore!
Wish and fulfilment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

4 There, where no troubles distraction can bring,
We the sweet anthems of Sion shall sing,
While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise,
Thy blessed people eternally raise.

5 There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one evermore:
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the Angels and us shall belong.

P 6 Now in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh;
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.

Cres. 7 Low before Him with our praises we fall,
Of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all;
Of whom, the Father; and in whom, the Son;
Through whom, the Spirit, with Them ever One. Amen.
Oh! worship the King all glorious above,
Oh! gratefully sing His power and His love,
Our shield and defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendour, and girded with praise!

2 Oh! tell of His might, oh! sing of His grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space,
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

3 The earth with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, Thy power hath founded of old,
Hath established it fast by a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

4 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air; it shines in the light;
It streams from the hills; it descends to the plain;
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

5 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

6 O measureless Might! Ineffable Love!
While Angels delight to hymn Thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lisp to Thy praise. Amen.
On our way rejoicing as we homeward move,
Hearken to our praises, O Thou God of love!

F 1 Is there grief or sadness? f Thine it cannot be!

P 2 Is our sky beclouded? f Clouds are not from Thee!

2 On our way rejoicing as we homeward move,
Hearken to our praises, O Thou God of love!

If with honest-hearted love for God and man,
Day by day Thou find us doing what we can,
Thou who giv'st the sced-time wilt give large increase,
Crown the head with blessings, fill the heart with peace.

3 On our way rejoicing, &c.

On our way rejoicing gladly let us go;
Conquered hath our Leader, vanquished is our foe!
Christ without, our safety, Christ within, our joy;
Who, if we be faithful, can our hope destroy?

On our way rejoicing, &c.

4 Unto God the Father joyful songs we sing;
Unto God the Saviour thankful hearts we bring;
Unto God the Spirit bow we and adore,
On our way rejoicing now and evermore!

On our way rejoicing, &c. Amen.
On the Resurrection morning
Soul and body meet again;
No more sorrow, no more weeping,
No more pain!

Here awhile they must be parted,
And the flesh its sabbath keep,
Waiting in a holy stillness
Wrapt in sleep.

For a space the tired body
Lies with feet toward the dawn;
Till there breaks the last and brightest
Easter morn.

But the soul in contemplation
Utters earnest prayer and strong;
Breaking at the Resurrection
Into song!

Soul and body reunited,
Thenceforth nothing shall divide,
Waking up in Christ's own likeness Satisfied.

Oh! the beauty, oh! the gladness
Of that Resurrection day!
Which shall not, through endless ages,
Pass away!

On that happy Easter morning
All the graves their dead restore,
Father, sister, child and mother,
Meet once more.

To that brightest of all meetings
Bring us, Jesu Christ, at last;
To Thy Cross, through death and judgment,
Holding fast. Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

480 "Be strong and of a good courage: for the Lord thy God, He it is that doth go with thee."—Deut. xxxi. 6.

1 Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ, the Royal Master,
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.

2 At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee:
On then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
'Load your anthems raise.
Onward, Christian soldiers, &c.

3 Like a mighty army,
Moves the Church of God.
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod.
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.
Onward, Christian soldiers, &c.

4 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain:
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise.
And that cannot fail.
Onward, Christian soldiers, &c.

5 Onward then, ye people,
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song:
Glory, praise, and honour
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and Angels sing.
481 "If I go not away the Comforter will not come unto you, but if I depart I will send Him unto you."—St. John xvi. 7.

1 Our blest Redeemer, ere He breathed
   His tender last farewell,
   A Guide, a Comforter bequeathed
   With us to dwell.
2 He came sweet influence to impart,
   A gracious, willing Guest,
   While He can find one humble heart
   Wherein to rest.
3 And His that gentle voice we hear,
   Soft as the breath of even,
   That checks each fault, that calms each fear,
   And speaks of heaven.
4 And every virtue we possess,
   And every victory won,
   And every thought of holiness,
   Are His alone.
5 Spirit of purity and grace,
   Our weakness, pitying, see;
   Oh, make our hearts Thy dwelling-place,
   And meet for Thee!
6 Oh! praise the Father, praise the Son,
   Blest Spirit. praise to Thee!
   All praise to God, the Three in One,
   The One in Three. Amen.

SOUTHWELL. S.M.

482 "Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord."—Ps. cxxx. 1.

1 Out of the deep I call
To Thee, O Lord, to Thee;
Before Thy throne of grace I fall;
Be merciful to me.

2 Out of the deep I cry,
The woeful deep of sin,
Of evil done in days gone by,
Of evil now within.

3 Out of the deep of fear,
And dread of coming shame,
From morning watch till night is near
I plead the precious Name.

4 Lord, there is mercy now,
As ever was, with Thee;
Before Thy throne of grace I bow,
Be merciful to me. Amen.
"My flesh and my heart crieth out for the living God."—Psalm lxxxiv. 2.

1 Pleasant are Thy courts above
In the land of light and love;
Pleasant are Thy courts below
In this land of sin and woe.
Oh, my spirit longs and faints
For the converse of Thy saints,
For the brightness of Thy Face,
For Thy fulness, God of grace!

2 Happy birds that sing and fly
Round Thy altars, O Most High!
Happier souls that find a rest
In a Heavenly Father's breast!
Like the wandering dove, that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair
And enjoy it ever there.

3 Happy souls! Their praises flow
Even in this vale of woe;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies:
On they go from strength to strength
Till they reach Thy throne at length,
At Thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

4 Lord! be mine this prize to win;
Guide me through a world of sin;
Keep me by Thy saving grace;
Give me at Thy side a place.
Sun and shield alike Thou art:
Guide and guard my erring heart.
Grace and glory flow from Thee;
Shower, oh, shower them, Lord, on me! Amen.

PRAISE, MY SOUL.

8.7.8.7.4.7.

SIR JOHN GOSS, d. 1880.

Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven; To His feet thy tribute bring; Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,

Who like me His praise should sing? Praise Him! Praise Him!

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits."—Ps. ciii. 2.
Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him! Glorious in His faithfulness!

Praise Him, still the same for ever, Slow to chide, and swift to bless. Praise Him!

Praise Him for His grace and favour To our fathers in distress;
GENERAL HYMNS.

Third Verse. Trebles only.

_Slower._

Father like He tends and spares us;

Well our feeble frame He knows;

In His hands He gently bears us,

Rescues us from all our foes. Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise Him! Praise Him! Wide ly as His mercy flows.

Fourth Verse. Harmony.

Frail as Summer's flower we flourish, Blows the wind, and it is gone; But while mortals rise and perish, God endures unchanging on. Praise Him!

Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise the high eternal One.
An·gels, help us to a·dore Him; Ye behold Him face to face; Sun and moon bow down be·fore Him;
Dwel·lers all in time and space, Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise with us the God of grace! A·men.
"Praise our God, all ye His servants."—Rev. xix. 5.

1 Praise the Lord, His glories show,
    Saints within His courts below,
    Angels round His throne above,
    All that see and share His love.
    Earth to heaven, and heaven to earth,
    Tell His wonders, sing His worth;
    Age to age, and shore to shore,
    Praise Him, praise Him, evermore!

2 Praise the Lord, His mercies trace;
    Praise His providence and grace,
    All that He for man hath done,
    All He sends us through His Son:
    Strings and voices, hands and hearts,
    In the concert bear your parts;
    All that breathe, your Lord adore;
    Praise Him, Praise Him, evermore! Amen.
"Praise ye the Lord from the heavens."—Ps. cxlviii. 1.

1 Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore Him;
   Praise Him, Angels, in the height;
   Sun and moon, rejoice before Him,
   Praise Him, all ye stars and light.

Praise the Lord! for He hath spoken;
   Worlds His mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never shall be broken
   For their guidance hath He made.

2 Praise the Lord! for He is glorious;
   Never shall His promise fail:
   God hath made His saints victorious,
   Sin and death shall not prevail.

Praise the God of our salvation;
   Hosts on high, His power proclaim;
Heaven and earth and all creation
   Laud and magnify His Name!

3 Worship, honour, glory, blessing,
   Lord, we offer unto Thee;
Young and old, Thy praise confessing,
   In glad homage bend the knee.

As the saints in heaven adore Thee,
   We would bow before Thy throne;
As Thine Angels serve before Thee,
   So on earth Thy will be done! Amen.
"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."—St. John xv. 13.

1 Praise to the Holiest in the height,
   And in the depth be praise;
   In all His words most wonderful,
   Most sure in all His ways!

2 Oh, loving wisdom of our God!
   When all was sin and shame,
   A second Adam to the fight,
   And to the rescue came.

3 O wisest love! that flesh and blood,
   Which did in Adam fail,
   Should strive afresh against the foe,
   Should strive, and should prevail!

4 And that a higher gift than grace
   Should flesh and blood refine,
   God's presence, and His very Self,
   And essence all-Divine!

5 Oh, generous love! that He, who smote
   In man for man the foe,
   The double agony in man
   For man should undergo;

6 And in the garden secretly,
   And on the Cross on high,
   Should teach His brethren and inspire
   To suffer and to die! Amen.
488

Rejoice, the Lord is King!
Your Lord and King adore;
Mortals, give thanks and sing,
And triumph evermore:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice!

Jesus the Saviour reigns,
The God of truth and love;
When He had purged our stains,
He took His seat above:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice!

His kingdom cannot fail;
He rules o'er earth and heaven;
The keys of death and hell
To Christ, the Lord, are given:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice!

He sits at God's right hand,
Till all His foes submit,
And bow to His command,
And fall beneath His feet;
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice! Amen.
Day of Praise.

1. Rejoice, ye pure in heart,
   Rejoice, give thanks and sing;
Your festal banner wave on high,
   The Cross of Christ your King.

2. Bright youth and snow-crowned age,
   Strong men and maidens meek,
Raise high your free exulting song,
   God's wondrous praises speak.

3. Yes, onward, onward still,
   With hymn, and chant, and song,
Through gate, and porch, and columned aisle,
   The hallowed pathways throng.

4. With all the Angel choirs,
   With all the saints on earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
   True rapture, noblest mirth.

5. Your clear Hosannas raise,
   And Alleluias loud,
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
   Like wreathes of incense cloud.

6. With voice as full and strong
   As ocean's surging praise,
Send forth the hymns our fathers loved,
   The psalms of ancient days.

7. Yes, on, through life's long path,
   Still chanting as ye go,
From youth to age, by night and day,
   In gladness and in woe.

8. Still lift your standard high,
   Still march in firm array,
As warriors through the darkness toil
   Till dawns the golden day.

9. At last the march shall end,
   The wearied ones shall rest,
The pilgrims find their Father's House,
   Jerusalem the blest.

10. Then on, ye pure in heart,
    Rejoice, give thanks, and sing;
Your festal banner wave on high,
    The Cross of Christ your King.

Praise Him who reigns on high,
   Whom heaven and earth adore,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God for evermore. Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

Rock of Ages. 7.7.7.7.7.7. Richard Redhead.

"The Lord Jehovah is the Rock of ages."—Isa. xxvi. 4.

1 Rock of ages, cleft for me,
   Let me hide myself in Thee,
   Let the water and the blood,
   From Thy riven side which flowed,
   Be of sin the double cure,
   Cleanse me from its guilt and power!

2 Not the labours of my hands
   Can fulfil Thy law's demands;
   Could my zeal no respite know,
   Could my tears for ever flow,
   All for sin could not atone;
   Thou must save, and Thou alone!

3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
   Simply to Thy Cross I cling;
   Naked, come to Thee for dress;
   Helpless, look to Thee for grace;
   Foul, I to the Fountain fly—
   Wash me, Saviour, or I die!

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
   When my eyelids close in death,
   When I soar through tracts unknown,
   See Thee on Thy judgment Throne,
   Rock of ages! cleft for me,
   Let me hide myself in Thee! Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

VESPER HYMN.

8.7.8.7. D. SIR JOHN ANDREW STEVENSON [?], 1818.

491 "One cried unto another and said, Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts: the whole earth is full of His glory."—Isa. vi. 3.

1 Round the Lord in glory seated,
Cherubim and Seraphim
Filled His temple, and repeated
Each to each the alternate hymn:
"Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven,
Earth is with its fulness stored;
Unto Thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord!"

2 Heaven is still with glory ringing,
Earth takes up the Angels' cry,
"Holy, Holy, Holy," singing,
"Lord of hosts, the Lord most high."
"Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven,
Earth is with its fulness stored;
Unto Thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord!"

3 With His Seraph train before Him,
With His holy Church below,
Thus conspire we to adore Him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow:
"Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven,
Earth is with its fulness stored;
Unto Thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord!" Amen.
Safe Home.

F 1 Safe home, safe home in port!
Rent cordage, shattered deck,
Torn sails, provision short,
And only not a wreck:

cres. But oh, the joy upon the shore
To tell our voyage perils o'er!

f 2 The prize, the prize secure!
The wrestler nearly fell;
Bare all he could endure,
And bare not always well:

cres. But he may smile at troubles gone
Who sets the victor-garland on!

3 No more the foe can harm!
No more of leagured camp,
And cry of night alarm,
And need of ready lamp:

And yet how nearly had he failed—
How nearly had that foe prevailed!

4 The lamb is in the fold,
In perfect safety penned!
The lion once had hold,
And thought to make an end:

f 5 And for the sheep the Shepherd died.

F 5 The exile is at home!
Oh nights and days of tears!
Oh longings not to roam!
Oh sins and doubts and fears!
What matters now grief's darkest day,
When God has wiped all tears away? Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

WILLIAM PITS.

493

P 1 Saviour, Blessed Saviour,
Listen while we sing;
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King,
All we have we offer;
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to Thee.

P 2 Farther, ever farther
From Thy wounded side,
Heedlessly we wandered,
Wandered far and wide;
Till Thou cam'st in mercy
Seeking young and old,
In Thy love recalling
Wanderers to Thy fold.

3 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to Thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee.

F 4 Great, and ever greater,
Are Thy mercies here;
True and everlasting
Are the glories there;
Where no pain or sorrow,
Toll or care, is known;
Where the Angel legions
Circle round Thy throne.

F 5 Dark, and ever darker,
Was the wintry past;
Now a ray of gladness,
O'er our path is cast;
Every day that passeth,
Every hour that flies,
Tells of love unfeigned,
Love that never dies.

F 6 Clearer still, and clearer,
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing
News of sins forgiven;
Life has lost its shadows;
Pure the light within;
Thou hast shed Thy radiance
On a world of sin.

F 7 Brighter still, and brighter,
Glows the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O'er our work that's done;
Time will soon be over,
Toll and sorrow past,
May we, Blessed Saviour,
Find a rest at last.

F 8 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God;
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

F 9 Higher then, and higher,
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal;
Where, in joys unthought of,
Saints with Angels sing,
Never weary, raising
Praises to their King. Amen.

"Bow down Thine ear, O Lord, hear me."—Ps. lxxxvi. 1.

PART I.

1 Saviour! when in dust to Thee
Low we bow the adoring knee,
When, repentant, to the skies
Scarce we lift our weeping eyes,
Oh, by all Thy pains and woe
Suffered once for man below;
Bending from Thy throne on high,
Hear our solemn Litany!

2 By Thy helpless infant years,
By Thy life of want and tears,
By Thy days of sore distress
In the savage wilderness,
By the dread mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power;
Turn, oh, turn a favouring eye,
Hear our solemn Litany!

3 By the sacred griefs that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept;
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode;
By the anguished sigh that told
Treachery lurked within Thy fold;
From Thy seat above the sky,
Hear our solemn Litany!
GENERAL HYMNS.

PART II.

P 4 By Thine hour ofwhelming fear,
By Thine agony of prayer,
By the Cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful Sacrifice;
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn Litany!

"To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."—Phil. i. 21.

P 1 Saviour, whom I fain would love,
Jesus, crucified for me,
Fix my roving heart above,
Draw me nearer unto Thee.

F Thee to praise and Thee to know
Make the joy of saints below:
Thee to see and Thee to love
Make the bliss of saints above.

P 2 Lord, it is not life to live,
If Thy presence Thou deny:
Lord, if Thou Thy presence give,
'Tis no longer death to die.

Source and Giver of repose,
Only from Thy love it flows;
Peace and happiness are Thine,
Mine they are, if Thou art mine. Amen.
496

"Christ that died: yea rather, that is risen again."—Rom. viii. 34.

1 Show me not only Jesus dying,
    As on the Cross He bled,
  \(p\) Nor in the tomb a Captive lying,
  \(cres.\) For He has left the dead.
Not only in that form suspended
  My Saviour bid me see,
\(f\) For, to the highest heavens ascended,
\(f\) He reigns in majesty!

2 Though still that shameful Cross is glorious,
    Where His dear Blood was spilt,
That Cross of shame, where He victorious
    Hath cancelled all our guilt;
Yet what, 'mid conflict and temptation,
    Shall strength and succour give?
\(f\) He lives, our Captain of salvation;
\(f\) And therefore we shall live!

\(F\) 3 By death He death itself defeated,
    And overcame the grave;
He rose, His triumph He completed;
    He lives, He reigns to save!
Heaven's happy myriads bow before Him;
    He comes, the Judge of men;
These eyes shall see Him and adore Him;
    Lord Jesu, own us then! Amen.

1 Sing Alleluia forth in duteous praise,
   O citizens of heaven: in sweet notes raise
   An end-less Alleluia!

2 Ye Powers who stand before the E-ter-nal Light,
   In hymning choirs re-echo to the height
   An end-less Alleluia!

3 The Holy City shall take up your strain,
   And with glad songs resounding wake again
   An end-less Alleluia!

4 In blissful answering strains ye thus rejoice
   To render to the Lord with thankful voice
   An end-less Alleluia!

5 Ye who have gained at length your palms in bliss,
   Victorious ones, your chant shall still be this—
   An end-less Alleluia!

6 There, in one grand acclaim for ever ring
   The strains which tell the honour of your King—
   An end-less Alleluia!

7 This is the rest for weary ones brought back!
   This is the food and drink which none shall lack:
   An end-less Alleluia!

8 While Thee, by whom were all things made, we praise
   For ever, and tell out in sweetest lays
   An end-less Alleluia!
498 "Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises unto our King, sing praises."—Ps. lxxvii. 6.

1 Sing to the Lord a joyful song,
Lift up your hearts, your voices raise,
To us His gracious gifts belong,
To Him our songs of love and praise.
For He's the Lord of heaven and earth,
Whom Angels serve and Saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To Whom be praise for evermore.

2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
Sing to the Lord, for He is good,
And praise His Name, for it is fair.
For He's the Lord, &c.

3 For strength to those who on Him wait,
His truth to prove, His will to do,
Praise ye our God, for He is great,
Trust in His Name, for it is true.
For He's the Lord, &c.

4 For joys untold that daily move
Round those who love His sweet employ,
Sing to our God, for He is love,
Exalt His Name, for it is joy.
For He's the Lord, &c.

5 For life below, with all its bliss,
And for that life, more pure and high,
That inner life, which over this
Shall ever shine, and never die:
Sing to the Lord of heaven and earth,
Whom Angels serve and Saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To whom be praise for evermore. Amen.

"He must reign till He hath put all enemies under His feet."—1 Cor. xv. 25.

1 SING, ye faithful, sing with gladness;
    Wake your noblest, sweetest strain;
With the praises of your Saviour
    Let His House resound again;
Him let all your music honour,
    And your songs exalt His reign.

2 Sing how He came forth from heaven,
    Bow'd Himself to Bethlehem's cave,
Stoop'd to wear the servant's vesture,
    Bore the pain, the Cross, the grave,
Passed within the gates of darkness,
    Thence His banished ones to save.

3 So He tasted death for all men,
    He of all mankind the Head,
Sinless One among the sinful,
    Prince of Life among the dead;
So He wrought the full redemption,
    And the captor captive led.

4 Now on high, yet ever with us,
    From His Father's throne the Son
Rules and guides the world He ransomed,
    Till the appointed work be done,
Till He see, renewed and perfect,
    All things gathered into one.

5 Day of promised restitution!
    Fruit of all His sorrows past!
When the crown of His dominions
    He before the Throne shall cast,
And throughout the wide creation
    God be all in all at last. Amen.

"Why will ye die, O house of Israel?"—Ezek. xxxiii. 11.

1 Sinners, turn! Why will ye die? God your Maker asks you why—
God, who did your being give,
Made you with Himself to live—
He the fatal cause demands,
Asks the work of His own hands;
Why, ye thankless creatures, why
Will ye cross His love, and die?

2 Sinners, turn! Why will ye die? God your Saviour asks you why—
God, who did your souls retrieve,
God, who died that ye might live.
Will ye let Him die in vain,
Crucify the Lord again?
Why, ye ransomed sinners, why
Will ye slight His grace, and die?

3 Sinners, turn! Why will ye die? God the Spirit asks you why—
God, who daily with you strove,
Wooed you to embrace His love.
Will ye not His grace receive?
Will ye still refuse to live?
Why, ye long-sought sinners, why
Will ye grieve your God, and die?
What could your Redeemer do
More than He hath done for you?
Could He more than shed His Blood
To procure your peace with God?
Now, e'en now, your Saviour stands,
All day long He spreads His hands,
Crying, "Come to Me! Oh why,
Why will ye resolve to die?"

Can ye doubt that God is Love,
Or that prayer His heart will move?
Will ye not His word believe?
Will ye not return, and live?
See, your dying Lord appears!
Jesus weeps—believe His tears!
"Why will ye resolve to die?" Amen.

Soliers of Christ!
arise,
And put your armour on,
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through His eternal Son:

Stand, then, in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
And take, to arm you for the fight,
The armour of your God.

From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray,
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day:

That, having all things done,
Aud all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone,
And perfect stand at last. Amen.

"Put on the whole armour of God."—Eph. vi. 11.

"I beseech Thee, show me Thy glory."—Exod. xxxiii. 18.

1 Son of Man, to Thee I cry;
By the wondrous mystery
Of Thy dwelling here on earth,
By Thy pure and holy birth,
Lord, Thy presence let me see,
Manifest Thyself to me.

P 2 Lamb of God, to Thee I cry;
By Thy bitter agony,
By Thy pangs, to us unknown,
By Thy Spirit's parting groan,
Lord, Thy presence let me see,
Manifest Thyself to me.

P 3 Prince of Life, to Thee I cry;
By Thy glorious majesty,
By Thy triumph o'er the grave,
Meek to suffer, strong to save,
Lord, Thy presence let me see,
Manifest Thyself to me.

4 Lord of glory, God most high,
Man exalted to the sky,
With Thy love my bosom fill:
Prompt me now to do Thy will;
cres. Then Thy presence let me see!
f Manifest Thyself to me! Amen.

"I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live."—Ps. civ. 33.

1 Songs of praise the Angels sang,
    Heaven with alleluias rang,
    When Jehovah's work begun,
    When He spake, and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn
    When the Prince of Peace was born;
    Songs of praise arose when He
    Captive led captivity.

3 Heaven and earth must pass away;
    Songs of praise shall crown that day:
    God will make new heavens and earth;
    Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

4 And shall man alone be dumb,
    Till that glorious kingdom come?
    No! the Church delights to raise
    Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
    Still in songs of praise rejoice;
    Learning here, by faith and love,
    Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath,
    Songs of praise shall conquer death;
    Then, amidst eternal joy,
    Songs of praise their powers employ. Amen.

"Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever."—Neh. ix. 5.

1 Stand up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of His choice;
Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
With heart and soul and voice.

2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing, high,
Who would not fear His holy Name,
And laud, and magnify?

3 Oh! for the living flame,
From His own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our minds inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought.

4 God is our strength and song,
And His salvation ours;
Then be His love in Christ proclaimed,
With all our ransomed powers.

5 Stand up, and bless the Lord;
The Lord your God adore:
Stand up, and bless His glorious Name,
Henceforth for evermore. Amen.

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand." — Rom. xiii. 12.

1 Stand we prepared to see and hear
   The Lord from heaven descending;
   The shout, the Archangel's voice of cheer,
   The captive's fetters rending:
   While the last trumpet's earliest call
   Shall wake the joyous song of all
   Who love the Lord's appearing.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise,
   From sweetest sleep awaking;
   While living saints, with rapt surprise,
   The wondrous change partaking,
   Shall hear the Bridegroom's coming feet,
   And with their lamps go forth to meet
   The Lord for whom they waited.

3 Far spent the night, the morn is nigh,
   It is no time for sleeping;
   A moment's twinkling of an eye
   May end the night of weeping;
   Eternity of bliss begun,
   For ever with the Bridegroom one,
   When time shall be no longer!

4 Grant us, O Christ, this grace to win,
   Thy ransomed flock implore Thee;
   With oil-fed lamps to enter in,
   And stand unblamed before Thee.
   So may we in Thy triumph share,
   Caught up to meet Thee in the air,
   And come with Thee in glory. Amen.
"Look unto Me, and be ye saved."—Isa. xlv. 22.

1 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
   Which before the Cross I spend;
Life and health and peace possessing,
   From the sinner's dying Friend.

2 Here I rest for ever viewing
   Mercy's streams in streams of Blood:
Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
   Plead, and claim my peace with God.

3 Truly blessed is this station,
   Low before His Cross to lie:
While I see divine compassion
   Beaming in His failing Eye.

4 Love and grief my heart dividing,
   With my tears His feet I'll bathe;
Constant still in faith abiding,
   Life deriving from His death.

5 Lord, in ceaseless contemplation
   Fix my thankful heart on Thee;
cres. Till I taste Thy full salvation,
   And Thine unveiled glory see. Amen.
507 "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me."—St. Matt. xvi. 24.

P 1 Take up thy cross, the Saviour said,
    If thou wouldst My disciple be;
    Deny thyself, the world forsake,
    And humbly follow after Me.

2 Take up thy cross; let not its weight
    Fill thy weak spirit with alarm;
    His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
    And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

3 Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame;
    Nor let thy foolish pride rebel:
    Thy Lord for thee the Cross endured,
    To save thy soul from death and hell.

4 Take up thy cross, then, in His strength,
    And calmly every danger brave;
    'Twill guide thee to a better home,
    And lead to victory o'er the grave.

5 Take up thy cross, and follow Christ,
    Nor think till death to lay it down;
    For only he who bears the cross
    May hope to wear the glorious crown.

F 6 To Thee, great Lord, the One in Three,
    All praise for evermore ascend;
    Oh, grant us in our home to see
    The heavenly life that knows no end! Amen.

"Return, O Lord, how long?"—Ps. xc. 13.

1 The Church has waited long
   Her absent Lord to see;
   And still in loneliness she waits,
   A friendless stranger she.

2 Age after age has gone,
   Sun after sun has set,
   And still in weeds of widowhood,
   She weeps, a mourner yet.

3 Saint after saint on earth
   Has lived, and loved, and died;
   And as they left us one by one,
   We laid them side by side.

4 We laid them down to sleep,
   But not in hope forlorn,
   We laid them but to ripen there
   Till the last glorious morn.

5 The serpent's brood increase,
   The powers of hell grow bold,
   The conflict thickens, faith is low,
   And love is waxing cold.

6 How long, O Lord, our God,
   Holy, and true, and good,
   Wilt Thou not judge Thy suffering Church,
   Her sighs, her tears, and blood?

7 We long to hear Thy voice
   To see Thee face to face,
   To share Thy crown and glory there,
   As here we share Thy grace.

8 Should not the loving Bride
   The absent Bridegroom mourn;
   Should she not wear the weeds of grief
   Until her Lord return?

9 The whole creation groans,
   And waits to hear that voice,
   That shall restore her comeliness,
   And make her wastes rejoice.

10 Come, Lord, and wipe away
   The curse, the sin, the stain,
   And make this blighted world of ours
   Thine own fair world again. Amen.

"Christ is the Head of the Church."—Eph. v. 23.

1 The Church's one foundation
    Is Jesus Christ her Lord:
    She is His new creation
    By water and the word:
    From heaven He came and sought her
    To be His holy bride,
    With His own Blood He bought her,
    And for her life He died.

   Elect from every nation,
   Yet one o'er all the earth,
   Her charter of salvation
   One Lord, one Faith, one Birth;
   One Holy Name she blesses,
   Partakes one holy food,
   And to one hope she presses,
   With every grace endued.

   Though with a scornful wonder
   Men see her sore opprest,
   By schisms rent asunder,
   By heresies distrest;

   Yet saints their watch are keeping,
   Their cry goes up, "How long?"
   Cres. And soon the night of weeping
   Shall be the morn of song.

   'Mid toil and tribulation,
   And tumult of her war,
   She waits the consummation
   Of peace for evermore;
   Till with the vision glorious
   Her longing eyes are blest,
   And the great Church victorious
   Shall be the Church at rest.

   Yet she on earth hath union
   With God the Three in One,
   Dim. And mystic sweet communion
   With those whose rest is won.
   Cres. Oh, happy saints and holy!
   Lord, give us grace that we
   Like them, the meek and lowly,
   On high may dwell with Thee! Amen.
510

"The kingdom of God is within you."—St. Luke xvii. 21.

1 The City paved with gold,
   Bright with each dazzling gem!
   When shall our eyes behold
   The new Jerusalem?
   Yet lo! e'en now in viewless might
   Uprise the walls of living light!

2 The kingdom of the Lord!
   It cometh not with show:
   Nor throne, nor crown, nor sword,
   Proclaim its might below.
   Though dimly scanned through mists of sin,
   The Lord's true kingdom is within!

3 The gates of pearl are there
   In penitential tears:
   Bright as a jewel rare
   Each saintly grace appears:
   We track the path saints trod of old,
   And lo! the pavement is of gold!

4 The living waters flow
   That fainting souls may drink:
   The mystic fruit-trees grow
   Along the river's brink:
   We taste e'en now the waters sweet,
   And of the Tree of life we eat.

5 Not homeless wanderers here
   Our exile songs we sing;
   Thou art our home most dear,
   Thou city of our King!
   Thy future bliss we cannot tell,
   Content in thee on earth we dwell.

6 Build, Lord, the mystic walls!
   Throw wide the unseen gates!
   Fill all the golden halls,
   While yet Thy triumph waits!
   Cres. Make glad Thy Church with light and love,
   \( f \) Till glorified it shines above! Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

Jerusalem. 6.6.8.4. D. Old Hebrew Tune.

1 The God of Abraham praise,
Who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love:
The God who reigns on high
The great Archangels sing,
And "Holy, Holy, Holy," cry,
"Almighty King!"

On Sion's sacred height
His kingdom He maintains, cres. And glorious with His saints in light
f For ever reigns.

F 4 Before the Rainbow Throne
They all exulting stand,
And tell the wonders He hath done
Through all their land.
The listening choirs attend,
And swell the great acclaim,
And sing, in songs which never end,
jj The wondrous Name.

F 5 The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high;
"Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost," They ever cry;
Hail Abraham's God and mine!
I join the heavenly lays;
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise! Amen.

511 "I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father."—Gen. xxviii. 13.

2 The God of Abraham praise,
Whose all-sufficient grace
Shall lead me on, through all my days,
To see His face:
The goodly land to see,
With peace and plenty blest,
The land of sacred liberty
And endless rest.

3 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness,
A-d earth and heaven their praises bring,
His Name to bless;

4 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness,
A-d earth and heaven their praises bring,
His Name to bless;

5 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness,
A-d earth and heaven their praises bring,
His Name to bless;
512

"The Lord is my Shepherd."—Ps. xxiii. 1.

1. The King of love my Shepherd is,
   Whose goodness faileth never;
   I nothing lack if I am His
   And He is mine for ever.

2. Where streams of living water flow
   My ransomed soul He leadeth,
   And, where the verdant pastures grow,
   With food celestial feedeth.

3. Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
   But yet in love He sought me,
   And on His shoulder gently laid,
   And home, rejoicing, brought me.

4. In death's dark vale I fear no ill
   With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
   Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
   Thy Cross before to guide me.

5. Thou spread'st a table in my sight,
   Thy Unction grace bestoweth,
   Cres. And oh! what transport of delight
   From Thy pure Chalice floweth.

6. And so through all the length of days
   Thy goodness faileth never;
   $f$ Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
   $f$ Within Thy house for ever. Amen.
513  "God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding."—Ps. xlvii. 7.

1 The Lord is King! Lift up your voice,
O earth, and all ye heavens, rejoice;
From world to world the joy shall ring,
The Lord Omnipotent is King.

2 The Lord is King! Who then shall dare
Resist His will, distrust His care,
Or murmur at His wise decrees,
Or doubt His royal promises?

3 He reigns! Ye saints, exalt your strains!
Your God is King, your Father reigns;
And He is at the Father's side,
The Man of love, the Crucified.

4 Come, make your wants, your burdens known,
He will present them at the throne;
And angel bands are waiting there
His messages of love to bear.

5 Oh, when His wisdom can mistake,
His might decay, His love forsake,
Then may His children cease to sing,
"The Lord Omnipotent is King!" Amen.
514

P 1 The roseate hues of early dawn,
The brightness of the day,
The crimson of the sunset sky,
How fast they fade away!

F Oh! for the pearly gates of heaven,
Oh! for the golden floor,
Oh! for the Sun of Righteousness,
That setteth nevermore!

P 2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
How fast they tire and faint!
How many a spot defiles the robe
That wraps an earthly saint!

F Oh! for a heart that never sins,
Oh! for a soul washed white,
Oh! for a voice to praise our King,
Nor weary day or night.

P 3 Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
And grace to lead us higher;
F But there are perfectness and peace
Beyond our best desire.

F Oh! by Thy love and anguish, Lord;
Oh! by Thy life laid down;
F Oh! that we fall not from Thy grace,
Nor cast away our crown. Amen.

"There shall be no night there."—Rev. xxi. 25.
"Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named."—Eph. iii. 15.

1 The saints on earth, and those above,
   But one communion make;
   Joined to their Lord in bonds of love,
   All of His grace partake.

2 One family we dwell in Him,
   One Church, above, beneath,
   Though now divided by the stream,
   The narrow stream of death.

3 One army of the living God
   To His command we bow;
   Part of the host have crossed the flood,
   And part are crossing now.

4 Lo, thousands to their endless home
   Are swiftly borne away;
   And we are to the margin come,
   And soon must launch as they.

5 Lord Jesu, be our constant Guide:
   Then, when the word is given,
   Bid death's cold flood its waves divide,
   And bring us safe to heaven. Amen.
"All Thy works shall praise Thee, O Lord."—Ps. cxxv. 10.

"There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God."—Heb. iv. 9.

1 There is a blessed home
   Beyond this land of woe,
   Where trials never come,
   Nor tears of sorrow flow;
   Where faith is lost in sight,
   And patient hope is crowned,
   And everlasting light
   Its glory throws around.

2 There is a land of peace,
   Good Angels know it well,
   Glad songs that never cease
   Within its portals swell;
   Around its glorious throne
   Ten thousand saints adore
   Christ, with the Father One,
   And Spirit, evermore.

3 O joy, all joys beyond,
   dim. To see the Lamb who died,
   p  { And count each sacred wound
       p  { In Hands, and Feet, and Side;
         F To give to Him the praise
         Of every triumph won,
         And sing through endless days
         The great things He hath done.

4 Look up, ye saints of God,
   Nor fear to tread below
   dim. The path your Saviour trod p  { Of daily toil and woe:
       Wait but a little while
       In uncomplaining love, cres. His own most gracious smile
       f Shall welcome you above. Amen.
518 "The invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made."—Rom. i. 20.

1 There is a book, who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

2 The works of God above, below,
Within us and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God Himself is found.

3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love,
Wherewith encompassed, great and small
In peace and order move.

4 The Moon above, the Church below,
A wondrous race they run,
But all their radiance, all their glow,
Each borrows of its Sun.

5 Two worlds are ours: 'tis only sin
Forbids us to descry
The mystic heaven and earth within,
Plain as the sea and sky.

6 Thou who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out Thee,
And read Thee everywhere. Amen.
519

"Thine eyes shall behold the land that is very far off."—Isa. xxxiii. 17.

1 There is a land of pure delight
   Where saints immortal reign,
   Eternal day excludes the night,
   And pleasures banish pain.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
   And never-withering flowers;
   Death, like a narrow sea, divides
   This heavenly land from ours.

3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
   Stand dressed in living green;
   So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
   While Jordan rolled between.

4 Oh, could we make our doubts remove
   Those gloomy doubts that rise,
   And see the Canaan that we love
   With unclouded eyes;

5 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
   And view the landscape o'er,
   f Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
   f Should fright us from the shore. Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

520

"We rejoice in the hope of the glory of God."—Rom. v. 2.

1 There is no night in heaven;
   In that blest world above
Work never can bring weariness,
   For work itself is love.

2 There is no grief in heaven;
   For life is one glad day;
And tears are of those former things
   Which all have passed away.

3 There is no sin in heaven;
   Behold that blessed throng—
   All holy is their spotless robe!
   All holy is their song!

4 There is no death in heaven;
   For they who gain that shore
   Have won their immortality,
   And they can die no more.

5 Lord Jesu, be our Guide;
   Oh, lead us safely on,
   Till night and grief and sin and death
   Are past, and heaven is won! Amen.

ANGELS' SONG. L.M. DR. ORLANDO GIBBONS, 1623.

521 "Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?"—Heb. i. 14.

1 They come, God's Messengers of love,
   They come from realms of peace above,
From homes of never-fading light,
   From blissful mansions ever bright.

2 They come to watch around us here,
   They soothe our sorrow, calm our fear:
They come to speed us on our way;
   God willeth them with us to stay.

3 But chiefly at its journey's end
   'Tis theirs the spirit to befriend,
   And whisper to the willing heart,
   "O Christian soul, in peace depart."

4 Blest Jesu, Thou whose groans and tears
   Have sanctified frail nature's fears,
   To earth in bitter sorrow weighed
   Thou didst not scorn Thine Angels' aid.

5 To us the zeal of Angels give
   With love to serve Thee, while we live;
   To us an Angel guard supply
   When on the bed of death we lie.

6 So when the toils of earth are past
   We may attain to bliss at last,
   And with the choirs of Angels sing
   Glory to the eternal King. Amen.
522

"We are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses." — Heb. xii. 1.

1. They whose course on earth is o'er,
   Think they of their brethren more?
   They before the throne who bow,
   Feel they for their brethren now?

2. We, by enemies distressed,—
   They, in Paradise at rest;
   We the captives,—they the freed,—
   We and they are one indeed:

3. One in all we seek or shun;
   One, because our Lord is one;
   One in heart, and one in love;
   We below, and they above.

4. Those whom many a land divides,
   Many mountains, many tides,
   Have they with each other part?
   Have they fellowship in heart?

5. Each to each may be unknown,
   Wide apart their lots be thrown;
   Differing tongues their lips may speak,
   One be strong, and one be weak:

6. Yet in sacrament and prayer
   Each with other hath a share;
   Hath a share in tear and sigh,
   Watch, and fast, and litany.

7. With each other join they here
   In affliction, doubt, and fear;
   That hereafter they may be Joined, O Lord, in bliss with Thee.

F. Three so with them our hearts we raise,
   Share their work and join their praise;
   Rendering worship, thanks and love,
   To the Trinity above! Amen.
523 "Now these are Thy servants, and Thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed by Thy great power, and by Thy strong hand."—Neh. i. 10.

Thine for ever! God of love,
Hear us from Thy throne above;
Thine for ever may we be
Here and in eternity.
"When He ascended up on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men."—Eph. iv. 8.

525

F 1 Thou art gone up on high
To mansions in the skies;
And round Thy throne unceasingly
The songs of praise arise.

P But we are lingering here,
With sin and care oppressed;
Lord, send Thy promised Comforter,
And lead us to our rest.

F 2 Thou art gone up on high;
But Thou didst first come down
Through earth's most bitter misery
To pass unto Thy crown;
And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be;
But only let that path of tears

cres. Lead us at last to Thee!

f 3 Thou art gone up on high;
But Thou shalt come again,
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendant in Thy train.
Oh! by Thy saving power,
So make us live and die,
That we may stand in that dread hour

f At Thy right hand on high. Amen.

1 Thou art the Way:—by Thee alone
From sin and death we flee;
And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.

2 Thou art the Truth:—Thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life:—the rending tomb
Proclaims Thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in Thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life:
Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to win
f Whose joys eternal flow. Amen.

Deliverance.

Rev. Dr. L. G. Hayne.
"He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder."—Ps. cvii. 14.

1 Thou, who breakest every chain,
Thou, who still art ever near,
Thou, with whom disgrace and pain
Turn to joy and heaven e'en here;

Look upon our bonds and see
How doth all creation groan
'Neath the yoke of vanity;
Make Thy full redemption known!

2 Still we wrestle, cry, and pray,
Held in bitter bondage fast,
Fain our souls would break away
Into higher things at last;

Still our spirit clings to Thee,
Will not, dare not, let Thee go,
Till Thy power have set us free
From the bonds that cause our woe.

3 Ours the fault it is, we own:
We are slaves to self and sloth;
Yet, oh, leave us not alone
In the living death we loathe!

Crushed beneath our burden's weight,
Crying at Thy feet we fall,
Show the path, though steep and strait,
Thou didst open once for all!

4 By Thy dying we were bought,
Ransomed from the world and sin;
By the work that Thou hast wrought,
Jesu, make us pure within.

Courage! long the time may seem;
Yet the day is coming fast;
We shall be like them that dream
When our freedom dawns at last! Amen.

"And God said, Let there be light, and there was light."—Gen. i. 3.

1 Thou, whose almighty word
   Chaos and darkness heard,
   And took their flight,
   Hear us, we humbly pray,
   Sheds not its glorious ray
   Let there be light!

2 Thou, who didst come to bring,
   On Thy redeeming wing,
   Healing and sight;
   Health to the sick in mind,
   Sight to the inly blind,
   Oh, now to all mankind
   Let there be light!

3 Spirit of truth and love,
   Life-giving, holy Dove,
   Speed forth Thy flight!
   Move on the waters' face,
   Bearing the lamp of grace,
   And in earth's darkest place
   Let there be light!

4 Blessed and Holy Three,
   Glorious Trinity,
   Wisdom, Love, Might!
   Boundless as ocean's tide
   Rolling in fullest pride
   Through the earth, far and wide,
   Let there be light! Amen.

2 Light of Light! with morning shine,
Lift on us Thy light divine;
And let charity benign
Breathe on us her balm.

3 Light of Light! when falls the even,
Let it close on sin forgiven;
Fold us in the peace of heaven,
Shed a holy calm.

4 Three in One, and One in Three,
Dimly here we worship Thee;
With the saints hereafter we Hope to bear the palm. Amen.

Bristol. C.M. Ravenscroft's Psalter, 1621.

530 "The Angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them."—Ps. xxxiv. 7.

1 THROUGH all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble and in joy,
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ.

2 Oh, magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt His Name;
When in distress to Him I called,
He to my rescue came.

3 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just;
Deliverance He affords to all
Who in His succour trust.

4 Oh! make but trial of His love,
Experience will decide,
How blessed are they, and only they,
Who in His truth confide.

5 For God preserves the souls of those Who on His truth depend;
To them and their posterity
His blessings shall descend. Amen.
531

"Master, I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou goest."—St. Matt. viii. 19.

1 Through good report and evil, Lord,
Still guided by Thy faithful word,—
Our staff, our buckler, and our sword,—
We follow Thee.

2 In silence of the lonely night,
In the full glow of day's clear light,
Through life's strange wanderings, dark or bright,
We follow Thee.

3 Strengthened by Thee we forward go,
'Mid smile or scoff of friend or foe,
Through pain or ease, through joy or woe,
We follow Thee.

4 With enemies on every side,
We lean on Thee, the Crucified;
Forsaking all on earth beside,
We follow Thee.

5 O Master, point Thou out the way,
Nor suffer Thou our steps to stray;
Then in that path that leads to Day
We follow Thee.

6 Thou hast passed on before our face;
Thy footsteps on the way we trace;
Oh, keep us, aid us by Thy grace;
We follow Thee.

7 Whom have we in the heaven above,
Whom on this earth, save Thee, to love?
Still in Thy light we onward move;
We follow Thee! Amen.

"And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light."—Exod. xiii. 21.

1 Through the night of doubt and sorrow
Onward goes the pilgrim band,
Singing songs of expectation,
Marching to the Promised Land.

Clear before us through the darkness
Gleams and burns the guiding Light:
Brother clasps the hand of brother,
Stepping fearless through the night.

2 One the Light of God's own Presence,
O'er His ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread:

3 One the strain the lips of thousands
Lilt as from the heart of one;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One the march in God begun:

One the object of our journey,
One the Faith which never tires,
One the earnest looking forward,
One the Hope our God inspires.

4 Onward, therefore, pilgrim brothers,
Onward, with the Cross our aid!
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade!

Soon shall come the great awaking;
Soon the rending of the tomb;
Then, the scattering of all shadows,
And the end of toil and gloom! Amen.
GENERAL HYMNS.

EDEN.  6.6.6.6.  Rev. O. M. Feilden.

1 Thy Way, not mine, O Lord,
   However dark it be!
   Lead me by Thine own hand,
   Choose out the path for me.

2 Smooth let it be or rough,
   It will be still the best;
   Winding or straight, it leads
   Right onward to Thy Rest.

3 I dare not choose my lot;
   I would not if I might;
   Choose Thou for me, my God;
   So shall I walk aright.

4 The Kingdom that I seek
   Is Thine; so let the way
   That leads to it be Thine,
   Else I must surely stray.

5 Take Thou my cup, and it
   With joy or sorrow fill,
   As best to Thee may seem;
   Choose Thou my good and ill.

6 Choose Thou for me my friends,
   My sickness or my health;
   Choose Thou my cares for me,
   My poverty or wealth.

7 Not mine, not mine the choice,
   In things or great or small;
   Be Thou my Guide, my Strength,
   My Wisdom, and my all. Amen.

"To-day, if ye will hear His voice."—Ps. xcv. 7.

1 To-day Thy mercy calls us
   To wash away our sin,
   However great our trespass,
   Whatever we have been;
   However long from mercy
   Our hearts have turned away,
   Thy precious Blood can cleanse us,
   And make us white to-day.

2 To-day Thy gate is open,
   And all who enter in Shall find a Father's welcome,
   And pardon for their sin.

     \textit{cres.} The past shall be forgotten,
     A present joy be given,
   \textit{f} A future grace be promised,

3 To-day our Father calls us,
   His Holy Spirit waits;
   His blessed Angels gather
   Around the heavenly gates:
   No question will be asked us
   How often we have come;
   Although we oft have wandered,
   It is our Father's Home!

4 Oh, all-embracing mercy!
   Oh, ever-open door!
   What should we do without Thee
   When heart and eyes run o'er?
   When all things seem against us,
   To drive us to despair,
   We know one gate is open,
   One Ear will hear our prayer! Amen.

ALLELUIA.

OTTO GOLDSCHMIDT.

535 "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing." — Rev. v. 12.

1 To Him who for our sins was slain,
   To Him, for all His dying pain
   Sing we Alleluia!

   To Him, the Lamb our Sacrifice,
   Who gave His Soul our ransom-price,
   Sing we Alleluia!

2 To Him who died that we might die
   To sin, and live with Him on high,
   Sing we Alleluia!

   To Him who rose that we might rise
   And reign with Him beyond the skies,
   Sing we Alleluia!

3 To Him who now for us doth plead,
   And helpeth us in all our need,
   Sing we Alleluia!

   To Him who doth prepare on high
   Our home in immortality,
   Sing we Alleluia!

4 To Him be glory evermore;
   Ye heavenly hosts, your Lord adore!
   Sing we Alleluia!

   To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God most High, our joy and boast.
   Sing we Alleluia! Amen.

"God hath given Him a Name which is above every name."—Phil. ii. 9.

1 To the Name that speaks salvation
   Praise and honour let us pay,
   Which before the world's creation
   In the Father's Bosom lay,
   But to every tongue and nation
   By the Church is known to-day.

2 Name beloved, Name of Jesus!
   Name beyond what words can tell;
   Name that comforts, Name that pleases
   Every heart which knows it well;
   Name that man from guilt releases,
   Name that breaks the bonds of hell!

   Name for lowly adoration,
   Name for high triumphant lays;
   Name for constant meditation
   Through the world's perplexing ways;
   Name which yonder ransomed nation
   Worthily alone can praise!

   Name of which the true proclaiming
   To the ear like music cleaves;
   Name of which the very naming
   On the lips its sweetness leaves;
   Name on which her musings framing
   Light and joy the soul receives.

   Name in worthiest honour planted
   Over every name on high;
   Name whereby our foe is daunted,
   Satan's hosts in terror fly;
   Name to man in mercy granted,
   Timely succour to supply.

   Thus with reverent awe we greet Thee,
   Name most blessed to our sight!
   Holy Jesu, we entreat Thee
   In our hearts Thy Name to write,
   Till that face to face we meet Thee,
   Gathered to Thy saints in light! Amen.

"Lord, Thou hast been favourable unto Thy land."—Ps. lxxxv. 1.

1. To Thee, our God, we fly
   For mercy and for grace;
   Oh! hear our lowly cry,
   And hide not Thou Thy face.
   O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
   And guard and bless our Fatherland.

2. Arise, O Lord of Hosts!
   Be jealous for Thy Name,
   And drive from out our coasts
   The sins that put to shame.
   O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
   And guard and bless our Fatherland.

3. Thy best gifts from on high
   In rich abundance pour,
   That we may magnify
   And praise Thee more and more.
   O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
   And guard and bless our Fatherland.

4. The powers ordained by Thee
   With heavenly wisdom bless,
   May they Thy servants be,
   And rule in righteousness.
   O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
   And guard and bless our Fatherland.

5. The Church of Thy dear Son
   Inflame with love's pure fire,
   Bind her once more in one,

6. The pastors of Thy fold
   With grace and power endue,
   That faithful, pure, and bold,
   They may be pastors true.
   O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
   And guard and bless our Fatherland.

7. Oh! let us love Thy house,
   And sanctify Thy day,
   Bring unto Thee our vows,
   And loyal homage pay.
   O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
   And guard and bless our Fatherland.

8. Give peace, Lord, in our time;
   Oh! let no foe draw nigh,
   Nor lawless deed of crime
   Insult Thy Majesty.
   O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
   And guard and bless our Fatherland.

9. Though vile and worthless, still
   Thy people, Lord, are we;
   And for our God we will
   None other have but Thee.
   O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
   And guard and bless our Fatherland. Amen.

"Behold, the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet Him."—St. Matt. xxv. 6.

1 Wake, awake, for night is flying; The watchmen on the heights are crying,
Awake, Jerusalem, arise! Midnight’s solemn hour is tolling,
His chariot wheels are nearer rolling;
He comes; prepare ye virgins wise:
Rise up! with willing feet
Go forth, the Bridegroom meet.
Alleluia!
Bear through the night your well-trimmed light,
Speed forth to join the marriage rite!

2 Sion hears the watchmen singing; Her heart with deep delight is springing;
At once she wakes, she hastens away.
Forth her Bridegroom hastens glorious,
In grace arrayed, by truth victorious;
Her grief is joy, her night is day!
Hail, worthy Champion!
Christ, God Almighty’s Son!
Alleluia!
We haste along, in pomp of song,
And gladsome join the marriage throng!

3 Hear Thy praise, O Lord, ascending
From tongues of men and Angels blending
With harp and lute and psaltery.
By Thy pearly gates in wonder
We stand, and swell the voice of thunder
In bursts of choral melody!
No vision ever brought,
No ear hath ever caught,
Such bliss and joy!
We raise the song, we swell the throng,
To praise Thee, ages all along! Amen.
539 "He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him."—Heb. vii. 25.

1 We come to Thee, dear Saviour,
   Just because we need Thee so;
   None need Thee more than we do;
   None are half so vile and low.

2 We come to Thee, dear Saviour,
   With our broken faith again:
   We know Thou wilt forgive us,
   Nor upbraid us, nor complain.

3 We come to Thee, dear Saviour!
   It is love that makes us come;
   We are certain of our welcome,
   Of our Father's welcome home.

4 We come to Thee, dear Saviour!
   Fear brings us in our need;
   For Thy hand never breaketh
   E'en the frailest bruised reed.

5 We come to Thee, dear Saviour!
   For to whom, Lord, can we go?
   The words of life eternal
   From Thy lips for ever flow.

6 We come to Thee, dear Saviour!
   And Thou wilt not ask us why;
   We cannot live without Thee,
   And still less without Thee die! Amen.

47+ N.B. Words in Italics to be sung to small notes.
"Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy house."—Ps. xxvi. 8.

1 We love the place, O God,
   Wherein Thine honour dwells;
The joy of Thine abode
   All earthly joy excels.

2 It is the house of prayer,
   Wherein Thy servants meet;
And Thou, O Lord, art there
   Thy chosen flock to greet.

3 We love the sacred Font;
   For there the Holy Dove
To pour is ever wont
   His blessing from above.

4 We love Thine Altar, Lord;
   Oh, what on earth so dear?
For there, in faith adored,
   We find Thy presence near.

5 We love the word of life,
   The word that tells of peace,
_of comfort in the strife,
   And joys that never cease.

6 We love to sing below
   For mercies freely given;
But oh! we long to know
   The triumph-song of heaven.

7 Lord Jesus, give us grace
   On earth to love Thee more,
_in heaven to see Thy Face,
   And with Thy saints adore. Amen.
541  "Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed."—St. John xx. 29.

1 We saw Thee not when Thou didst tread,
   O Saviour, this our sinful earth,
   Nor heard Thy voice restore the dead
   And wake them to a second birth:
   But we believe that Thou didst come,
   And leave for us Thy glorious home.

2 We saw Thee not upon the wave,
   When Thou the stormy sea didst bind,
   Nor saw the health Thy blessing gave
   To lame and sick, to deaf and blind:
   But we believe the Fount of light
   Could give the darkened eyeball sight.

3 We were not with the faithful few
   Who stood Thy bitter Cross around,
   Nor heard Thy prayer for those that slew,
   Nor felt the earthquake rock the ground;
   We saw no spear-wound pierce Thy Side:
   Yet we believe that Thou hast died.

4 We did not see those faithful few
   When Thou didst through the clouds ascend,
   First lift to heaven their wondering view,
   Then to the earth all prostrate bend:
   But we believe that mortal eyes
   Beheld that journey to the skies.

5 And now that Thou dost reign on high,
   And still, our longing sight to bless,
   No ray of glory from the sky
   Shines down upon our wilderness:
   Yet we believe that Thou art there,
   And seek Thee, Lord, in praise and prayer.  Amen.
542  "Who His own self bare our sins in His own Body on the Tree." — 1 Pet. ii. 24.

1 We sing the praise of Him who died,
   Of Him who died upon the Cross;
   The sinner's hope let men deride,
   For this we count the world but loss.

2 Inscribed upon the Cross we see,
   In shining letters, God is Love;
   He bears our sins upon the tree,
   He brings us mercy from above.

3 The Cross! it takes our guilt away;
   It holds the fainting spirit up;

5 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
   The measure and the pledge of love,
   The sinner's refuge here below,
   f The Angels' theme in heaven above. Amen.

543  "Lord, what is man that Thou takest knowledge of him!" — Ps. cxliv. 3.

1 We thank Thee, Lord, for this fair earth,
   The glittering sky, the silver sea;
   For all their beauty, all their worth,
   Their light and glory, come from Thee.

2 Thine are the flowers that clothe the ground,
   The trees that wave their arms above,
   The hills that gird our dwellings round,
   As Thou dost gird Thine own with love.

3 Yet teach us still how far more fair,
   More glorious, Father, in Thy sight,
   Is one pure deed, one holy prayer,
   One heart that owns Thy Spirit's might.

4 So while we gaze with thoughtful eye
   On all the gifts Thy love has given,
   Help us in Thee to live and die,
   cres. By Thee to rise from earth to heaven. Amen.
544 "In whom we have redemption through His Blood, the forgiveness of sins."—Eph. i. 7.

P 1 Weary of earth, and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in,
But there no evil thing may find a home:
And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come."

P 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that Holy Land?
Before the whiteness of that Throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.

P 3 The while I fain would tread the heavenly way,
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
"Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all."

M 4 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear,
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,
And His the Blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the Throne.

M 5 'Twas He who found me on the deathly wild,
And made me heir of heaven, the Father's child,
And day by day, whereby my soul may live,
Gives me His grace of pardon, and will give.
O great Absolver, grant my soul may wear
The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer,
That in the Father's courts my glorious dress
May be the garment of Thy righteousness.

Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, Righteous Lord;
Thine all the merits, mine the great reward;
Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden crown;
Mine the life won, and Thine the life laid down!

Naught can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe;
Yet let my full heart what it can bestow;
Like Mary's gift let my devotion prove,
Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love. Amen.

When cold our hearts, and far from Thee
Our wandering spirits stray,
And thoughts and lips move heavily;
Lord, teach us how to pray.

Too vile to venture near Thy Throne,
Too poor to turn away;
Our only voice Thy Spirit's groan;
Lord, teach us how to pray.

We know not how to seek Thy face,
Unless Thou lead the way;
We have no words, unless Thy grace,
Lord, teach us how to pray.

Here every thought and fond desire
We on Thy altar lay;
And when our souls have caught Thy fire,
Lord, teach us how to pray! Amen.
This is my comfort in my affliction: for Thy word hath quickened me."—Ps. cxix. 50.

1 When gathering clouds around I view,
And days are dark, and friends are few,
On Him I lean, who, not in vain,
Experienced every human pain;
He sees my wants, allays my fears,
And counts and treasures up my tears.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the sin I would not do.
Still He, who felt temptation's power,
Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 If vexing thoughts within me rise,
And sore dismayed my spirit dies;
Still He, who once vouchsafed to bear
The awful anguish of despair,
Shall sweetly soothe, shall gently dry,
The throbbing heart, the streaming eye.

4 And oh! when I have safely past
Through every conflict but the last,
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed—for Thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe the latest tear away. Amen,
"I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord."—Phil. iii. 8.

1 When I survey the wondrous Cross
   On which the Prince of glory died,
   My richest gain I count but loss,
   And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
   Save in the death of Christ my God!
   All the vain things that charm me most,
   I sacrifice them to His Blood.

3 See! from His Head, His Hands, His Feet,
   Sorrow and love flow mingled down!
   Did e'er such love and sorrow meet
   Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
   That were an offering far too small;
   Love so amazing, so divine,
   Demands my soul, my life, my all. Amen.

"It is I; be not afraid."—St. John vi. 20.

1 When the dark waves round us roll,
   And we look in vain for aid,
   Speak, Lord, to the trembling soul,—
   "It is I; be not afraid."

2 When we dimly trace Thy form
   In mysterious clouds arrayed,
   Be the echo of the storm,—
   "It is I; be not afraid."

3 When our brightest hopes depart,
   When our fairest visions fade,
   Whisper to the fainting heart,—
   "It is I; be not afraid."

4 When we weep beside the bier
   Where some well-loved form is laid,
   Oh! may then the mourner hear,—
   "It is I; be not afraid."

5 When with wearing hopeless pain
   Sinks the spirit sore dismayed,
   Breathe Thou then the comfort-strain—
   "It is I; be not afraid."

6 When we feel the end is near,
   Passing into death's dark shade, cres. May the voice be strong and clear,—
   f "It is I; be not afraid." Amen.

GENERAL HYMNS.

552 "Seeing then that we have a great High-priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession."—Heb. iv. 14.

1 Where high the heavenly temple stands,
The house of God not made with hands,
A great High-priest our nature wears,
The guardian of mankind appears.

2 He who for men their Surety stood,
And poured on earth His precious Blood,
Pursues in heaven His mighty plan,
The Saviour and the Friend of man.

3 Though now ascended up on high,
He bends on earth a brother's eye;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the weakness of our frame.

4 In every pang that rends the heart
The Man of sorrows had a part;
Touched with the feeling of our grief,
He to the sufferer sends relief.

cres. 5 With boldness, therefore, at His throne, dim. Come, let us make our sorrows known,
mf And ask the aid of heavenly power,
  To help us in the evil hour. Amen.

553 "Lord, I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou goest."—St. Luke ix. 57.

1 Where'er have trod Thy sacred Feet,
Teach us, O Lord, Thy steps to trace,
Where men in busy conourse meet,
Or in the lonely wilderness.

2 Bid us with Thee to watch and pray,
With Thee to die, with Thee to rise,
With Thee to bear our cross each day,
With Thee to soar beyond the skies.

3 Where'er Thou art may we remain;
Where'er Thou goest may we go:
With Thee, O Lord, no grief is pain;
Away from Thee, all joy is woe.

4 Oh! may we in each holy tide,
Each solemn season, dwell with Thee,
Content if only by Thy side
In life or death we still may be. Amen.

554 "What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?"—Rev. vii.13.

1 Who are these, like stars appearing,
   These, before God's Throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing—
   Who are all this glorious band?
_f_ Alleluia! hark they sing,
_f_ Praising loud their heavenly King!

2 Who are these of dazzling brightness,
   These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
   Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand—
   Whence comes all this glorious band?

3 These are they who have contended
   For their Saviour's honour long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
   Following not the sinful throng;

554  "What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?"—Rev. vii. 13.

1 Who are these, like stars appearing,
   These, before God's Throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing—
   Who are all this glorious band?
\( p \) Alleluia! hark they sing,
   \( f \) Praising loud their heavenly King!

2 Who are these of dazzling brightness,
   These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
   Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand—
   Whence comes all this glorious band?

3 These are they who have contended
   For their Saviour's honour long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
   Following not the sinful throng;
\( c res. \) These, who well the fight sustained,
   \( f \) Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

CROSS AND CROWN. 8.7.8.7. D. J. W. ELLIOTT.

The small notes for the Organ, to be used in 2nd verse only.

"The Word was God."—St. John i. 1.

P 1 Who is this, so weak and helpless,
Child of lowly Hebrew maid,
Rudely in a stable sheltered,
Coldly in a manger laid?

F 'Tis the Lord of all creation,
Who this wondrous path hath trod,
He is God from everlasting,
And to everlasting God.

P 2 Who is this—a Man of Sorrows,
Walking sadly life’s hard way,
Homeless, weary, sighing, weeping
Over sin and Satan’s sway?

F 'Tis our God, our glorious Saviour,
Who above the starry sky
Now for us a place prepareth,
Where no tear can dim the eye.

P 3 Who is this—behold Him shedding
Drops of Blood upon the ground?
Who is this—despised, rejected,
Mocked, insulted, beaten, bound?

F 'Tis our God, who gifts and graces
On His Church now poureth down;
Who shall smite in holy vengeance
All His foes beneath His throne.

P 4 Who is this that hangeth dying,
While the rude world scoffs and scorns;
Numbered with the malefactors,
Torn with nails, and crowned with thorns?

F 'Tis the God who ever liveth
'Mid the shining ones on high,
In the glorious golden city
Reigning everlastingly! Amen.
Who trusts in God, a strong abode
In heaven and earth possesses;
Who looks in love to Christ above,
No fear his heart oppresses.

In Thee alone, dear Lord, we own
Sweet hope and consolation;
Ours our shield from foes, our balm for woes,
Our great and sure salvation!

2 Though Satan's wrath beset our path,
And worldly scorn assail us,
While Thou art near we will not fear,
Thy strength shall never fail us.

Thy rod and staff shall keep us safe,
And guide our steps for ever;
Nor shades of death, nor hell beneath,
Our souls from Thee shall sever.

3 In all the strife of mortal life
Our feet shall stand securely;
Temptation's hour shall lose its power,
For Thou shalt guard us surely.

O God, renew, with heavenly dew,
Our body, soul, and spirit,
Until we stand at Thy right hand,
GENERAL HYMNS.

GOLDEN SHEAVES. [Second Tune.] 8.7.8.7. D.  ARTHUR SULLIVAN.

"My God, my strength, in whom I will trust."—Ps. xviii. 2.

1 Who trusts in God, a strong abode
   In heaven and earth possesses;
   Who looks in love to Christ above,
   No fear his heart oppresses.
   In Thee alone, dear Lord, we own
   Sweet hope and consolation;
   Our shield from foes, our balm for woes,
   Our great and sure salvation!

2 Though Satan's wrath beset our path,
   And worldly scorn assail us,
   While Thou art near we will not fear,
   Thy strength shall never fail us.
   Thy rod and staff shall keep us safe,
   And guide our steps for ever;
   Nor shades of death, nor hell beneath,
   Our souls from Thee shall sever.

3 In all the strife of mortal life
   Our feet shall stand securely;
   Temptation's hour shall lose its power,
   For Thou shalt guard us surely.
   O God, renew, with heavenly dew,
   Our body, soul, and spirit,
   Until we stand at Thy right hand,
"The Lord is my high tower."—Ps. xviii. 2.

1 Why should I fear the darkest hour,
Or tremble at the tempter’s power?
Jesus vouchsafes to be my tower.

2 When earthly comforts fade and die,
Though others weep, yet why should I?
Jesus still lives, and still is nigh.

3 I know not what may soon betide,
Or how my wants shall be supplied;
But Jesus knows, and will provide.

4 Though sin would fill me with distress,
The throne of grace I dare address,
For Jesus is my righteousness.

5 Against me earth and hell combine;
cres. But on my side is power divine:
f Jesus is all, and He is mine. Amen.
558

"God be merciful to me a sinner."—St. Luke xviii. 13.

1 With broken heart, and contrite sigh,
   A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry;
   Thy pardoning grace is rich and free;
   O God, be merciful to me!

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
   With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
   Christ and His Cross my only plea;
   O God, be merciful to me!

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
   Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
   But Thou dost all my anguish see;
   O God, be merciful to me!

4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done
   Can for a single sin atone;
   To Calvary alone I flee;
   O God, be merciful to me!

5 And when redeemed from sin and hell,
   With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
   My raptured song shall ever be;
   God has been merciful to me. Amen.

ELY.

559

"The Lord reigneth, He is clothed with majesty."—Ps. xciii. 1.

1 With glory clad, with strength arrayed,
   The Lord, that o'er all nature reigns,
   And the vast fabric still sustains.

2 The world's foundations strongly laid,
   My raptured song shall ever be,
   God has been merciful to me. Amen.

3 My raptured song shall ever be,
   And the vast fabric still sustains.
2 How surely established is Thy throne,
Which shall no change or period see!
For Thou, O Lord, and Thou alone,
Art God from all eternity.

3 The floods, O Lord, lift up their voice,
And toss the troubled waves on high;
But God above can still their noise,
And make the angry sea comply.

4 Thy promise, Lord, is ever sure,
And they that in Thy house would dwell,
That happy station to secure,
Must still in holiness excel. Amen.

5 Ye holy Angels bright,
Who wait at God's right hand,
Or through the realms of light
Fly at your Lord's command.

2 Ye blessed souls at rest,
Who ran this earthly race,
And now, from sin released,
Behold your Father's Face,
His praises sound,
As in His light
With sweet delight
Ye do abound.

5 Ye saints, who toil below,
Adore your heavenly King,
And onward as ye go
Some joyful anthem sing;
Take what He gives,
And praise Him still
Through good and ill
Who ever lives!

4 My soul, bear thou thy part,
Triumph in God above,
And with a well-tuned heart
Sing thou the songs of love!
Let all thy days
Till life shall end,
Whate'er He send,
Be filled with praise! Amen.

560 "Praise the Lord from the heavens. Praise the Lord from the earth."—Ps. cxlviii. 1, 7.
Ye servants of God,
Your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad
His wonderful Name;
The Name all-victorious
Of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious,
And rules over all.

Salvation to God
Who sits on the throne,
Let all cry aloud
And honour the Son.
The praises of Jesus
All Angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces
And worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore
And give Him His right,
All glory and power,
All wisdom and might,
All honour and blessing,
With Angels above;
And thanks never ceasing,
And infinite love. Amen.
“Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord when He cometh shall find watching.”—St. Luke xii. 37.

1 Ye servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait,
Observant of His heavenly word,
And watchful at His gate.

2 Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame;
Gird up your loins, as in His sight,
For awful is His Name.

3 Watch, 'tis your Lord's command;
And, while we speak, He's near;
Mark the first signal of His hand,
And ready all appear.

4 O happy servant he
In such a posture found!
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honour crowned.

5 Christ shall the banquet spread
With His own royal Hand,
And raise that faithful servant's head
Amid the angelic band.

6 To God the Father, Son,
And Spirit, ever blessed,
The One in Three, the Three in One,
Be endless praise addressed. Amen.

563 "And Jesus called a little child unto Him, and set him in the midst of them."—St. Matt. xviii. 2.

1 Lord Jesus, God and Man,
For love of men a Child,
The Very God, yet born on earth
Of Mary undefiled;

2 Lord Jesus, God and Man,
In this our festal day
To Thee for precious gifts of grace
Thy ransomed people pray.

3 We pray for childlike hearts,
For gentle holy love,
For strength to do Thy will below
As Angels do above.

4 We pray for simple faith,
For hope that never faints,
For true communion evermore
With all Thy blessed saints.

5 On friends around us here,
Oh, let Thy blessing fall!
We pray for grace to love them well,
But Thee beyond them all.

6 Oh, joy to live for Thee!
Oh, joy in Thee to die!
Oh, very joy of joys, to see
Thy Face eternally!

7 Lord Jesus, God and Man,
We praise Thee and adore,
Who art with God the Father One,
And Spirit evermore. Amen.
CHILDREN'S HYMNS.

German Hymn. 7-7-7-7. Adapted from Ignaz Pleyel.

Lord, this day Thy children meet
In Thy courts with willing feet:
Unto Thee this day they raise
Grateful hearts in hymns of praise.

Not alone the day of rest
With Thy worship shall be blest:
In our pleasure and our glee,
Lord, we would remember Thee.

Help us unto Thee to pray,
Hallowing our happy day;
From Thy presence thus to win
Hearts all pure and free from sin.

All our pleasures here below,
Saviour, from Thy mercy flow:
Little children Thou dost love;
Draw our hearts to Thee above.

Make, O Lord, our childhood shine
With all lowly grace, like Thine:
Then through all eternity
We shall live in heaven with Thee. Amen.
Above the clear blue sky, In heaven's bright abode,
The Angel host on high, Sing praises to their God:
Alleluia!
They love to sing To God their King Alleluia! Amen.

565

"Praise our God, ye that fear Him, both small and great."—Rev xix. 5.

1 Above the clear blue sky,
In heaven's bright abode,
The Angel host on high,
Sing praises to their God:

They love to sing
To God their King
Alleluia!

2 But God from infant tongues
On earth receiveth praise;
We then our cheerful songs
In sweet accord will raise:

We too will sing
To God our King
Alleluia!

3 O blessed Lord, Thy truth
To us Thy babes impart,
And teach us in our youth
To know Thee as Thou art.

Then shall we sing
To God our King
Alleluia!

4 Oh! may Thy holy word
Spread all the world around:
And all with one accord
Uplift the joyful sound,

All then shall sing
To God their King
Alleluia! Amen.
St. Theresa.

"Lead me into the land of uprightness."—Ps. cxliii. 10.

1 BRIGHTLY gleams our banner,
   Pointing to the sky,
   Waving on Christ's soldiers
   To their home on high!
   Marching through the desert,
   Gladly thus we pray,
   Still, with hearts united,
   Singing on our way,—
   Brightly gleams our banner,
   Pointing to the sky,
   Waving on Christ's soldiers
   To their home on high!

2 Jesu, Lord and Master,
   At Thy sacred feet,
   Here, with hearts rejoicing,
   See Thy children meet.
   Often have we left Thee,
   Often gone astray;
   Keep us, mighty Saviour,
   In the narrow way.
   F Brightly gleams, &c.

3 Pattern of our childhood,
   Once Thyself a child,
   Make our childhood holy,
   Pure, and meek, and mild.
   In the hour of danger
   Whither can we flee,
   Save to Thee, dear Saviour,
   Only unto Thee?
   F Brightly gleams, &c.

4 All our days direct us,
   In the way we go;
   Crown us still victorious
   Over every foe:
   Bid Thine Angels shield us
   When the storm-clouds lour;
   Pardon Thou and save us
   In the last dread hour.
   F Brightly gleams, &c.

5 Then with saints and Angels
   May we join above,
   Offering prayers and praises
   At Thy Throne of love.
   When the march is over,
   Then come rest and peace,
   Jesus in His beauty!
   Songs that never cease!
   F Brightly gleams, &c. Amen.

501
COME, Christian children, come and raise
Your voice with one accord;
Come, sing in joyful songs of praise
The glories of your Lord.

Sing of the wonders of His Love,
And loudest praises give
To Him who left His Throne above,
And died that you might live.

Sing of the wonders of His Truth,
And read in every page

The promise made to earliest youth
Fulfilled to latest age.

Sing of the wonders of His Power,
Who with His own right arm
Upholds and keeps you hour by hour,
And shields from every harm.

Sing of the wonders of His Grace,
Who made and keeps you His,
And guides you to the appointed place
At His right hand in bliss. Amen.

"O give thanks to Him who alone doeth great wonders."—Ps. cxxxvi. 3, 4.
"Every day will I bless Thee."—Ps. cxlv. 2.

5 Day by day we magnify Thee—
When for Jesus' sake we try
Every wrong to bear with patience,
Every sin to mortify.

6 Day by day we magnify Thee—
Till our days on earth shall cease,
Till we rest from these our labours,
Waiting for Thy Day in peace;

7 Then, on that eternal morning,
With Thy great redeemed host,
May we fully magnify Thee—
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost! Amen.

"Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits."—Ex. xxii. 29.

1 Fair waved the golden corn
In Canaan's pleasant land,
When full of joy, some shining morn,
Went forth the reaper-band.

2 To God so good and great
Their cheerful thanks they pour,
Then carry to His temple-gate
The choicest of their store.

3 For thus the holy word,
Spoken by Moses, ran:
"The first ripe ears are for the Lord,
The rest He gives to man."

4 Like Israel, Lord, we give
Our earliest fruits to Thee,
And pray that, long as we shall live,
We may Thy children be.

5 Thine is our youthful prime,
And life and all its powers;
Be with us in our morning time,
And bless our evening hours.

6 In wisdom let us grow,
As years and strength are given,
That we may serve Thy Church below,
And join Thy saints in heaven. Amen.
570 "He shall feed His flock like a shepherd: He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom."—Isa. xl. 11.

1 Gracious Saviour, gentle Shepherd,
   Little ones are dear to Thee:
Gathered with Thine arms, and carried
   In Thy bosom, may we be Sweetly, fondly, safely tended;
   From all want and danger free.

2 Tender Shepherd, never leave us
   From Thy fold to go astray;
By Thy look of love directed,
   May we walk the narrow way;
Thus direct us, and protect us,
   Lest we fall an easy prey.

3 Cleanse our hearts from sinful folly
   In the stream Thy love supplied,—
Mingled stream of Blood and Water
   Flowing from Thy wounded Side:
And to heavenly pastures lead us,
   Where Thine own still waters glide.

4 Let Thy holy word instruct us;
   Keep our spirits pure and bright;
Let Thy love and grace constrain us
   To approve whate'er is right,
Take Thine easy yoke, and wear it,
   And to prove Thy burden light.

5 Taught to lisp the holy praises,
   Which on earth Thy children sing,
Both with lips and heart unfeigned
   May we our thank-offerings bring;
Then with all the saints in glory
   Join to praise their Lord and King! Amen.
571

"Be ye followers of God, as dear children."—Eph. v. 1.

1 Heavenly Father, send Thy blessing
   On Thy children gathered here,
   May they all, Thy Name confessing,
   Be to Thee for ever dear;
   May they be like Joseph, loving,
   Dutiful, and chaste, and pure;
   And their faith, like David, proving,
   Steadfast unto death endure.

2 Holy Saviour, who in meekness
   Didst vouchsafe a Child to be,
   Guide their steps and help their weakness,
   Bless and make them like to Thee;
   Bear Thy lambs when they are weary
   In Thine arms and at Thy breast,
   Through life's desert dry and dreary,
   Bring them to Thy heavenly rest.

3 Spread Thy golden pinions o'er them,
   Holy Spirit, from above;
   Guide them, lead them, go before them,
   Give them peace, and joy, and love:

\[ \text{cres.} \]

\[ \text{May they with Thy presence shine,} \]
\[ \text{And immortal bliss inherit,} \]
\[ \text{And for evermore be Thine. Amen.} \]
Hushed was the Evening Hymn. 6.6.6.6.8.8. Arthur Sullivan.

1 Hushed was the evening hymn, The temple courts were dark; The lamp was burning dim Before the sacred ark; When suddenly a Voice divine Rang through the silence of the shrine. Amen.

P 1 Hushed was the evening hymn, The Temple courts were dark; The lamp was burning dim Before the sacred ark; When suddenly a Voice divine Rang through the silence of the shrine.

P 2 The old man, meek and mild, The priest of Israel, slept; His watch the temple-child, The little Levite, kept; And what from Eli's sense was sealed, The Lord to Hannah's son revealed.

3 Oh! give me Samuel's ear, The open ear, O Lord, Alive and quick to hear Each whisper of Thy word, Like him to answer at Thy call, And to obey Thee first of all.

4 Oh! give me Samuel's heart, A lowly heart that waits Where in Thy House Thou art, Or watches at Thy gates By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of Thy will.

5 Oh! give me Samuel's mind, A sweet un murmuring faith, Obedient and resigned To Thee in life and death, That I may read with childlike eyes Truths that are hidden from the wise. Amen.

"Speak, Lord; for Thy servant heareth."—1 Sam. iii. 9.
In our work, and in our play, Jesus, be Thou ever near, Guarding, guiding all the day, Keeping in Thy holy fear.
Thou didst toil, a lowly Child, in the far-off Holy Land, Blessing labour undefiled, Pure and honest, of the hand. Amen.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil."—Ps. cxxi. 7.

1 In our work, and in our play, Jesus, be Thou ever near, Guarding, guiding all the day, Keeping in Thy holy fear.

2 Thou didst toil, a lowly Child, In the far-off Holy Land, Blessing labour undefiled, Pure and honest, of the hand.

3 Thou wilt bless our playhour too, If we ask Thy succour strong; Watch o'er all we say and do, Hold us back from guilt and wrong.

4 Oh! how happy thus to spend Work and playtime in His sight, Till the Rest which shall not end, Till the Day which knows not night. Amen.
574 “Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.”—St. Luke x. 21.

1 Jesus, high in glory,
    Lend a listening ear,
    When we bow before Thee,
    Children’s praises hear.

2 Though Thou art so holy,
    Heaven’s Almighty King,
    Thou wilt stoop to listen,
    When Thy praise we sing.

3 We are little children,
    Weak and apt to stray;
    Saviour, guide and keep us
    In the heavenly way.

4 Save us, Lord, from sinning,
    Watch us day by day;
    Help us now to love Thee;
    Take our sins away;

5 Then, when Jesus calls us
    To our heavenly home,
    We would gladly answer,
    “Saviour, Lord, we come.” Amen.
575

"Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man."—St. Luke ii. 52.

1 O holy Lord, content to fill
   In lowly home the lowliest place;
   Thy childhood's law a mother's will,
   Obedience meek Thy brightest grace.

2 Lead every child that bears Thy Name
   To walk in Thine own guileless way,
   To dread the touch of sin and shame,
   And humbly, like Thyself, obey.

3 Oh! let not this world's scorching glow
   Thy Spirit's quickening dew efface,
   Nor blast of sin too rudely blow,
   And quench the trembling flame of grace.

4 Gather Thy lambs within Thine arm,
   And gently in Thy bosom bear;
   Keep them, O Lord, from hurt and harm,
   And bid them rest for ever there.

5 So shall they, waiting here below,
   Like Thee their Lord, a little span,
   In wisdom and in stature grow,
   And favour with both God and man. Amen.

576 "He came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them."—St. Luke ii. 51.

1 Once in royal David's city
   Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her Baby
   In a manger for His bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
   Jesus Christ her little child.

2 He came down to earth from heaven
   Who is God and Lord of all,
And His shelter was a stable,
   And His cradle was a stall;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
   Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

3 And, through all His wondrous childhood,
   He would honour and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden
   In whose gentle arms He lay:
Christian children all must be
   Mild, obedient, good as He.

4 For He is our childhood's Pattern,
   Day by day like us He grew,
He was little, weak, and helpless,
   Tears and smiles like us He knew;
And He feeleth for our sadness,
   And He shareth in our gladness.

5 And our eyes at last shall see Him,
   Through His own redeeming love,
For that child so dear and gentle
   Is our Lord in heaven above;
And He leads His children on
   To the place where He is gone.

6 Not in that poor lowly stable,
   With the oxen standing by,
cres. We shall see Him; but in heaven,
   Set at God's right hand on high;
   When like stars His children crowned,
   All in white shall wait around. Amen.
"While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."—Rom. v. 8.

1 There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

2 We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

3 He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by His precious Blood.

4 There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

5 Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved,
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming Blood,
And try His works to do. Amen.
1 There's a Friend for little children
   Above the bright blue sky,
   A Friend who never changes,
   Whose love will never die:
   Unlike our friends by nature,
   Who change with changing years,
   This Friend is always worthy
   The precious name He bears.

2 There's a Rest for little children,
   Above the bright blue sky,
   Who loved the blessed Saviour
   And to the Father cry,—
   A rest from every trouble,
   From sin and danger free,
   Where every little pilgrim
   Shall rest eternally.

3 There's a Home for little children
   Above the bright blue sky,
   Where Jesus reigns in glory,
   A home of peace and joy;

   No home on earth is like it,
   Nor can with it compare,
   For every one is happy,
   Nor can be happier there.

4 There's a Crown for little children,
   Above the bright blue sky;
   And all who look for Jesus,
   Shall wear it by-and-by,
   A crown of brightest glory,
   Which He will then bestow
   On all who love the Saviour,
   And walk with Him below.

5 There's a Song for little children,
   Above the bright blue sky,
   And a harp of sweetest music
   And a palm of victory:
   All all above is treasured
   And found in Christ alone:
   Oh come, dear little children,
   That all may be your own! Amen.
"If thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little."—Tobit iv. 8.

1 We are but little children weak,
Not born in any high estate;
What can we do for Jesus' sake
Who is so high and good and great?

2 We know the Holy Innocents
Laid down for Him their infant life,
And martyrs brave and patient saints
Have stood for Him in fire and strife.

3 We wear the cross they wore of old,
Our lips have learned like vows to make:
We need not die; we cannot fight;
What may we do for Jesus' sake?

4 Oh! day by day each Christian child
Has much to do, without, within:
A death to die for Jesus' sake,
A weary war to wage with sin:

5 When deep within our swelling hearts
The thoughts of pride and anger rise,
When bitter words are on our tongues,
And tears of passion in our eyes;

6 Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord.

7 With smiles of peace and looks of love
Light in our dwellings we may make,
Bid kind good-humour brighten there,
And do all still for Jesus' sake.

8 There's not a child so small and weak
But has his little cross to take,
His little work of love and praise
That he may do for Jesus' sake. Amen.

"Thou, O Lord, art our Father, our Redeemer."—Isa. lxiii. 16.

1 The hours of day are over,
   The evening calls us home;
Once more to Thee, O Father,
   With thankful hearts we come;
   Thy Son came down from heaven
   To take away our sin,
   Thy Spirit dwells among us
   To make us clean within,

2 For all Thy countless blessings
   We praise Thy holy Name,
And own Thy love unchanging,
   Through days and years the same.
   For this, O Lord, we bless Thee,
   For this, we thank Thee most,—
   The cleansing of the sinful,
   The saving of the lost;

3 But these, O Lord, can show us
   Thy goodness but in part;
Thy love would lead us onward
   To know Thee as Thou art;
   The Teacher ever present,
   The Friend for ever nigh,
   The Home prepared by Jesus
   For us above the sky.

4 For this, O Lord, we bless Thee,
   For this, we thank Thee most,—
   The cleansing of the sinful,
   The saving of the lost;
   The Teacher ever present,
   The Friend for ever nigh,
   The Home prepared by Jesus
   For us above the sky.

5 Lord, gather all Thy children
   To meet Thee there at last,
When earthly tasks are ended,
   And earthly days are past;
   With all our dear ones round us
   In that eternal home,
   Where death no more shall part us,
   And night shall never come! Amen.

P 1 By Thy birth, O Lord of all,
In a stable's lowly stall,
Where Thou didst vouchsafe to rest
On a human mother's breast;
   Guard Thy children, Lord, to Thee
Chanting this our Litany.

2 By Thy humble bed of straw,
Thy obedience to the Law;
By Thy forty days of woe
Wrestling with the mighty foe;
   Guard Thy children, &c.

3 By the hallowed water poured
On Thy sacred Head, O Lord,
When Thou Jordan's wave didst bless,
And fulfil all righteousness;
   Guard Thy children, &c.

4 By the anguish laid on Thee,
Kneeling in Gethsemane,
By Thy Gross and precious death,
By Thy last expiring breath;
   Guard Thy children, &c.

5 By the word of pardon blest
To the dying thief addressed,
By Thy cold and rocky bed,
By Thy sojourn 'midst the dead;
   Guard Thy children, &c.

6 By Thy Resurrection bright,
By Thy wondrous heavenly flight,
By the Throne where Thou dost stand
At Thy Father's own right hand;
   Guard Thy children, Lord, to Thee
   Chanting this their Litany. Amen.

7.7.7.6.

Je-su, we are far a-way From the light of heavenly day,

Lost in paths of sin we stray: Lord, in mercy hear us.

OF PENITENCE, No. 1.

1 Jesus, we are far away From the light of heavenly day,
   Lost in paths of sin we stray:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

2 Deeper has the darkness grown;
   Saviour, come to seek Thine own,
   Leave, O leave us not alone:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

3 Thou our great Example art,
   Thou canst needful grace impart
   To the wayward, earth-bound heart:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

4 Foolish, weak, and sad we lie;
   Guard us with Thy loving eye,
   Be our helper, always nigh:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

5 Help us to bewail our sin,
   And, in heavenly strength, begin
   Daily victories to win:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

6 Keep us lowly that we may,
   Ever watchful, turn away
   From the snares our tempters lay:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

7 On our darkness shed Thy light,
   Lead our wills to what is right,
   Wash our evil nature white:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

8 May Thy wisdom be our guide,
   Comfort, rest, and peace provide
   Near to Thy protecting side:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

9 May the world seem only dross,
   May we welcome shame and loss,
   Willingly endure the cross:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

10 When oppressed with trouble sore,
   Teach our hearts to feel the more
   For the pangs our Saviour bore:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

11 May we true devotion feel
   To our God, and holy zeal
   For our fellow creatures' weal:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

12 May we selfishness deny,
   And the body mortify,
   Doing deeds of charity:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

13 Make us earnest when we pray,
   Diligent from day to day,
   Meaning, doing, what we say:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

14 Fix our hearts on things on high,
   Let no evil thoughts come nigh,
   Purge from sin our memory:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

15 May Thy grace within the soul
   Nature's waywardness control,
   Guiding towards the heavenly goal:
   Lord, in mercy hear us.

16 So at last, from sin set free,
   What we long for, may we see,
   And for ever blessed be:
   Lord, in mercy hear us. Amen.
OF PENITENCE, No. 2.

1 Father, hear Thy children's call:
Humbly at Thy feet we fall,
Prodigals, confessing all:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

2 Christ, beneath Thy Cross we blame
All our life of sin and shame,
Penitent, we breathe Thy Name;
We beseech Thee, hear us.

3 Holy Spirit, grieved and tried,
Oft forgotten and defied,
Now we mourn our stubborn pride:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

4 Love that caused us first to be,
Love that bled upon the tree,
Love that draws us lovingly:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

5 We Thy call have disobeyed,
Have neglected, and delayed,
Into paths of sin have strayed:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

6 Sick, we come to Thee for cure,
Guilty, seek Thy mercy sure,
Evil, come to be made pure:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

7 Blind, we pray that we may see,
Bound, we pray to be made free,
Stained, we pray for sanctity:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

8 Hearing every contrite sigh,
Bidding sinful souls draw nigh,
Willing not that one should die:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

9 By the gracious saving call
Spoken tenderly to all
Who have shared man's guilt and fall:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

10 By the nature Jesus wore,
By the stripes and death He bore,
By His life for evermore:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

11 By the love that longs to bless,
Pitying our sore distress,
Leading us to holiness:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

12 By the love so calm and strong,
Patient still to suffer wrong,
And our day of grace prolong:
We beseech Thee, hear us,

13 By the love that speaks within,
Calling us to flee from sin,
And the joy of goodness win:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

14 By the gifts that shew Thee near,
By the stripes of love we fear,
Warning us Thy voice to hear:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

15 By the love that bids Thee spare,
By the heaven Thou dost prepare,
By Thy promises to prayer:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

16 Teach us what Thy love has borne.
That, with flowing sorrow torn,
Truly contrite we may mourn:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

17 Gifts of light and grace bestow,
Help us to resist the foe,
Fearing what indeed is woe:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

18 Let not sin within us reign,
May we gladly suffer pain,
If it burn away our stain:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

19 May we to all evil die,
Fleshly longings crucify,
Fix our hearts and thoughts on high:
We beseech Thee. hear us.

20 Grant us Faith to know Thee near,
Hail Thy grace, Thy judgment fear,
And through trial persevere:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

21 Grant us Hope from earth to rise,
And to strain with eager eyes
Towards the promised heavenly prize:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

22 Grant us Love Thy love to own,
Love to live for Thee alone,
And the power of grace make known:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

23 All our weak endeavours bless,
As we ever onward press,
Till we perfect holiness:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

24 Lead us daily nearer Thee, cres. Till at last Thy Face we see,
dim. Crowned with Thine own purity:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Amen.

6 We are dying day by day,
   Soon from earth we pass away!
   Lord of Life, to Thee we pray:
   Hear us, Holy Jesu.

7 Ere we hear the Angel’s call,
   And the shadows round us fall,
   Be our Saviour, be our All:
   Hear us, Holy Jesu.

8 Wean our hearts from things below,
   Make us all Thy love to know,
   Guard us from our ghostly foe:
   Hear us, Holy Jesu.

9 Shelter us with Angel’s wing,
   To our souls Thy pardon bring;
   So shall death have lost its sting:
   Hear us, Holy Jesu.

10 In the gloom Thy light provide,
    Safely through the valley guide;
    Thee we trust, for Thou hast died!
    Hear us, Holy Jesu.

Judgment.

11 When Thy summons we obey,
   On the dreadful Judgment Day,
   Let not fear our soul dismay:
   Hear us, Holy Jesu.

12 While the lost in terror fly,
   May we see with joyful eye
   Our Redemption drawing nigh:
   Hear us, Holy Jesu.

13 May we see Thee on Thy Throne,
   As the Saviour we have known
   And have followed as our own:
   Hear us, Holy Jesu.

14 May we, then, a midst the blest,
   Who Thy Name on earth confessed
   Hear Thee calling us to rest:
   Hear us, Holy Jesu.

PP 15 From the awful | place of doom,
Where in rayless | outer gloom,
Dead souls lie as | in a tomb:
Save us, Holy Jesu.

16 From the black, the | dull despair
Ruined men and | angels share;
From the dread com | panions there:
Save us, Holy Jesu.

17 From the unknown | agonies
Of the soul that | helpless lies,
From the worm that | never dies;
Save us, Holy Jesu.

18 From the lusts that | never tame,
From the fierce mys | terious flame,
From the ever | lasting shame:
Save us, Holy Jesu.

Heaven.

MF 19 Where Thy saints in | glory reign,
Free from sorrow, | free from pain,
Pure from every | guilty stain:
Bring us, Holy Jesu.

20 Where the captives | find release,
Where all foes from | troubling cease,
Where the weary | rest in peace:
Bring us, Holy Jesu.

21 Where the pleasures | never cloy,
Where in Angel's | holy joy,
God-like men their | powers employ:
Bring us, Holy Jesu.

22 Where in wondrous | light are shown
All Thy dealings | with Thine own,
Who shall know as | they are known:
